The Brokenman Charged With Manslaughter—Dispatches Customs Assistant.

Station Agent Delaney and the New York Central Road Severely Censured—Warrants Issued for Herrick's Arrest—The Road to Retain the Block System—Condition of the Injured.

TAKESVILLE, N. Y., Dec. 31.—The coroner's inquest in the recent disaster on the New York Central road at Hastings was concluded last evening and the jury returned the following verdict: We hold Frederick A. Herrick guilty of manslaughter in the second degree for the death of Thomas Pollock, and in the first degree for the death of the station agent Charles Delaney, and in the third degree for the death of the station agent Charles Delaney, and in the third degree for the death of the station agent Charles Delaney.

The verdict in the case of Herrick was returned by a jury of twelve men, and the jury returned the following verdict: We hold Frederick A. Herrick guilty of manslaughter in the second degree for the death of Thomas Pollock, and in the first degree for the death of the station agent Charles Delaney, and in the third degree for the death of the station agent Charles Delaney.

Coroner Mitchell this morning issued two warrants for the arrest of Herrick. One will be placed in the hands of Chief DeLoach, Detective Humphreys and the other in the hands of the sheriff of Westchester county.

TWEEDED DAYS RECALLED.

THE 200,000,000th YARD OF THE NEW YORK CENTRAL RAILROAD.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—It seems almost incredible that after 20 years have elapsed the notorious scandals of the TweeDED days should be brought conspicuously before the public. It is not, nevertheless, in the fact and as Mayor A. O'Shea has in the moving spirit that brings them again to the front.

Mr. Hall has brought suit for $10,000 damages against Prof. James Boyce, the English author of "The American Commonwealth," alleging that the charge in Prof. Boyce's work on the "Grand Ring in New York" is untrue and has damaged him to the extent of $10,000.
