AFFAIRS CAUGHT HASTILY.
What News Gatherers Take a Moment to Tell About.
Congress met to-day.
The Florida oranges are the best.
Three weeks till Christmas.
The crescent of the new moon is out.
The lay pavement is getting ready for mischief.
Cold waves cause great inroads on the coal line.
Christmas decorations will soon brighten the shops.
Lots of Christmas presents are being made out.
When you have to spend, spend it in our own town.
There is still comfort left us: wo men's collars cannot very well take to foot ball.
State road may be the most wholesome, but it is not always the most appetizing.

Architect Wheeler's Success.
Boston, Dec. 7.—Thomas Wheeler of Chicago, who shot himself at the Hotel Brunswick Saturday morning, had for a year been in the service of Henry Ives Cobb of Chicago. Before going there he was employed in the office of Peabody & Stearns, architects of this city. He was well known to Boston architects, and was considered by them a visionary sort of a fellow with dreams far beyond his powers of realization. Wheeler has a mother at Meadville, Pa. No cause for the young man's suicide has yet been found.

Death of An Actress.
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Dec. 7.—Miss E. Lattimer, a well-known actress of several seasons of music, a fine linguist and instructor, died in this city yesterday, aged 35 years, of paralysis of the brain. She was at one time teacher of Franklin B. Gowen and ex-Mayor Henry of Philadelphia.
