What News Gatherers Take a Moment to Tell About.
The old year is going.
Two days more of 1891.
Rabbit hunting ends on Thursday.
Christmas next year comes on Sunday.

A rather mild December this has been.
The school children are enjoying the holidays.
The puffed sleeve is going out of fashion.

There are men you can't pull the wool over their eyes. They are bald.
Barbary dates, sugar cured, are about twice the size of the ordinary fruit.

When a patient's death puzzles a physician it is popular to call it "heart failure."

Many a man of fashion may not live in a glass house, but he lives to make a show case of himself.

Commendable.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the Col. Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

MILITARY TROUBLE.

A Whole Company May be Court-Martialed for Violating Discipline.

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 29.—Militia circles here are all stirred up over a report just sent to the Governor by Major John B. O'Meara of the 1st Regiment. Major O'Meara conducted the annual inspection and muster at the armory on the evening of Dec. 16, and all the companies composing the 1st Regiment had been duly ordered by Col. Charles D. Comfort to report there at 8 o'clock Saturday night.

Company H, the Carondelet Guards, commanded by Capt. C. H. Chapin, failed to appear, thereby violating military discipline, and no report was received from the commander accounting for this failure to obey regimental orders.

There has been a great deal of speculation as to what report Major O'Meara would make. It has been learned that in his report he recommended that the severest possible penalty be imposed. This, of course, means a court-martial for the entire company.

The officers explain that the men refused to report, and they could not compel them. This is, of course, the plainest kind of mutiny.

D. K. E. MEN ANGRY.

Secretary Drake Says There is No Branch of the Society at Harvard.

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—The members of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity are indignant over the open letter published by William Lloyd Garrison, which makes charges of cruelty in branding the novitiates with a lighted cigar and also of drunkenness against the D. K. E. Chapter at Harvard.

They are the more indignant because there is no such fraternity now at Harvard. Tracy O. Drake, of the Grand Pacific Hotel, the secretary of the Western D. K. E. Association, says:

"We have no chapter at Harvard. We once had, but at our national convention held at New York, November, 1890, that chapter was expelled on the same charges brought forward by Mr. Garrison. Restrictions impossible to be fulfilled were put upon them and in the following January the chapter surrendered its charter."

"In later years it has not been a real college fraternity. There was and still is a sophomore local society known as 'The Dickey Club,' but its members do not wear our badge. They are not members of the fraternity."

PUNISHING NATIVES.

Murders in the Solomon Islands Being Avenge by British Men-of-War.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28.—The following comes from Sydney, N. S. W.:

"Her Majesty's steamship Ringdove left here some time ago, and since has been employed as tender under Capt. Davis, of H. M. S. Royalist. Her time has been taken up carrying mails and dispatches between Cookton and the Solomon Islands, where the Royalist has been for some time past engaged in keeping order among the natives and avenging the murders of Capt. Craig, of the trader Sandfly, and two brothers, Davelle and Frederick Howard, at Ugi. The murderer of Capt. Craig was caught and shot, and another native received 120 strokes with a cane as an accomplice in the murders of some native boys."

"Several parties were landed at various places, and Rubiana, the headquarters of the renowned head-hunting people, was burned to the ground. Several other villages were shelled and razed. Two Islanders were shot in an action, exclusive of the murderer of Capt. Craig."

Noted Amnesty for Italy.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—Assistant Secretary of State Adams, who has direct charge of the details of all diplomatic questions, says that there is no foundation whatever for the published statement that the United States has agreed to pay an indemnity to Italy. The latest phase of the situation, he says, was the paragraph in President Harrison's message, wherein he said that the United States was engaged on an investigation, to ascertain whether it was under obligations to Italy, and that no doubt the affair would be amicably arranged. It is known that the fact that the murdered Italians were American citizens disposes of any claim for indemnity.

Pacific Tidal Waves.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 29.—Advice from the South Seas gives startling news from the Gilbert Islands in the Pacific, by the mission bark John Williams, now at Samoa. It seems that just before the bark visited the group very severe weather prevailed, during which there were several tidal upheavals, the result, doubtless, of submarine disturbances. The tidal waves caused great loss of life and completely demolished many houses.

Tomb of Innocent III.

ROME, Dec. 29.—The tomb erected by Pope Leo in the basilica of St. John Lateran to Pope Innocent III., whose remains were transferred to it a few days ago, has been unveiled with great pomp by the Dean and Chapter of the basilica, in the presence of Cardinals Rampolla, representing the Pope, most of the other Cardinals in Rome and many representatives of religious orders. Many English and American visitors inspected the tomb.

Killed Them for Stammering.

VIENNA, Dec. 29.—A wealthy squire named Hambeck, living at Graz, shot two of his sons, 8 and 7 years of age, and then committed suicide. He had an idea that his sons, who stammered, had an hereditary taint of insanity.
