Secretary of War Ekins begins his new duties to-day. W. Noble has been appointed postmaster at Smethport, Pa. The case of Dr. Graves at Denver, Col., goes to the jury to-day. Many poor counterfeit $5 bills are in circulation at Conover, N. H. William E. Gladstone was 83 years old yesterday. The event was appropriately celebrated. Twelve-year-old Zeretta Walker was drowned while skating at Eberdale, near Hazleton, Pa. Dr. Keesley proposes to erect several big structures for dipomania on the shores of Lake Michigan. The striking printers of Germantown have yielded unconditionally to the terms of their employers. Auntie Harriett, said to be over one hundred years old, was burned to death in her kitchen at Harrisburg. Bishop Laughlin, of Brooklyn, is growing gradually weaker. There is no hope of his ultimate recovery. There is a five-year-old patient at the Keesley Institute at Plainfield, Ind., who is a confirmed morphia eater. Four of Jacob Ziller's children have died very close together of diphtheria at Myerstown, Pa., and two more are very ill.

The fight between Andy Bowen and Austin Gibbons at New Orleans, last night, was won by the latter in 48 rounds. 'Billy' McElroy was found guilty in New York yesterday of keeping a disorderly house. He was remanded for sentence. In the fight at San Francisco last night between Patsy Cardiff and Joe McAdams the latter won in the fourteenth round. The 'North German Gazette' says that Dr. Von Hollstein, the German Minister to Japan, is to be transferred to Washington. Fred A. Cooley, one of the most notorious robbers of Western Pennsylvania, was shot and fatally wounded by one of his followers. Specials from different parts of the Northwest indicate another fall of snow yesterday, although there was no wind accompanying it. Lehigh Valley fireman Thomas Schwaner fell from his engine on an Easton, Pa., trestle and was killed by the headlong engine. The Boston Waiters' Alliance has decided not to take part in the National Convention of Waiters and Bartenders in New York, Jan. 15. A design for the monument to the late Chief of Police Hennessy, who was assassinated in New Orleans by members of the Mafia, has been accepted. During a slight fire in the Grand Opera House at Liberty, Ind., a panic occurred and many people were injured by jumping from windows or trampled upon. The report that Warden Isaiah Fuller of Dannemora (N. Y.) Prison had been removed is denied both by the Superintendent of Prisons, Austin Lathrop and Gov. Hill. William T. Rice, United States consul at Livorno, who died in that city on Saturday, after an illness of two weeks, from acute pneumonia, was the oldest consul in the service. The army contractors in some sections of the Russian troops in their districts owing to inability to obtain the necessary supplies. Executive Director Whitman and associates have left Harrisburg, Pa., for Chicago to submit to the National Board the Lonsdale design for the Pennsylvania World's Fair building. Miss Rachel Sherman, daughter of the late Gen. Sherman, was married at Washington yesterday to Paul Thornhill of Boston. The wedding took place at the home of Senator and Mrs. Sherman. Nothing definite was accomplished at the meeting in New York yesterday between Frank Bavia and his manager and Charley Johnston, Sullivan's backer, in regard to a fight between the two pugilists.
