SPEAKERSHIP FIGHT STILL ON

It is Thought That a Nomination Will Be Made To Day,

Each of the Caudidates Couldent, However, and Showing no Sign of Yintding Blatch's Quintette Streking By Blin Nominations By the Republicans-The President's Message Will Sox Be Sent to Congress Bufore To-Morrow.

Wallingrow, Dec. 7 -The 524 Congrees was formally opened a little before non-to-day. The House of Represcutatives was called to order by the roll clerk, Mr. Mgl'aersou, and an adjournment followed to allow the Democratic exacus to renew its efforts to nominate the party candidate for

The fight for the Speakership is the most remarkable contest known for the past thirty years.

Crisp leads by three votes, a small margin, it is true, but enough to solidly his forces as well as those of his most dangerous opponent, Milia. Small as dangerous oppount, Milis. Small as are their devoted friends in number, McMillin and Springer believes that Crisp and Milis will go down in a death stragge edisped in each other's arms, while to one of them will come the hard fought hand with all its power.

Seventoen tedlots were taken before monagle stating, and the result was in a chance. Out of 11s necessary to will, Crisp had by votes, Milis 11, Paringer 17, McMillin 19 and Hatch 5.

As this had been practically the result of several uniform, there was a strong disposition to sound a true of return the month of the pit. As soon as possible, men descended to the result of several uniform, there was a strong disposition to sound a true of return the month of the pit. As now as possible, men descended to the result of several uniform, there was a strong disposition to sound a true of return the month of the pit. As now as possible, men descended to the result of several uniform, there was a alrough the opening shrieked and walled to agony for the fathers and brothers below.

The rescuers are reported to have found all dead but about twenty, issuentoss issiluta were taken before moinigle batterday, and the result was no choice. Out of 114 necessary to wim, Crisp had Di votes, Mills Di Paringer II, bemillin 19 and Hateh 5. As this had been practically the result of several ballots, there was a strong disposition to sound a trues for the night and begin the battle to-day after tongress had not and adjourned. This was done, all the condidates being anxious to withdraw for res and repairs. ious to withdraw for res. and repairs.

The McMillin men were jubilian over the adjournment and claimed that their candigate was sure of siscilon. The Springer and Halch contingents were also joyint, while the Mals and Urasp factions were correspondingly depressed.

The fights of recent years have been taken and commonplace compared to this one. Ordinarily the most apirited Spentorship fights have been settled on third bailot, or at teast the fourth, "Tom" Reed, for example, beat McKin-ley and his other adversaries two years ero, when the Republicans organized the broase, on the second bullet. An day yesterday and this morning An "ay restarday and this morning properting has been going on, but so far as can be a socialmen, without material result. The supporters of Mr. little and Mr. Crisp stand firm against the attacks of the other candidates.

Assaults on these ranks have been made repeatedly, but without perceptible result.

The McMillin, Springer and Hatch man pour into the ears of Mills and Crisp men who will listen to it, the argument that noisher Mills nor Crisp can increase their pressur screenth in any circumstances, and that either McMillan. Springer or Haten, according to the senments of the men advancing the arguments of the mon anysholing the argument, was sure to win.

Heavy as her been the assaults brought to bear on Hatch's little army of five, the quintette refuse to go over to any other candidate. A rumor that the finite men had agreed to go over to Mills on the first build to day was knocked in the head by Messrs. Taraney and De Armond of Missouri, who state emphatically that they will not vote for Mills under any cir * alances, but will Mills under any circa datances, but will wute for listed unit it is obvious that he cannot be elected. They prefer Crisp positively denies this.

The House will in all probability transact little or no business during the week, outside the organization. It is even possible that a speaker may not be elected for several days, though many people who are watching the situation, appear to think that a break may be made to day, and a non nation reached. Whether the drawing, for sexits will occur when the Speakership question is settled has not been determined, but the chances are that everything will be held across the meadows during the night actiled has not been determined, but the chances are that everything will be held up until the organization is perfected. Should the caucus settle the question, the organization will be promptly effected, and then the first thing to be done will be the drawing for seats. It is always an interesting proceeding and watched with keen interest by the spactators in the galleries.

tators in the galleries.

The President's message will not be read in the House until to-morrow, provided, of course, that the organization is perfected, and an adjournment will follow until Toursday. Not much in the way of business can be done until after the committees are appointed.

Washington, Dec. 7.—The Republical members of the House met Saturday arening in the room of the Committee on Judiciary. When a querum was present the caucus was called to order by Mr. Henderson of Hilmas. Nominations for the Speakership were immediately in order, and Mr. Burrows of Michigan presented the name of Mr. Reed. The nomination was agreed to by incharation, and Mr. Reed made a brief speach in reco, a flood of the honor. THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE, None To-marrow Washington, Dec. 5.—The President is still at work on his message. For the last three mornings he has not occupied his office between the Cabinet room and his control between the Cabinet room and that occupied by Mr. Haiforni, but he has had a table desk fixed up in his bedroom, where he has written until 12:30 o'clock, when he has gone out into his ordinary quarters to receive callers.

SIXTY REPORTED DEAD.

Horrible Calamity in a Mine in South western France.

PARIS, Dec. 7 .- A fearful disaster is found all dead but about twenty, who had been in working where the explosion did not have its full affect. The scene, as the bodies were brought up, was terrible. Women fell on the bodies of their relatives and could not be torn away, and loud improvations were utter-ed against the officials whose neglect was held responsible for the calamity.

The authorities are preparing to hold a rigid investigation, as it is claimed that the mine had been inspected within a few hours before the explosion, and declared safe to work in.

CHINESE REBELS ROUTED.

Defeated With Great Loss - Another Massucre of Christians.

SHANGHAL Dec. 7.—Fuller particulars have been received of the recent battle between the Chinese troops and the rebels, partly Mongollans and partly Chinese, who have been advancing to-ward Fekin. There seems to be no doubt that the rebels received a serious check. The Chinese general, Nich, one of the bravest and bast known of the imperial army, led the government forces, numbering 6,000 picked men from the National army.

The charge was irresistible. Nich, still at the head of his men, dashed into the breaking ranks of the enemy, seeking out the rebel commander. A wound whether serious or not is untold, stayed the ardor of Gen. Nich, and while the the arder of tien. Nich, and while the rebel leader is said to have fallen, it must have been by another hand.

The mounted rebels turned their po-nice to the north and fluid in confusion. Those on post received no quarter. Those who surrendered as prisoners were immediately beheaded.

When about a mile from Pleasantville he was stopped by two strange men, who asked for a ride. He allowed them to get in the wagon, when suddenly they presented revolvers and demanded his money. Johnson gave them over $70 and valuables. The highwaymen then leaped from the wagon and ran down the road to where another wagon was standing and drove away. wagon was standing and drove away.

Birds Flying North in Winter.

NYACE, N.Y., Dac. 7.—A strange sight was witnessed along the lower Hudson River valley yesterday afternoon. Thousands of birds, flying in a northerly direction, were seen. The strange phenomenou cannot be accounted for, as birds fly to the South at this season of the year. It is thought the birds were robins, but never before have they been known to come north at this season.
