To clean white fur, rub it with flannel dipped in heated, but not brown, bran.

To prevent trousers from bagging at knee, always get up and give the lady your seat.

It's a good time now to think over your New Year resolutions before making them.

At this season of the year we believe it is commendable for a woman to mince matters.

The Eisteddfod.

Rev. Fred. Evans (Edified), of Philadelphia, will be the conductor of the eisteddfod to be held in Ferguson's theatre to-morrow morning, afternoon and evening, and will also adjudicate on the recitations. Prof. J. W. Parson Price, of New York, will make the musical adjudications and Mrs. J. W. Parson Price, of New York, will be the pianist. Mrs. Price will also adjudicate on two of the musical competitions. Mine Inspector William Stein, of town, and Superintendent Edward Reese, of Centralia, will be the presidents. Mr. James Sauvage and son, Tonawanda, N. J., and Llew Herbert, of Scranton, will positively appear in the concert to be given in the evening. Misses Jones, Baugh and J. Boyan, Master Richard H. Jones and the successful choir and male party of the day will also participate in the concert.

Lane's Family Medicine

Moves the bowels each day. Most people need to use it.

Ready for Christmas.

Mrs. Henry Fry, of Fowler's, was in town yesterday complaining that some one had stolen nine ducks and three geese belonging to her. An old lady of Brownsville mourns the loss of three turkeys. Stolen sweets may be relished by some people, but if the prayers of the ladies mentioned are answered, the people who eat the missing ducks, geese and turkeys on Christmas Day will be lucky if the "wish bones" do not get crosswise in their jaws.

Late.

Our oranges were late, but are all the better and cheaper. A large lot this morning at Graf's.

Advertising Pays.

Morgan's bargain bazar has sold such an immense stock of toys and fancy goods during the past three weeks that a partial new stock had to be purchased to fill out the balance of the holiday season. A large amount of goods arrived yesterday and more this morning. A new stock of the special $1 and $1.25 children's caps were also received to-day. Mr. Morgan attributes the extraordinary rush this season to the plain fact advertisement which he has carried in the HERALD. His customers get exactly what he advertises.

Compliment to Gen. Calk.

The other day a case was before the Sunday court in which General H. L. Calk and John Chesney were principals. After hearing the testimony of both gentlemen the judge said: "I don't know of any two men between whom it would give me greater pain to decide a difficulty. The first time I saw General Calk was when he was taking his regiment to the front. He was one of the first bodies of men to land at Washington in defense of the Nation's capital. I regard him as one of the best men of our country. I also know Mr. Chesney and don't believe he would hurt a fly. He does some fighting but it is always with his mouth. But General Calk has testified to a threat made and therefore I have concluded to put the costs on defendant and dismiss the complainant."

A bad cough or cold calls for a good remedy—the cure for it. For Coughs, Colds, La Grippe and Consumption, a perfect and permanent cure is Pan-Tina, the worst case yield to its healing properties. Cost 25 cents. Pan-Tina is sold at P. P. D. Kirin's drug store.

Mr. Ferguson's New Venture.

Mr. P. J. Ferguson, general soliciting agent and local station agent for the Lehigh Valley Railroad, has become interested with a number of capitalists of Philadelphia, New York, Scranton and Wilkes-Barre in the Norfolk, Wilmington and Charleston Railroad Company, the new coast line through the South and will become one of the directors of the road. Mr. Charles P. Hower, the financial agent of the Carolina Construction Company, has been here in the interest of the road and completed arrangements with Mr. Ferguson.

"Second Coming of Christ."

The series of sermons, on the "Second Coming of Christ," now being preached in the Presbyterian church by Rev. Wm. McNally, are attracting wide attention and the church is filled every Sunday evening. They are the most interesting sermons ever preached here and the reverend gentleman handles the subject as a master. The third of the series will be preached on Sunday evening. All are invited. Seals free.

Van Houten's Cocoa—"Once tried, used always."

Raffles in the Country. While taking a trip through the Catskill Valley we were greatly amused at the numerous raffles for turkeys, chickens, etc., taking place. At each of the places visited we found the young and old raffling with copper pennies, as of old, the winner generally selling his prize at a reasonable figure, very few taking home their poultry, they being nearly all farmers and farmers' sons, who have plenty at home. The winner generally had to "set 'em up," and the barkeeper raked more than the value of the fowl.
