Has a larger circulation in Shenandoah than any other paper published. Circulation books open to all.

The South is getting to be considerable of a manufacturing country. Many large iron mills and other industries have been started, and it will not be many years until it will be unsafe to count that part of the country as solid for free trade.

A REPAIR shop will be the one thing needed when the electric road is built. With nearly twenty miles of road and at least that many cars, it will keep a number of people regularly employed. No better location for the shop can be found than Shenandoah. Shall we have it? If it is not worth asking for it is not worth having. There is plenty idle labor here to keep the shop working.

JUDGE PENNYPACKER is denying the motion for a new trial in the case of Patrick Tierney, who as a steward of the Ellsworth Club, Philadelphia, was convicted for selling liquor without a license, lays down the principle, that the sale of spirituous or malt liquors in a club room to the members of that club, is within the operation of the retail liquor license law.

The citizens in a certain portion of Alabama, becoming tired of the monotony which has prevailed since the last political campaign, have gone hunting one another with shot and rifles. Occasionally a few together and succeed in catching a straggling sportsman alive, and to save ammunition, the victim is hung up and left swinging in the air. Thirteen had been killed on account, but their places have been filled by new recruits.

AT KEITER'S.

Mrs. Josephine G. Barnaby was justified by the evidence. A fair and intelligent jury could arrive at no other conclusion. The statement alleged to have been made by Graves since his conviction, attributing complicity in the crime to his counsel, Colonel Ballou, cannot be accepted without corroboration. The poisoning of Mrs. Barnaby was the crime of a coward, such as Dr. Graves has shown himself to be. He has wholly discredited himself, and the verdict of the jury stamps him as perjurer as well as murderer.

It has been proven by living witnesses that Pan-Tina is a remarkable specific for the quick cure of the difficult and dangerous throat and lung troubles—its equal can't be found. Costs 25 cents. Pan-Tina is sold at P. P. D. Kirlin's drug store.

BULKELEY WINS.

The Supreme Court confirms His Position as Governor.
HARTFORD, Conn., Jan. 6.—The demurrer of Gov. Bulkeley has been unanimously sustained by the Supreme Court. Judge Carpenter agrees in the conclusion but dissents from the opinion.

This decision leaves the Republicans in control of the executive department of the State Government.
At the election of 1890 neither political party obtained a majority of all votes cast for Governor, though the Republican candidate received a plurality, and the election was, in accordance with the Constitution of Connecticut, thrown into the Legislature.
A deadlock then made an election impossible, and Morgan G. Bulkeley, the Republican, Governor whose term expired, announced his intention to hold the office until his successor should be elected.

Gov. Hill subsequently refused to honor requisition papers signed by Mr. Bulkeley upon the ground that he was no longer Governor.

OHIO'S SENATORIAL FIGHT.

A Bill to Redistrict the State in Republican Interests.
COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 6.—The State Senate has seated Iden, the contesting Republican, in place of Gaumer, Democrat, and there will therefore be ninety-three votes in the Republican Senatorial caucus tonight. The number of votes necessary to nominate, however, still remains forty-seven. Senator Sherman seems to be gaining strength every hour, but the Foraker men show no less confidence.

Since yesterday Senators Lamson and Rawlins, and Representatives Dunn, McCoy and Lutz have already announced their intention of voting for Sherman. All of these, except Senator Lamson, have been classed as Foraker men.

The first bill introduced in the General Assembly after its organization was for redistricting the State for representation in Congress, so that the Republicans will have seventeen Congressmen and the Democrats four.

CHRISTMAS CANTATA.

Sunday School Children Enjoy a Pleasant Evening.
The pupils of the English Baptist Sunday school and their relatives and friends crowded Robbins' opera house last evening to gather around the Christmas tree and receive the gifts sent them by Santa Claus, through the teachers of the Sunday school.

THE LITTLE ONES SING.

The feature of the evening was the rendition of a cantata entitled, "Catching Kris Kringle," which was given under the direction of Miss Catherine James. Mr. John Bunn, superintendent of the Sunday school, was Kris Kringle and sustained the character very creditably. The stage was well arranged for the production. It afforded an entertainment that was highly enjoyed by all present, young and old. Santa Claus also smiled upon Rev. H. G. James, pastor of the church, who received a purse of $20 from the Ladies' Aid Society of the parish. This gift was supplemented this morning by a gift to the pastor of $10 by members of the congregation who had no chance to contribute to the Ladies' Aid Society purse.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. C. H. Hagenbuch, Druggist.

Fine Weather in Maine.
AUGUSTA, Me., Jan. 6.—The Kennebec river is high and free of ice. The continued open weather is unprecedented. There is no snow, no frost in the ground, and several of the larger lakes are clear of ice. Even the fruit trees are pushing forth their buds. The steamer Nahanda is still making her trips through Black River between Boothbay and Bath. Never before has she been able to run on this route so late in the season.

Small Boy—Toy Gun.

Master Lin Williams, son of Mine Inspector John Williams received a toy gun as a Christmas present. On Saturday afternoon he was playing with the dangerous implement in company with another juvenile, Oscar Troutman, when the gun was discharged and the bullet lodged in young Troutman's face, and near the eye. It was thought that the lad would lose his sight, but Dr. W. J. Martin, who extracted the bullet thinks now that it can be saved. The gun has been hung high up on the wall now to be looked at, only, and is labeled "dangerous."—Ashland Telegram.

The Flag Upside Down.

During a Polish parade at Mahanoy City New Year's Day, Chas. H. D. Hand saw that one of the flags carried was upside down on the pole. Mr. Hand, Theo. Harker, Homer Boyer, Win. H. Clemons, Essau Reese, John Shoener, Jr., and Rollo Williams stopped the parade and demanded that the flag be put into proper position, which, with their help, was quickly done, and the parade moved on.

TOWN TALKER!

THOUGHTS ON THIS AND THAT THREADED TOGETHER.

THEMES, TERSELY TABULATED.

The Tattle of the Tattlers Timely Taken and Told Typographically in a Tasteful and Tempting Tone.

Shamokin is to celebrate Washington's Birthday by holding an extended and Shenandoah will send a choir there to compete for the chief prize. One of the features of the extended will be a band contest. There are several of our townsmen who would like to see Prof. Zeitz bring the Grant Band forward again, but there is no hope for that, as the band will have a fair in progress at that time.

There are some people who still look up to the Third Brigade band as the musical gods of the county, but there are others who are willing to stake their suspenders that the Grant Band can take the celestial shine off the Pottsville pipers.

Work on the town section of the electric railway is now being pushed. Sills were distributed yesterday, preparatory to track laying.

The fire insurance agents of town are especially active this year in advertising their respective companies and calendars are at hand on all sides. The house that lacks one is not within the borough limits.

The discarded Christmas trees in the ash bins that line the alleys reminds one forcibly of the story of "Christmas Joy and Sorrows."

The enterprising merchant is now preparing his advertisement for the spring trade. The merchant who is not thus employed is the one most interested in the discussion of who will be the next Sheriff.

Railroad men who should know what they are talking about say there is no reason to believe that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will permanently abandon the short route line to Pottsville. They say the company cannot afford to relinquish the line, as it is too important as a link for the company's interests at Mt. Carmel.

Kindly Remembered.

On Christmas day Mrs. Oliver C. Faust, who is now a resident of Boston, Mass., and well known to many of the HERALD readers, was the recipient of a handsome gift from her admirers of that city. Mrs. Faust, who is organist and leader of the choir in one of the leading churches of Boston, was tendered a surprise party, at which she was presented with a pocket-book containing $20, as an evidence of the high esteem in which she is held by the members of her church. She is a daughter-in-law of Insurance Agent Faust, of town.

PUTTING ON SKATES.

Jack Frost Covers the Dam With Ice.

The cold snap of the past few days has brought delight to the boys and girls who like to skate. All the dams in this vicinity are frozen over and those who tested the ice say that it is strong and affords excellent skating.

THE FIGURE EIGHT.

Yesterday afternoon a number of young men formed a party and spent several hours speeding over the glassy surface of one of the dams. To-day two parties were up on the mountain. There is a suggestion for the formation of a skating club with a view to arranging one or two skating parties on the lakes at Lakeside.

EDITOR HERALD:—Out of the nineteen appointments made by the County Commissioners on Monday Pottsville scooped in eleven. The papers of that town delight to call our town "the Hungarian city."
