AFFAIRS CAUGHT HASTILY.

What News Gatherers Take a Moment to Tell About.

Daylight increases. Now for moonlight.

The new moon is out. A month of winter gone.

Keep the new leaf clean. Have you started a diary?

Considerable sickness yet in town. Lent begins this year March 2nd.

Some new leaves are already soiled. The grip didn't depart with the old year.

Pink and black is a very stylish combination.

Washington's birthday will fall on a Monday.

House hunting will soon be in order by tenants who have to move.

Many turkeys have been gobbled up and forever ceased their gobble.

The death roll of the year 1891 is an unusually long and illustrious one.

The fellows who joke most about the grip are those who haven't had it.

There is always a hand of welcome ready to be offered to the strange umbrella.

Stimulate the Blood.

Brandt's Pills are the great blood purifier. They are a purgative and blood tonic.

BACK DOWN BY CHILL.

Rumor That Minister Mountt Has Been Instructed to Make an Apology.

VALPARAISO, Chill, Jan. 5.—It is stated here that the Chilean government has cabled orders to Minister Pedro Mountt at Washington to make a sincere apology to the United States for the unfortunate and deplorable attack upon the Baltimore sailors on October 16 last.

NO FEAR OF A WAR.

A Chilean-American's Views on the Present Trouble.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—J. Parker Reed, at present in this city, has been living from time to time since 1876 in Chile. In an interview he said there was no fear of a war with Chile.

"My wife and four children," said he, "are in the city of Valparaiso, and I feel just as safe about them as though they were here in Chicago. My wife and son keep me posted on the feeling entertained by the Chileans toward this country, and I feel sure that it has not changed of late. Chile is a young, bright, proud and energetic nation. Naturally enough, her people love the United States as nearly akin to themselves in progress and enterprise.

"But it was a mistake to send Egan to Chile," continued Mr. Reed. "There the leading men are of English birth and parentage, and naturally look with disfavor on Egan. As the representative of the United States he is treated with due respect, but we cannot expect more.

"As to the Baltimore incident, the Chilean courts are investigating the affair and we may be sure that if an apology is due us we will get it without asking. Naturally the people are our friends and look to the United States with pride as the highest exponent of Western civilization."

Settling the Chilean Trouble.

LONDON, Jan. 5.—The "Times," commenting on the Baltimore sailors' affair, says: "Whatever satisfaction Chile may be prepared to make to the families of the victims of the Valparaiso affray and to the honor of the United States, she can hardly be asked, with decency, to go behind the door of her own tribunals upon evidence taken by courts of another country."

WHERE WAS SLAVIN?

He Falls to Meet Sullivan's Backer as Agreed, and Forfeit Money is Returned.

New York, Jan. 5.—Nobody to represent Frank P. Slavin, the Australian pugilist, appeared at the "Herald" office at noon, as had been agreed, but Charles Johnston, of Brooklyn, and Arthur T. Lumley were there on behalf of John L. Sullivan.

After giving half an hour's grace, Mr. T. A. Steiner, the sporting editor of the "Herald," returned the $2,500 forfeit to Johnston, and all prospect of a match fell through.

Johnston expressed great disgust at the failure of Slavin to send some kind of word.

"Slavin and Mitchell are not on the level," said the Brooklyn sport; "and I'll have nothing more to do with them. If they think they can get any more advertising out of John L. Sullivan they are much mistaken."

Cotton Mills Returns.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Jan. 5.—The returns of the cotton mills for the past year are, on the whole, far from good. They show a decrease in annual dividends of $47,920, as compared with those of 1890. The average dividend was 5.78-100 per cent. Only two corporations paid so much as 12 per cent., and 12 actually lost money.

The present slightly improved condition promises continuance. Many new mills for the manufacture of fancy goods will probably be founded, owing to the generally favorable returns of those now existing, and, on the whole, trade prospects are very encouraging.

Gibbons Issues a Challenge.

New York, Jan. 5.—Austin Gibbons, the light weight pugilist, of Paterson, N. J., last night issued a challenge to fight Jack McAuliffe or Billy Meyer, of St. Louis, Ill. He said he preferred to fight Meyer Best, and that the Olympic Club, of New Orleans, had offered a $5,000 purse. He claims that as he defeated Andy Bowen on Dec. 25, and as Bowen defeated Meyer twice, Meyer has no ground to refuse to meet him. He offers to post $500 to guarantee appearance at the call of time.

Must Accept a Smaller Amount.

BEVERLY, Pa., Jan. 4.—In the suit of George Herstine against the Lehigh Valley Railroad an order was entered yesterday, directing that the plaintiff accept $12,000, in lieu of the excessive damages awarded him, or the defendant be awarded a new trial. Herstine, several years ago, sustained injuries on a Lehigh passenger train, and upon bringing suit was awarded $19,900 by a jury.

Second Game a Draw.

HAVANA, Jan. 5.—The second game in the great chess match between M. Steinitz and M. Tschigorin, at the Centro Asturiano, was played yesterday. Steinitz, who had the move played a "King Lopez." After thirty-two moves the game was given up as a draw. The third game of the match will be played to-day. The score is now: Tschigorin, 1; Steinitz, 0; drawn, 1.

Bank Note Company Embarrassed.

BOSTON, Jan. 5.—The Brooks Bank Note Company of this city is financially embarrassed and an attachment has been placed upon the plant by the President, Frank W. Dexter. The liabilities will estimate about $50,000 and the assets about one-half. A meeting of the stockholders has been called for Jan. 5 at Exeter, N. H.

Fatal Railroad Collision.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Jan. 5.—A freight train on the Pittsburg & Lake Erie Railroad yesterday crashed into a work train standing on a switch near this place. James Hamilton, a brakeman, and a number of Hungarian laborers were severely injured; one of the latter fatally.

Closed by the Sheriff.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 5.—The clothing stores of J. Jones at Hazleton and Whitehaven were closed yesterday by the sheriff. The suit is on a $18,000 note held by Leon Levy, of this city.

Leslie's Colored Number.

This week's issue is a copy of the first of the colored Leslie number. A magnificent magazine, finer than anything before on an American publication, graces its pages. It represents a copy of each of the plates printed in four colors. It is artistic and graceful. The women will be interested in the picture which shows Baby Ruth Cleveland taking a airing. The coloring picture of the turning of the steamers Abyssinia in mid-ocean and the rescue of the passengers; the magnificent features of the great poet, Walt Whitman; figure pieces by the best amateur photographers, and the page devoted to the children and the geographical department, will interest our readers. The beautiful bit of music called "Christmas Chimes" and the fourth of the series of the articles by Professor Totten make it the most interesting publication of the new year. It is a wonder how twelve such good numbers can be furnished, together with their geographical chart, and an order on Peter Henderson & Co. for $1.25 worth of rose or chrysanthemum plants or flower seeds, for $1; but the Arkell Weekly Company, 110 Fifth Avenue, New York, are enterprising people.

A Card of Thanks.

The trustees of the Welsh Baptist church desire to return their sincere thanks to the general public for their very liberal support and patronage in donating such a large amount of provisions for the annual New Year supper of the church, and purchasing tickets for the same. We are especially indebted to the ladies of the church for laboring so hard in collecting the provisions and preparing the same so nicely for the tables. This part of the work was very successful and admired by all, having fed four hundred and eighty four persons and leaving, after all, quite a large lot of food to be disposed of by auction sale. We are also very thankful to all who persevered so successfully in selling the tickets, and especially to two young ladies, Miss Williams, of Lanigans, and Miss Emily Jones, of town, who have beat all records with us heretofore. Also to our dear friends at Wm. Penn. Through the united efforts of all combined, it has proven a grand success, socially, financially and brotherly. We again say, "Thank you and wish you all a happy and prosperous new year."

Rubinski Burned Out.

A clothing store at Rocktown, owned by H. Rubinski, who was formerly engaged in the cattle business in town, was destroyed by fire on Saturday night. The loss was $5,000, partially covered by insurance.

Ohio Senatorial Caucus.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 5.—At last the date of the Senatorial caucus has been set and at 8 o'clock to-morrow night in the Hall of the House of Representatives the battle will be fought without gloves. Senator Olin of the Senate Caucus Committee and Mr. Dougherty of the House, with President Harris of the Senate and Speaker Laylin met and agreed upon this date. The contest remains about the same as since the Legislative caucus, or if there may be any favor Sherman has gained it.

Prominent Politician Dead.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 5.—Wm. B. Rogles, a prominent Democratic politician, died at 11 o'clock last night in this city, very suddenly, although he has been illing for some time. Mr. Rogles came from Otsego County, and was a member of Assembly in 1872. In 1882 he was made Superintendent of Public Instruction in the State and later on was Deputy Attorney-General. He was also Deputy Superintendent of Insurance under W. H. Maxwell.

Secretary Foster Still Very Weak.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—Secretary Foster spends a short time each day at the Treasury Department, but as yet has not felt strong enough to resume active direction of affairs. Mr. Spaulding is acting secretary.

The Grip in New Hampshire.

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 5.—There are over 2,000 cases of grip in this city and vicinity and the disease is spreading. No case of grip has yet been reported among the convicts in the State prison.

It Was Good.

As has been his custom for years, Mine Host J. K. P. Schuyler marked the new year by sending the HERALD employes a bucket full of egg nog. Mr. Schuyler will please consider our best raised in his honor.
