

BUSH FOR SPEAKER

Nominated by the New York Democrats at Albany.

MEETING OF THE LEGISLATURE.

Dr. Edwards Expected to Help Organize the Senate.

Cantor Named for President Pro Tempore of the Senate—Assemblyman Rusted Will Lead the Minority—Other Nominations by the Caucuses—Gov. Flower's Message—Work of the Legislators Today.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 5.—The Democrats of the Assembly met in caucus in the Assembly Chamber at 7:45 o'clock last evening. Mr. Timothy D. Sullivan of New York called the caucus to order and nominated Mr. Galen R. Hitt of Albany for chairman.

The roll was called and nearly all the Democrats answered to their names. Mr. George H. Bush of Ulster placed in nomination Mr. Robert P. Bush of Chemung as speaker.

Mr. Sullivan of New York seconded the nomination as did also Messrs. Connelly and Conroy.

Mr. Riley nominated Mr. Charles H. DeForest for clerk of the Assembly.

Mr. Gorman placed in nomination for Sergeant-at-Arms, Mr. Michael B. Redmond of Colusa.

Edwin A. Moore, of Richmond, was nominated for doorkeeper, Mr. Patton of Onondaga, for assistant doorkeeper, Kenneth L. Nieves, of Sullivan, for second assistant doorkeeper, and Thomas Hackett for stenographer.

The caucus of the Democratic Senators was held last evening in the Lieutenant-Governor's private room. It was called to order by Senator Brown.

Each Senator was nominated for President pro tempore. He was unanimously elected.

The following nominations were then made: Clerk, Charles B. Downing, of Orange; Sergeant-at-Arms, A. Tallmadge, of Oswego; Stenographer, James Murray; Albany Postmaster, John Leach; Cattaraugus Postoffice Messenger, James Carroll, Albany.

A resolution was introduced and carried without a dissenting vote requesting the Senate to immediately appoint a committee to investigate and consider the contested election cases in the Senate.

The Republican Assembly caucus was held in the Assembly parlor and was very brief. Mr. Stranahan, of Oswego, was nominated for speaker, James W. Husted, Charles A. Chickering, was nominated for clerk, and Mr. Mandeville for sergeant-at-arms.

There was no caucus of Republican Senators last night, but one will be held just before the Legislature is called to order to-day.

The Legislature meets at noon, and each branch will be called together by its clerk. In the Senate Republican Clerk Kenyon will call the body to order, and Secretary of State Rice will swear in the members. Lieutenant-Governor Johnson will take the oath, and the annual message of the Governor will be received, after the usual announcement that the committees have made their reports of readiness for business. The message will be about 12,000 words in length.

After the reading of the message the Committee on Contested Seats will be appointed, and the notices of contest will be given.

In the Assembly the House will be called to order by Clerk De Forest, and the oath of office will be administered to the members by Deputy Secretary of State Benedict. After that the Speaker will be elected in accordance with the action of the caucus, and then the usual committees to notify the Senate and the Governor will be appointed. Following that will come the reading of the Governor's message. Then will come the appointment of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, as was done on the first day of the session last year.

Notices of contests will be made as follows: Bernard, Democrat, for the seat of Curran, Republican, in the Second District of Monroe; Cameron, Democrat, for the seat of Conding, Republican, in Warren; McKenna, Democrat, for the seat of Weeks, Republican, in the Second District of Queens; Russell, Democrat, for the seat of Wheeler, Republican, in the First District of Dutchess.

After this the Assemblymen will draw their seats. Both Houses will then adjourn until next Monday night, in order to give the usual time for making up the committees.

Wheeler-Russell Assembly Contest.

PHILADELPHIA, N. Y., Jan. 5.—At the examination of witnesses yesterday afternoon before Judge Conway, in the contest of James Wheeler against Chief Wheeler for Assemblyman, the evidence produced by the contestants was designed to show that a man named Bonner voted in First District of Dover while he was a resident of the Second District; that two men, named Preston Huford and Irving Kennedy, were not allowed to vote because their names were not on the registry list, as it was held that they did not live in the district. Evidence was also produced to show that the law had been violated in regard to the 100-foot limit during the day. An adjournment was then taken to Saturday morning.

How Senator Edwards Stands.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 5.—Senator Edwards called upon Gov. Flower yesterday to pay his respects. He reiterated his intention to take his seat in the Senate, but said that he would ally himself with neither party.

Davidt Sues for Libel.

LOXTON, Jan. 5.—Michael Davidt has sued the Pall Mall Independent for libel, in charging him with fraud in connection with the management of the Irish Industrial Company. A dispatch from Dublin says that Mr. Davidt will stand as a candidate for the representation of Westford in Parliament. It is doubtful whether the Pall Mall will consider it worth their while to put up any one to oppose him, as it is generally admitted that they are sure to be beaten.

Chinese Minister Entertained.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 5.—The Chinese Minister to the United States was the guest yesterday of President Marlin of the Missionary Association Company. He was entertained at dinner by Mr. Marlin and later visited the company's factory. It is said that the Minister has placed a large order for rifles with the company.

A REPRIEVE ASKED FOR.

Murderer Trezza, Who is Said to be an Italian Citizen, May be Reopened.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 5.—Secretary Blaine has received a telegram from Gov. Flower containing the information that the request of Nicola Trezza, the Italian under sentence of death by electricity in New York would be granted, and that nothing would be done in the matter until further advice from the State Department.

The telegram was in response to one sent by Mr. Blaine asking for a reprieve pending an investigation into the case. Trezza is said to be an Italian citizen, and the reprieve was asked by the Italian Government through Marquis Imbriali, its representative here.

New York, Jan. 5.—Murderer McElvaine and Trezza were brought before Judge Bartlett in the Court of Oyer and Terminer in Brooklyn yesterday for reopening their appeal having been decided against them. They will be electrocuted during the week beginning Feb. 8. They were taken back to Sing Sing.

DESTRUCTIVE FLAMES.

Several Buildings in Westfield, N. J., Burned—Loss, $40,000.

WESTFIELD, N. J., Jan. 5.—A fire which started at 2 a. m. in the frame building known as the Arcadian Hall at the corner of Broad and Prospect streets, quickly communicated to the Ferris building adjoining and thence to three more frame structures in the row, and despite the efforts of the firemen all the buildings, with their contents, were totally destroyed.

The loss is estimated at $40,000 with an insurance of $30,000.

Arcadian Hall was owned by H. E. Taylor of New York city, and was occupied by the "Leader" newspaper and a number of societies.

The Ferris building was occupied by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Schooner & Smidder's meat market and 150 other stores, also the office of the "Standard."

The other three structures were comparatively small and occupied by small retail stores.

Boston Merchants' Dinner.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Owing to the ill-health of Mrs. Blaine, the Secretary will not attend the Boston Merchants' dinner on Thursday night. A letter to be read by W. E. Curtis, Chief of the State Department, Bureau of the American Republics, will take the place of Mr. Blaine's proposed speech. Representative Burrows of Michigan and Senator Montt, Chilean Minister, will both speak.

The Grip in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 5.—Nearly every member of the police force is grappling with the grip. It is the biggest list of sick policemen ever reported to the department. None of the men are dangerously ill, but it seems that as fast as one reports for duty there is another one to take his place on the sick list.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Three men held up a Montana stage, coach in Missouri County, and got a haul of several thousands in money and jewelry.

General George W. Patterson, prominent Old Fellow, a Brigadier General of the Patriotic Militant, is dead at Decatur, Ill.

Andrew Carnegie has donated $30,000 for a public library at Fairfield, Ia.

Gilbert's new opera, "The Mountebanks," was produced in London last night and scored a hit.

The new city governments in the cities of Massachusetts were inaugurated yesterday with the usual ceremonies.

The Central Labor Union, of Boston, has received a letter from the Labor Federation of Australia, emphatically denying the report that there is a demand for white labor there.

Henry E. Dixey was arrested in Boston in a civil suit brought by William Gill for $27,000 due for services in writing "The Seven Ages." Isaac B. Rich went on Dixey's bond. The writ is made returnable the first Monday in February.

Weather Indications.

IS HE COLOR BLIND

Engineer Donohue Alleged to Be So Afflicted.

HERRICK'S PECULIAR DEFENSE.

Attempt to be Made to Shift Responsibility for the Hastings Disaster.

Witnesses Who Will Swear that a Red Lantern Was Left on the Station Platform, and that Torpedoes Had Been Placed on the Track—Central Officials Say Donohue's Eyes Had Been Examined Only a Short Time Ago.

New York, Jan. 5.—Albert E. Herrick, the trainman who is charged with being responsible for the terrible disaster on the Central Railroad near Hastings on Christmas Eve, will set up a peculiar defense which he is brought to trial before a Westchester county jury.

Yesterday Lawyer Walsh made known Herrick's defense. He will claim that Engineer Donohue of the St. Louis express is color blind. Lawyer Walsh said: "I have six witnesses who will swear that they heard the torpedoes, which Herrick claims he placed upon the track as signals, explode. I can also prove that Herrick left his red lantern on the platform with the light turned toward the South, and this alone ought to have proved sufficient to stop the St. Louis express.

"I can also prove that a red lantern, swung by a brakeman named Crauser, on the Niagara Falls special, was taken for a white lantern by the engineer of the St. Louis express. The engineer of the St. Louis express, was color blind, does he not? I shall also produce other witnesses to prove that Engineer Donohue cannot distinguish the difference between a red and a white light at night."

President Depue said yesterday: "We are waiting for the Railroad Commissioners to decide the questions raised in my communication, addressed to them on the 2d inst., regarding the introduction of the block system as far as Buffalo. Then the railroad company will push the putting of the block system as rapidly as possible."

Central Railroad officials say positively that Engineer Donohue of the St. Louis express is not color blind. Superintendent of Motive Power and Rolling Stock Buchanan says that Donohue's sight was tested no longer ago than last July, and he distinguished colors correctly without hesitation.

The same system of testing the sight is employed on nearly all the roads hereabouts. A quantity of worsted containing the colors blue, red and yellow, and a few others besides is spread on a table, and the man to submit to the test comes in alone before the examiner and picks out strands of each color and names them, as he picks them out. A single mistake means the loss of his place. These tests are made about once a year.

Suit Against the Keystone Bank.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 5.—Edward W. Magill, assignee of John Barsley, yesterday filed suit in Common Pleas court No. 4 against the Keystone National Bank to recover $100,000. Mr. Magill says that on Nov. 25, 1890, the bank received from John Barsley as a loan for the use of the bank, 100 bonds of the Baltimore Traction Company, valued at $1,000 each, the bank promising at the same time, in consideration of the loan, to either return the bonds or give face value for the same, and that on Nov. 25, G. W. Marsh gave Barsley a receipt for the bonds. Mr. Magill says, however, that the bank sold the bonds and appropriated the proceeds to their own use, and have neglected and refused to return the bonds or the money equivalent to Barsley or Magill as assignee.

To be Armed With Lee Repetitors.

BOSTON, Jan. 5.—The Massachusetts Naval Distillation, of which Commander Sibley, U. S. N., is in charge, is to be equipped with the new Lee repeating rifle, a weapon similar in model to the new one now making for the English Government. The rifle is on the bolt system, and is of great power and range. It can be used as a single shooter, or, by simply inserting on a slot near the trigger a detachable magazine holding five cartridges, it can at once be turned into a repeater. The United States Government has entered into a contract with a well known firm of gunsmiths in this city to furnish the Lee rifles to the Massachusetts Naval Militia.

Speaker Crisp Cannot Preside.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Speaker Crisp's condition of health will not sufficiently alter to cause apprehension, as such as preclude the possibility of his presiding over the House to-day. The programme which it was expected for the English Member Mr. McKimlin as speaker for the day, is found impracticable for the reason that there are no rules yet adopted which permit of this action. Consequently, as at the opening of the session, the duty of calling the House to order will devolve on the Clerk, and the House will then be left to select its speaker pro tem. It is probable that Mr. McKimlin will be elected to this position.

Wants Punishment to Fit His Crime.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 5.—Charles Wall, who is awaiting death by the rope at Tunkhannock, Pa., for the murder of his wife, wrote to his victim's father last week requesting that he be buried beside his wife. His request was refused. He has just written another letter to a friend asking him to see or write Governor Harrison and tell him that he, Wall, did not think that death by the rope was a severe enough penalty for his crime, and that he should change his sentence to death by fire at the stake.

Work on Armor Plate Suspended.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Jan. 5.—Commander Fulger yesterday made an official visit to the Bethlehem Iron Company's works. Owing to the unsatisfactory test of the curved armor plate at Indian Head, Thursday last, work has been suspended on the remaining five plates to be used to form certain parts of the Monterey, now building at San Francisco. One plate weighs 40,000 pounds.
