CAPTAIN LEO'S LUCK

He is the Only Survivor of the Schooner Bradley.

THE SHIP SUNK BY A BIG SEA.

Every Man Except the Captain and Mate Swept Into the Ocean.

Leo Floated Off on the Cover of the Wheel Box—The Mate Disappeared When the Vessel Went Down—Sad Fate of the Cook—Picked Up by a Bark After Drifting 24 Hours.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—A more destructive cyclone to Yankee fore-and-afters than which howled up the coast on Oct. 10 has seldom been recorded. A dozen lumber carriers were abandoned to its fury off Hatteras and in the neighborhood of the Virginia capes, and others with less buoyant cargoes were overwhelmed.

Among the latter was the new three-masted schooner William H. Bradley. The news of her loss reached this port early last month. The report was that her skipper and crew of seven men had been landed at the Canary Islands by the Spanish bark Fama de Canaries.

The relatives of the crew will be shocked to learn that only the skipper of the schooner, Captain John H. Leo, survived the wreck, according to the story he told yesterday when he arrived on the Ward line steamship Orizaba, from Havana, whither he had sailed from the Canaries.

The William L. Bradley left Charleston for Weymouth, Mass., on Oct. 5, with 900 tons of phosphate rock. She was struck by the hurricane about 90 miles east of Cape Charles. She was hove to, with all hands on deck standing by for any emergency when a tremendous sea—which Capt. Leo terms a "tidal wave"—toppled over the weather bow and thundered aboard, smashing in the schooner's decks.

Every man except the skipper and mate was swept into the riot of waters, and the vessel, burdened with dead weight equal to twice her tonnage, went down in an instant.

Captain Leo leaped overboard and found himself clinging to the wheelhouse, on which he floated off. He saw nothing of the mate after the schooner sank.

While drifting on the wheelhouse cover he caught a fleeting glimpse of the cook floundering on some wreckage. The cook disappearad, and Captain Leo was left alone.

He clung to the wheelhouse cover all night through the worst of the tempest. The sea moderated at dawn. Such a small object as a man on a bit of board is not likely to attract much attention at sea, even in the highway of coasters. Capt. Leo saw the sails of several vessels, and tried, by yelling and waving his coat, to draw their notice.

Just before noon the Fama de Canaries hove in sight, passed near enough to notice his signals, and took him abord. She was bound from this port for the Canary Islands. She left here on the day the schooner went down, and arrived at the islands on Nov. 12.

ELOPERS NOT FORGIVEN.

Obdurate Parents Keep Mrs. James Griffen's Clothes.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Dec. 1.—James Griffen and Miss Nettie Griffin, the pretty daughter of a well-to-do family, eloped on Thanksgiving Day and were quietly married at the parsonage of St. Luke's Church, in New York, by the assistant rector, Rev. Mr. Bussee. The young couple tried in vain to obtain the consent of the bride's parents.

When the young couple returned to this city from New York yesterday, after an expensive honeymoon spent there, they went to the residence of the bride, where they met with a warm reception. The bride demanded her clothes, but these the father refused to give up, and the result was that police aid was called in by the young couple.

The police, however, were powerless, and then an attorney was called into consultation. The father still persisted in his refusal and action for their recovery will at once be brought by the husband of the girl. Interesting developments are looked for.

Contested Election Cases to Be Heard.

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 1.—Gov. Hill has appointed an extraordinary special term of the Supreme Court to be held in Syracuse beginning to-day and continuing as long as necessary for the transaction of the business that will be brought before it. The Hon. Morgan J. O'Brien has been designated as the Justice. The contested election cases will be the principal business.

Secretary Foster's Condition.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The continued illness of Secretary Foster excites some uneasiness among his friends. He is improved, but during last week his condition was such as to cause apprehension. He is unable to sit up, and only the most urgent matters are brought to his personal attention.

An Investigation Ordered.

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 1.—The charges made to the Governor against Surrogate Elias H. Peters, of Saratoga County, of malfeasance in office, has been sent to the Attorney-General by Governor Hill, with directions that he cause an investigation into them and report at the earliest day practicable.

Chicago Electric Plant Destroyed.

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Fire in the Chicago Arc Light and Power Company's plant, in the rear of the Central Manufacturing Block, at Washington and Market streets, last night, caused 2,300 electric lights to go out, leaving the down-town district of the city in comparative darkness the remainder of the night. The loss will be upward of $500,000.

Six Firemen Hurt.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., Dec. 1.—Fire last evening caused a loss of about $10,000 to the wood-working establishment of Z. A. Ward on McKay street. Two ladders broke during the fire, throwing six firemen to the ground. Edward Powell was badly crushed, had his back hurt and was internally injured. The other five were not so badly hurt.

Brice Contest Probably Ended.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 1.—Judge George K. Nash, whom the Republican State Central Committee decided to employ to examine the question of Brice's eligibility to election to the United States Senate from Ohio, has refused to act. This probably puts an end to the Brice matter.

Three Lost in the Flames.

BELLAIRE, O., Dec. 1.—The Union Window Glass Works, the largest of its kind in this section, were destroyed by fire last night. Loss about $100,000. Three employes were caught while at work in the upper floor and perished in the flames.

A Mystery Explained.

The papers contain frequent notices of rich, pretty and educated girls eloping with negroes, tramps and commen. The well-known specialist, Dr. Franklin Miles, says all such girls are more or less hysterical, nervous, very impressive, unbalanced; usually subject to headache, neuralgia, sleeplessness, immoderate crying or laughing. These show a weak nervous system for which there is no remedy equal to Restorative Nervine. Trial bottles and a fine book, containing many marvelous cures, free at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store, who also sell, and guarantee Dr. Miles' celebrated New Heart Cure, the finest of heart tonics. Cures fluttering, short breath, etc.

Keep your eyes open for the petty sneak thieves that are now about.

Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills
Act on a new principle—regulating the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new discovery. Dr. Miles' Pills speedily cure biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, piles, constipation. Unequaled for men, women, children. Smallest, mildest, surest! 50 doses, 25cts. Samples Free, at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store.

Foot ball has taken the place of base ball as an American craze.

Height of Cruelty.

Nervous women seldom receive the symptoms they deserve. While even the victims of health, they are constantly ailing. To withhold sympathy from these unfortunates is the height of cruelty. They have a weak heart, causing shortness of breath, fluttering, pain in side, weak and hungry spells, and finally swelling of ankles, oppression, choking, smothering and dropsy. Dr Miles' New Heart Cure is just the thing for them. For the nervous nausea, headache, weakness, etc., his Restorative Nervine is unqualed. Fine treatise on "Heart and Nervous Disease" and marvelous testimonials free. Sold and guaranteed by C. H. Hagenbuch.

The bath is improved by the addition of a little baking soda.

Oh, What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning? The signal perhaps of the sure aproach of that more terrible disease, Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50 cents, to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will Cure your Cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a Million Bottles were sold the past year. It relieves Croup and Whopping Cough at once. Mothers do not be without it. For Lame Back, Side or Chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by C. H. Hagenbuch, N. E. corner Main and Lloyd streets.

Sunday schools are beginning work on Christmas music.

Shiloh's Consumption Cure.
This is beyond question the most successful Cough Medicine we have ever sold, a few doses invariably cure the worst cases of Cough, Croup, and Bronchitis, while its wonderful success in the cure of Consumption is without a parallel in the history of medicine. Since it's first discovery it has been sold on a guarantee, a test which no other medicine can stand. If you have a Cough we earnestly ask you to try it. Price 10 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore, Chest or Back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by C. H. Hagenbuch, N. E. corner Main and Lloyd streets.

Dry-picked turkeys are preferred by most housewives.

A Glorious Record.
Since the introduction of the Famous Pan Tina Cough and Consumption Cure in this vicinity, the death rate from Consumption has decreased wonderfully; it never fails to effect a cure, and is the best Cough medicine. Try it. Trial bottles free at Kirlin's drug store.

WARRANTS FOR ALL

Orders of Arrest Issued for Field, Lindley & Co.

EMBEZZLEMENT AND FORGERY.

The Biggest Wall Street Sensation Since Grant and Ward Failed.

Liabilities of the Defunct Firm Will Run Into the Millions, and the Assets are But $500—Cyrus W. Field's Pitiable Condition—His Son Not in Bloomingdale Asylum—Employes Will Suffer.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Justice Pratt of the Supreme Court of Kings County issued attachments and orders of arrest yesterday against all the partners of the firm of Field, Lindley, Wiechers & Co. The orders were granted upon the application of Lawyer F. A. Ward, representing R. E. Dietz, one of the creditors, whose claim against the company is $95,000. The papers in the case were sent to the sheriff of the county for service. Bail in each case is fixed at $50,000.

General fraud, hypothecation and rehypothecation of securities, embezzlement and forgery are on each page of the incomplete history of the failure of the house. Not since Grant & Ward were caught in the financial maelstrom has Wall street had such a sensation to discuss. Every one is in the dark, comparatively speaking, as to the amount of liabilities of the bankrupt firm, but the obligations are heavy, too heavy, in fact, for Cyrus W. Field to liquidate with his large remnant of a once tremendous fortune.

There is no doubt that the liabilities will run into the millions. The visible cash assets are $500, which amount is in the assignee's hands. This money was paid to him yesterday by a broker against whom Field, Lindley & Co. had a claim. Although the house did a banking business, the books do not show a balance in favor of depositors.

All the old employes are busy at the books, and it will be several days before any accurate estimate of the firm's standing can be given. All those employes are severely hurt by the failure. Salaries have been owing for months, and the savings of many of the men have gone by the board. Edward M. Field induced them to keep their accounts with the house. He had no more consideration for them than for wealthy customers like the Union Pacific Railroad Company.

Cyrus W. Field's physician said this morning that his patient rested easily last night but he is still greatly prostrated and his bodily weakness is more perceptible. Strict quiet is most necessary.

Charles W. Gould, assignee of Field, Lindley, Wiechers & Co., said this morning to a reporter that the report was not true that Edward M. Field, the insane member of the bankrupt firm, was in Bloomingdale Asylum, but he was probably in some private asylum, as he (Mr. Gould) understood on Saturday that it had not been determined to place Mr. Field in a private asylum that day.

Mr. Gould admits there have been crooked transactions, but attributes it all to Mr. Field, and says he feels confident that his partners knew nothing of it. Mr. Gould said that thus far he had found but $500 worth of assets. He did not know anything of a conference of the Field family, but thought it but natural that Cyrus W. Field should assist his son in the present extremity. Mr. Gould said he did not believe the failure was enormously large, but he could give no idea of what the liabilities were.

Incendiaries in a Vermont Town.

RUTLAND, Vt., Dec. 1.—Great anxiety exists among the people of the village of Castleton, 12 miles from here, on account of incendiary fires that have prevailed there at the rate of one a day. Several barns have been burned and a number of dwellings have narrowly escaped. The villagers have organized vigilance committees, which patrol the streets by night, and it is proposed to hire a city detective.

Indian Judgment Against the U. S.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The Court of Claims yesterday, in the case of Old Settler and Western Cherokee Indians vs. the United States, ordered that judgment for $830,000 be entered against the United States. It grows out of the removal of the Western Cherokees from Georgia and North Carolina to the Cherokee country.
