He had previously, he w-ever, held many imperiant positions in the Kaosas Lagi dators, closing his carrier there as breaker. During the was he longed the way up from a ser-ond flettenancy to the Ledsmant-colone there are the unmarried.

The Senator leaves two unmarried daughters, who are now itsney with their widowed money at their late home in European Kentses; a son, 22 years of age, now under treatment for his sysight is finitely plus, and a boy of 14 and a gart of 14 at school in Punnsystems.

Senator riumb had served fourteen. years in the Senate, and two years ago was re-dected for a term which would have expired in 1805. He was one of the invesexpired in 1800. He was one of the best known men in Congress. His tall athletic form, his accusing Western pair, his breasy method of speaking, and his rugged independence and originally of thought and action, made him a notable man in the Senate, and he was a passe in all questions to which he gave his mind. He was an immivarous resiler and an uniting worker. In the few days that the present Congress has been in session be had submitted more than thirty bills of a more or less public offerance. embracmore or less public character, embrac-ing dimost everything of interest to his constituents from free silver coinage

A reporter asked Senator Paster this morning what would be the probable successor to Senator Plumb. In the meantime he did not doubt that the Governor of Kanasa would lift the vacancy by appointment.
