Nearly every pattern of % Horse Blanket is imitated in color and style. In most cases the imitation looks just as good as the genuine, but it hasn't the warp threads, and so lacks strength, and while it sells for only a little less than the genuine it isn't worth one-half as much. The fact that 5/A Horse Blunkets are copied is strong evidence that they are THE STANDARD, and every buyer should see that the A trade mark is sewed on the inside of the Blanket.

EVIDENCE AGAINST THE DOCTOR

Reporter Trickey Tells of the Interview He Had With the Accused.

At that Meeting Graves Made Serious Churges Against the Woman's Character-Said She Was Dissipated and Had Several Lovers-The Celebrated Case Fast Deawing to a Close, DENVER, Col., Dec. 18 .- If Mrs. Hickey, Mrs. Barnaby's washerwoman, is to be believed, Dr. Graves not only threatened to have a guardian placed over Mrs. Barnaby, but be threatened also to place her in a lunstic asylum. in her testimony she said that he made the latter threat to Mrs Hickey, and Mrs. Hickey promptly told him that It Mrs. Barnaby went to an asylum that she would go with her. She was a benefficiery of the Barnaby family, has had worked for the faller and mother of Mrs. Parnaby, and on their deathefficiency of the Barnaby family, one streams. He placed a sharpened leaf-had worked for the father and mother pencil directly over the region of his of Mrs. Farmay, and on their death-heats, and, holding it in a borizontal beats she had promised to look after Mrs. Barnaby. This ame said, she did door. The pencil was driven half an until Dr. Graves managed to get into her good graces. Mrs. Barnaby. This she said, she did until Dr. Graves managed to get into her good graces.

Mrs. Hickey was a positive little body and she told her story with many ges-initiations and sharing of the head. Junger March onjoined her to a sever-constraination, but it did not furt not resting in the least. Mrs. Bennett told of Salite Hanley riding horseback "man fashion" in a Mather Hubbard wrapper, and Reporter Trickey of Boston told of a very Im-portant interview he had with the doctor. It was an eventout day, and the testimony was the most sensational thus

Reporter Telekey exploded a sensa-tion, too, while on the stand. He testi-fied that the much talked of telegram, which took Mrs. firaves away from Providence and which was supposed to be a part of the nior wainst the dector be a part of the plot against the doctor, was in reality sent by numself and au-other reporter and their only lies was to locate Mrs. Graves for the purpose of interviewing her.

Reporter Trickey detailed at length the interview with Dr. Graves. The doctor, be said, believed that a murder had been committed. He believed the poisoned bottle was sent from Roston. but he was unwilling to take about his movements on his journey to the West. The doctor sold that circumstantial facts night have the appearance of con-demning him, but he was in no way concerned in her death. He said that Mrs Barnaby was a dissipated woman and had lovers. She frequently men-tioned Ballon and Jackson as her law-

He said it was only at the repeated solicitations of Mrs. Barnaby, her fam-ily and friends that he had taken charge of the property. He went on to say that she had a mania for making wills. He was aware that another will had been made. After the Addrondack trip the relations between himself and Mrs. Barusby were not the same as they had been before. In the Adirondacks Mrs. Barnaby and Bequett drank togetner, and he once found them drunk in the ice nouse and he had suspicious about their relations.

It made a big row and Mrs. Bennett said she would never allow Mrs. Barnaby to come to her house again. He thought that may have caused Mrs. Baroby to make another will. He also called her a vilo name, but said that was not for publication. He regretied he ever became acquainted with Mrs. Barnaby. Bacnaby.

COLE HOME AGAIN.

The Missing Cashier Returns from His Wanderings, Demented

NYAUR, N. Y., Dec. 18.—Edward H. Cole is alive in bed at his home in Nyack, a demented man. He reached here by ferry from Tarrytown yesterday.

He does not even recognize his wife and father, but they are so overjoyed at having him with them again alive that their grief at his critical condition is much allared. The excitement in the town is as great as the day he disap-peared, and the public rejoicing is manifested on every hand.

When the hoat reached Nyack a carriage was procured, and Isaac Pye, a friend of Cole, took him homs. As he was assisted from the vehicle Cole looked wildly, and then, with a gleam of intel-ligence in his face, whispered hoursely and brokenly, "Why, this is where I used to live."

The greeting by the family was too affecting for literal description. An effort to force a little wine down the sufferer's throat failed, and Dr. Blauvelt, who arrived a few moments later, ordered tole put to bed at once and denied admission to any one but members of the family.

of the family. Cole was carefully relieved of his torn and soled clothing, and carried to his room by the ductor, his father and a reporter.

It was evident that he had not been to bed since he left Nyack hast Saturday, and his swedien feet indicated that he had wandered many miles. Indeed, it is thought that he was seen in

Mr. Dickers of James S. Blauvelt & Co., expressed his pleasure and relief at Cole's return and his earnest hope for his speedy recovery. The instantions against Cole are acting like boomerangs, and the severity of public criticism against the few who have accused cism against the few who have accused Cole of dishonesty has increased this morning.

ASKED TO RESIGN

Michigan's Secretary of State Leaves His Office.

CHARGES OF MALFEASANCE

Accused of Hingally Disposing of Legislative Manuals and Other Printing-

When Governor Winans Heard of the Charges He Immediately Bequested secretary Soper's Resignation Near of the Accusations Are Denied-A Committee of Citigeox of Both Parties Appointed to favestigate.

Director, Dec. 17. - Daniel E. Soper, cretary of State, has tendered his res-nation to Gov. Winans. This is the duct of the career of Mr. Soper, who essumed his office in January last. Charges were preferred with the Gov. ruo, and verified by Mayor Johnson of anang, scensing him of malfeasatce n office, and specifying the giving away of several hundred copies of the Michigan Manual and fifty sets of Howell's Statutes.

It is also charged that Mr. Soper threatened his deputy, Lewis E. Rowley, with dismissal valess he turned over $000 of his salary. Gov. Winans actor very promptly in the matter. The charges were filed in the afternoon, and Soper resignation was demanded immediately. Soper asked for time, but the Governor said no, and on the nivice of W. Stevens, Secretary of the Mich gas World's Fair Commission, the resignation was promptly handed in. Not of the charges was denied by Soper. The resignation of Secretary of Statoper and the disclosures which seem inevitable created a sensation hero. Gov. Winans is here attending the Water Ways Convention, and so has m sympathy for the Secretary. He says "The first intimation I had of these irregularities was during the session the Legaliture. Several of the mambe ame to me with complaints the uals from the Secretary. After that the ciert of the Bosed of Aulitors came to me regarding bills of furniture and other items which were bought by the Secretary at high prices, and apon which a commission was supposed to have been received. One of these items was a bill of $180 for rugs, apparently partly were, which he bought and distributed and the offices. "The fact is Separ had it pretty much his own way in the Board of Autitors. When these bills were brought forward for audit Soper allways met their presentation with the information that they were all right, he had bought the goods, knew what they cost, and so in this way they went through. I heard among way they went through. I heard among other things that Soper forbate his sacretary opening his litters, and it was supposed that this meant that he was taking the small sums of money enclosed in payment of orders for Howell's statutes and the public acts.

"Some weeks ago I called upon him and told him I would like to see him in my room as soon as he could make it convenient. I am satisfied that the State will not be a loser in any great amount. But the first thing I did was to appoint a committee of citizens of to appoint a committee of citizens of Lausing, regardless of party, both Re-publicans and Democrats, to make an investigation and ascertain precisely what the amount may be. I have no disposition whatever to allow the matter to be mished up."

"Will Super be prosecuted?"
"That will depend upon the result of the investigation."

Soper was elected on the Demogratic ticket a year ago, and has heretofore been considered an up light man.
