THE KREBS DISASTER.

Claimed that Nineteen Men Are Still in the Mine.

MALISTER, I. T., Jan. 11.—Perhaps it will never be known just how many lives were lost in the accident at Krebs. Some of the galleries and approaches are so blocked with debris that it is nearly impossible to open them. The mine officials now claim that only one man is missing. This is an Italian named Antonio Goneseti, who seems to have no family and no friends except those who were killed. His body is supposed to be near the main entry under a mass of rocks, which are now being removed.

The men claim that there are others dead or imprisoned in the mine. There were 335 men working in the mine on Thursday, according to the pay roll and the tally reports of every man who goes down the shaft. Of these 31 dead bodies have been recovered, 197 men escaped by way of shaft No. 7, now used as a ventilating shaft, and 103 were taken from the main shaft in a critical condition. This leaves 89 still unaccounted for.

The list of those who were taken from the main shaft is known to be incomplete, and it is believed that 20 have escaped and were not listed. This leaves 19 men still in the mine.

The work of recovering the bodies is very slow, and is impeded by the caving-in of shafts and galleries. It is believed that only one man has been rescued. No signs of live miners entombed within the mine were detected this morning, and the rescuers now expect to find nothing but the remains of the dead. It is claimed now that the undue haste of the entrymen to get away from the mine caused the death of many miners. The entrymen fire their own shots.

John Hurley and John Williams are blamed as the authors of the accident, but death has already called them to a higher court.

The mine committee and the owners will hold an investigation into the cause of the accident. Missouri, Kansas, Pennsylvania, Ohio and other great mining States have State inspectors of mines, but there is no such officer in the Indian Territory.

DR. GRAVES' CASE.

His Only Hope Now Lies in the Supreme Court.

DENVER, Col., Jan. 11.—Dr. Graves will not get a new trial unless the Supreme Court grants it. Judge Rising has refused a new trial and also denied the motion for a continuance of judgment. A motion for arrest of judgment was then filed. This will be heard to-day, and if denied sentence of death will be immediately passed.

Dr. Graves was in the court-room while the matter was pending. He looked well and greeted his friends warmly. Later he was taken to see his wife. The interview was a sad one and was very effecting. Mrs. Graves physicians to-night report that her condition is much improved.

Worked the Merchants of Johnstown, Pa.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Jan. 11.—Some months ago a man named F. M. Willey came here from Phillipsburg and started a collecting agency. His scheme was to get the merchants who had accounts outstanding to pay $7.50 to join what he called the Eureka Collecting Agency, of Philadelphia, guaranteeing them that he would collect all their bad debts on a basis of 15 or 20 per cent. If they became members of the agency, Willey succeeded in getting a large number of patrons and collected many debts. He has skipped without turning over a cent of money. His downfall is attributed to drinking and gambling.

Harriott Indicted for Murder.

ASHBURY PARK, N. J., Jan. 11.—The Monmouth County Grand Jury have indicted Louis Harriott for murder in the first degree. Harriott is the Frenchman who about seven weeks ago brutally murdered Mrs. Charles K. Leonard, the wife of his employer, at Atlantic Highlands, by choking her with a rope and then mashing her head with a hammer. The murderer says he will plead guilty to the indictment. Chief Justice Mercer Beasley will insist upon Harriott's lawyers interposing a plea of not guilty. The murderer does not appear to realize the enormity of his crime.

Augustin and Ada are Out.

New York, Jan. 11.—It is rumored in theatrical circles that Ada Rehan, the well known leading lady of Daly's company, had quarrelled with Mr. Augustin Daly, and that the disagreement was so serious as to involve her possible retirement from Mr. Daly's company at the expiration of her present contract with that gentleman. Color is given to the report by the fact that Miss Rehan is not in the cast of the new play, "The Cabinet Minister," which is to be produced at Daly's Theatre this week.

Native Doctors Hastened His Death.

LONDON, Jan. 11.—A Cairo dispatch says that an inquiry is being held by the highest medical authorities of Egypt relative to the death of the Khedive. Dr. Rogers, Pasha Chief of the Egyptian sanitary service, presides, and is assisted by Dr. Will, a German, Dr. Rineet, and two natives. The inquiry is said to have developed the fact that the native doctors at first in attendance upon the Khedive administered morphine hypodermically to an extent that may probably have hastened his death.

Prince of Wales' Son Has Pneumonia.

LONDON, Jan. 11.—Alarm has been caused in the royal circle by the serious illness of the Duke of Clarence and Avondale, eldest son of the Prince of Wales. The Duke has been showing signs of illness for some days, but it was hoped that he had nothing more than a bad cold. To-day, however, it is apparent that the Duke has a severe attack of influenza, and that it is complicated with pneumonia.

The Boiler Explosion Victims.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—By the death of Henry E. Oswald at the County Hospital the list of fatalities caused by Friday's boiler explosion in the Warren Springer building is increased to five. James Higgins, the only surviving victim, is still at the County Hospital. His death is momentarily expected.

Twenty Degrees Below Zero.

CANTON, N. Y., Jan. 11.—Last night was the coldest in many years in this vicinity, the thermometer registering from 18 to 20 degrees below zero.

A Memory of Gen. Jackson.

New York, Jan. 9.—The Business Men's Democratic Association paid a fitting tribute to the memory of General Andrew Jackson at the banquet given by it in commemoration of the 77th anniversary of the battle of New Orleans. Representatives from the various walks of business and professional life graced the tables. Comptroller Myers presided and ex-President Grover Cleveland and Congressman Springer of Illinois made the addresses.

Steinitz and Tschigorin Even.

HAVANA, Jan. 9.—Steinitz was victor in the fourth game of the great chess match, winning after twenty-nine moves. Steinitz again played a Ruy Lopez. Steinitz and Tschigorin are now on even terms, each having one one game, two games being drawn. Tschigorin will have the move in the fifth game.

Has Withdrawn Its Deposit.

ALBANY, Jan. 9.—The Jarvis-Conklin Mortgage Trust company, having ceased to do business in this State as a trust company, has withdrawn from the banking department its deposit of $150,000 in government bonds. The withdrawal was made in accordance with an order of the court.
