She Wants a Divorce.
CORTLAND, N. Y., Dec. 21.—Mrs. Kittie E. Hunter, who occupies a prominent position in society, has commenced an action for divorce. Mrs. Hunter, who was formerly a Miss Shultz, was married to Harry C. Hunter on October 26, 1888. Shortly after their marriage they took up a residence at Winton Place, Ohio, whence they moved to Scranton, Pa. After a short stay in the latter city, Hunter directed his wife to return home, promising to follow soon. This he never did, and Mrs. Hunter has not seen him since.

Will Fight Some Other Time.
PITTSBURG, Dec. 21.—There was to have been a bantam-weight prize-fight between "Reddy" Mason, of Pittsburg and "Kid" McHugh of Cleveland, last night on the steamer Mayflower, at the foot of Ferry street. The principals were about to come together when the police swooped down on the boat and arrested the two principals and about 20 sports and newspaper men. They were taken to Central station, where most of them were released on bail.

Connecticut's Election Case.
NEW HAVEN, Dec. 21.—There is indication that the Supreme Court, which held another executive session Saturday to deliberate in the Morris vs. Bulkeley quo warranto case, and after three hours' consultation went away, is divided both on the question of jurisdiction and the matter of law. Judge Carpenter has made the admission that no decision was reached.

Walt Whitman Growing Weaker.
CAMDEN, N. J., Dec. 21.—Walt Whitman's physicians announce that the condition of the poet is unchanged. It is said, however, that the patient is gradually growing weaker. Mr. Whitman is suffering from bronchial pneumonia, and, as he is past 72 years of age, the opinion is general that his days are numbered.

2,000 Men Out of Work by a Cave-in.
WILKESBARRE, Penn., Dec. 21.—The bottom of the Gaylord Mine, located at Plymouth, caved in last evening. The Gaylord is one of the largest mines in the anthracite region. The damage incurred by the cave-in will exceed $30,000. Two thousand men are thrown out of work.

Grip-Afflicted Wilkesbarre.
WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 21.—The grip prevails here to an alarming extent. Out of a population of 40,000, it is safe to say that fully 25,000 are ill of the disease.
