DRAMATIC SCENE IN COURT.

with the Crime by Their Accomplice,

McGuire and Mrs. Brown Openly Charged

The Man Pleads Not Guilty-How the Pair Were Arrested - Clever Buse of the Detectives to Get Them Out of Pennsylvania Without a Requisition-No Doubt as to the Guilt of the Arrested Comple.

Mindustrown, N. Y., Dec. 3.—Fred McGuire and Mrs. Sarah A. Brown, the alleged mur derers of Mrs. Amelia J. Gregory, who was killed at her home, near this city, on October 14, are in the grasp of justice. They were arrested at Galeton, Pa., and brought here Tues-day night. To avoid the delay incident to a requisition the detectives told the pair that they were wanted as witnesses in the murder case.

When Justice John Wiggins opened court yesterday morning for a hearing in the case Assistant District Attorney in the case Assistant Blatrict. Attorney Powelson appeared for the people and Theron A. Read for the prisoners. McGuire was first arraigned and interrogated apart from Mrs. Brown. In reply to the Court he stated that he was 23 years old—no is proughly lon years older—and was been at Shandakan, Ulster County. In a firm voice he pleaded not onlive.

There was a demmatic seems in court There was a demantic seems in court when Warren Research, it is alloged accomplion of the prisoner, was called to the witness stood by the district attorney. As this unlooked for appearance of his old partner in crime as a witness against him detailed him. In reply to sharp questioning Brazington gave ablitional and assistational details to his confession previously ington gave ablitional and sensitional details to his confession praviously made. He told how McFuirs and Mrs. Brown and himself hat not at McGuire's and conspired to rob the Gragorys. On two nights, he said, shortly before the murder wrs accomplished, he and McGuira went to the Gregory house armed with loaded pistols and intent on "getting the money," as he phrased it. On each occasion as they sneaked up to the house they saw Mr. and Mrs. Gregory peaceably seated beside their hearthstone. Brazington says that at this sight his heart failed him and he refused to accompany McGuire.

This new statement by Brazington is

This new statement by Brazington is believed to be true and confirms the general opinion that Mrs. Brown was as general opinion that Mrs. Brown was as deep in the plot as McGuire, and that she accompanied him and assisted him in the dreadful work.

Justice Wiggins committed McGuire to the county jail at Goshen to await the action of the grand jury. The police have secured from the woman a $5 bill with peculiar marks and discolorations, and Mr. Gregory identifies it as being part of the money stolen from his being part of the money stolen from his house at the time of the murder.

Banks and Bank Failures,

Washington, Dec. 3.—The report of the Comptroller of Currency shows that during the year ended Oct. 31, 1891, 193 new National banks were organized 193 new National Danks were organized possessing an aggegate capital of $20, 700,000, thus exhibiting a growth largely in excess of the annual average for past years. In number of faures the present exceeds any previous year, but others have been more disastrous in point of capital and liabilities. It is noted that more than one half in number of the banks which became insolvent during the period covered by the reent during the period covered by the re-port were located in two, Western States, and that these failures were chiefly due to the effects of four successive crop

Burned to Death in lier House

Canandardia, N. Y., Dec. 3.—Early yesterday morning James S. Crawford's house on Wood street was burned and the only occupant, Mrs. Sarah Gibson de Somoskeny was cremated alive. When the fire was discovered the entire interior was in flames and the attention of the department was directed to the adjoining buildings. After the flames had been extinguished it was found that Mrs. Somoskeoy was missing, and further search revealed her blackened remains in the ruins.
