THE INJUNCTION.
 It seems that the injunction served on the Mahanoy City, Shenandoah, Girardville and Ashland Railway Company, to prevent the laying of tracks over the old water company's line, is not the frightful thing it appears to be to some people. It is understood that the workmen on the road will be transferred to other points until the embargo can be removed or brought to close quarters. The stand taken by the railway company appears to be a reliance upon the right of way granted by the borough, and the borough will be called upon to back its grant.

The Ohio Republican Legislature is losing no time in undoing the work of the late Democratic Legislature in its shameful gerrymander of the congressional districts of the state. A Republican state with 20,000 majority ought not to be represented in Congress by a majority of Democratic congressmen. The proposed re-apportionment will give the Republicans 15 and the Democrats six members of Congress from Ohio.

THERE has been breach of faith somewhere in this injunction business which bodes no good to the party that has broken it.

SENATOR SHERMAN "thinks free silver could go through both Houses." If it attempted to go through the Democratic side without an armed body guard, there wouldn't be enough of it left to buy a drink with.

SOMEBODY has badly blundered in this injunction business.

One of the successful leaders has been given a pension of 9,000 pesos a year for life, with permanent free passes on all railroads, free postage, and the honors of a Vice Admiral. Another is voted the same perquisites, and a $20,000 library in addition. For a country which has neither the population nor the wealth of a state like Indiana, this is exceedingly liberal.

It may be all right in the end, but to the fellow up a tree, it seems there has been a big blunder made.

THE friends of Judge W. F. Sadler, of Cumberland county, are making earnest efforts to secure his nomination as the Republican candidate for the vacancy on the Supreme Court bench. Judge Sadler has all the elements that go to make an efficient Judge of the Supreme Court. He is eminent in his profession of sound judgment, an impeccable character and in every respect well equipped for the place. He was a candidate in 1888, but gave place to Judge Mitchell and his many friends think he should now be rewarded with this nomination by his Republican friends. If the nomination comes to the eastern end of the state, no more fitting, popular or better nomination could be made than that of Judge Sadler.—York Dispatch.

MR. LAIDLAW, a clerk, wants $100,000 for having been used by Russell Sage as a shield at the time the bomb was dropped. Mr. Laidlaw suffers from the common disadvantage of those who try to sell the next day after the market. Could there have been time for negotiations after the bomb fell, Mr. Sage would undoubtedly have been glad to pay him not merely $100,000, but probably five times that amount to stand between him and the infernal missile. But the danger is past, Mr. Sage has no further need of a clerk as a fender, and Mr. Laidlaw may whistle for his money. Mr. Sage is a shrewd, grasping business man. Catch him paying for something that he has already had, used, and has no farther need of. That is not the style of men who accumulate millions of dollars.

AN INJUNCTION!

THE ELECTRIC RAILWAY COMPANY RESTRAINED.

ONE EFFECT OF THE WATER FIGHT

The Railway Company Will Probably File a Bond, Go Ahead With Its Work and Hold the Borough.

Rumors about town yesterday that the Shenandoah Water and Gas Company contemplated plunging itself into another law-suit put the people of the town on the qui vive. All kinds of stories took wings. Some said that the injunction hinged on the trouble the electric railway people had with the P. & R. company at Lost Creek; others said that it was a movement to prevent the laying out of dams by the joint committee on water works and others taxed their brains for theories too ridiculous for publication.

The climax was reached when Deputy Sheriff George Ochs, of Pottsville, arrived in town, accompanied by Constable Thos. Toeh. They arrived here at 8:35 p. m. and at once went on a hunt for the individuals mentioned in the writ. Messrs. C. D. Amour, P. Conry, W. F. Sadler, Jr., and Michael Fuerer were sought and served with copies.

A HERALD reporter button-holed the Deputy Sheriff and asked him what he knew of the case. "All I know about it," said he, "is that I hear the electric railway company and the water company are fighting each other like cats and dogs. It's too bad, for a street railway is a great benefit to the town. I know it from experience with our electric railway. But it's none of my funeral. All I have to do is to serve these papers."

A reporter sought Thomas Grant, who is prominently identified with the water company. He said: "I have nothing to say. The suit will develop all the facts."

A gentleman who seems pretty well posted on the electric railway affairs was seen and, in answer to questions, he stated that the injunction would not delay the operations of the company. That a bond would be filed to indemnify the complainants and the battle would be left to the borough and the water company. That while the railway company was made the defendant the borough ordinance granting the right of way to the road was a protection to the defendant.

The papers upon which the injunction is based set forth the following:

- Your Orator complains and says:
1. That it is a corporation duly incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania by an Act of Assembly approved the 25th day of February, A. D., 1870, which said Act your orator prays may be taken as a part of this bill of complaint.
 2. That in pursuance of its rights and duties under the said Act of Assembly it has erected large and expensive water works, dams, reservoirs, has laid its pipes therefrom to, into and through many of the streets of the Borough of Shenandoah, which they serve, and have for many years served the inhabitants of Shenandoah with pure water from their said dams, streams and reservoirs and that the cost of the said plant has exceeded the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and is in full operation this day.
 3. That the officers, superintendents, bosses and other workmen of the said Mahanoy City, Shenandoah and Girardville Railroad Company, their agents and workmen, are now engaged in digging for the purpose of placing ties and sleepers a d tracks over the surface of the streets of the Borough of Shenandoah, immediately over and above the pipes of the Water Company, these pipes being main pipes through which the water flows for the uses of its patrons and customers.
 4. That your orator is informed and believes that it is the purpose of the said Railroad Company to lay its tracks over the pipes of your orator through portions of Coal street and Main street. The portions of the said pipe line proposed to be taken are shown by a map accompanying the bill, which said map it is prayed may be taken as a part of this bill.
 5. That if the said Railroad Company should lay its tracks over the said pipe line as it now proposes to do, it would be a gross violation of the rights of your orator, its agents and superintendents for the purpose of repairing and relaying its pipes whenever it be necessary would be wholly prevented and would prevent your orator from taking care of its plant and of enjoying the rights and franchises granted to it under the right of eminent domain exercised by the Commonwealth in its grant or charter.
 6. That it is absolutely necessary for the proper operation of the Water Company's pipes to have free and unobstructed access to its pipes at all times, and that the proposed construction by the respondents would hinder and utterly defeat your orator's means of caring for and preserving its pipes, and would cause complainant irreparable damage.
 7. That there is ample room on the said streets for the respondents to lay their tracks and operate their roads in the said borough without encroaching on the right of way of your orator.
 8. That your orator has no remedy at law. Your orator therefore prays for equitable relief as follows:
 1. That the respondents be restrained from digging or cutting on the right of way of your orator, or of entering upon the pipe line of your orator, or of laying tracks for a railroad thereon, or of building or operating a railroad thereon.
 2. Such other relief as to the court shall seem meet.
 3. Service of this bill by copy.
 And now, January 11, 1892, the bill of complaint and injunction affidavit having been read in open court, the same are ordered to be filed and the court direct that a preliminary injunction be issued to restrain the respondents and others associated with them from digging or cutting on the right of way or pipe line of the complainant or of entering on the pipe line of the complainant, for laying of tracks for a railroad thereon, and to restrain them from building or operating a railroad thereon. And the court fix Saturday, January 16, 1892, at 10 a. m., for hearing on motion to dissolve this injunction, and approve of bond filed in sum of one thousand dollars By the Court.

POWER HOUSE AND OTHER POINTS

The Shenandoah-Girardville Section Will be in Operation Within Six Weeks if the Company is Not Troubled.

A HERALD reporter yesterday took a drive with W. F. Sadler, Jr., son of the president of the electric railway, and visited all the points of the road between town and Girardville.

Work on the road was begun in Girardville yesterday, and barring accidents, the road will be in operation between that place and town by the middle of February. The power and car house is under roof and will be enclosed within a few days so that the masons and their workmen will be protected from the inclement weather. The boilers of the engine house are in position and the work of constructing the building is going ahead rapidly. The road is graded to Girardville and the rails are down, with the exception of small spaces here and there, to near the base ball ground. The work of erecting trestles will begin this week. There will be two near Cleary's, one at Lost Creek and two at the Robinson culm bank. One of the trestles at the latter place will be a long one. The work of cutting a road bed around the bank is a big undertaking, but it has progressed rapidly. Foreman Conry did not allow the grass to grow under his feet when assigned to the West Coal street division. He has made excellent progress in that section. The heaviest grade along the whole line between town and Girardville is not more than six per cent. It is stated upon what appears to be reliable information that the fares on the road will be as follows: Between Ashland and Girardville, 5 cents; Girardville and Shenandoah, 5 cents; Shenandoah and Mahanoy City, 5 cents. Miners' tickets, $3.50 per hundred. These rates certainly cannot be complained of. As soon as the Shenandoah-Girardville section is finished work will be pushed eastward to Mahanoy City and west as far as Locust Dale.

W. F. Sadler, Jr., is a most energetic young man and has already made himself popular along the whole line of the road. He is exceedingly pleasant and agreeable and carries a good business head. He bids fair to become a valuable acquisition to the valley.

Hon. Eugene Donahue, whose public house is close to the power station, intends to alter the property for the accommodation of the increased patronage that will follow the completion of the road. Mr. Seaman, of Girardville, who has charge of the carpenter work of the power and car house, is the right man in the right place. Mr. Eberle spent yesterday in Philadelphia, looking after supplies for the road.

Clarence's Condition Critical.

LONDON, Jan. 12.—Latest bulletins regarding the health of the Duke of Clarence are not reassuring. His illness is affecting him severely, but his constitution bears up under the strain. The doctors in attendance consider the symptoms on the whole to be favorable. The illness of the Duke is the chief topic of the town. One cause for anxiety is the fact that so many deaths have occurred under the Georges in the royal family, a fact to which the Queen owes her elevation to the throne.

New York State Railroad Commission.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 12.—A meeting of the State Railroad Commission was held yesterday afternoon. The Hastings railroad disaster was considered, a report and an opinion of which will be handed down to-day. Applications for change of motive power from the Brooklyn City Railway Company, the Coney Island and Brooklyn Railway Company and the Brooklyn City and New Tower were received, all of which were put over without any decision.

To Represent the Whaling Industry.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Jan. 12.—A proposition has been made to the Board of Trade to fit out the old whaling bark Progress for the purpose of sending her to Chicago to represent the whaling industry of this city. The matter will probably be favorably considered.

Differences Amicably Settled.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 12.—The controversy between the officers of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad company and the engineers and firemen in their employ was settled yesterday without the strike that had been threatened.

A Murderer Sentenced.

LOCK HAVEN, Pa., Jan. 12.—Michael McDonald, who recently pleaded guilty of murder in the second degree for the killing of Israel Mazerel in Laidly township, last May, was yesterday sentenced to the penitentiary for four years and six months imprisonment.

PERSONAL

Mrs. T. D. Davies is suffering from an attack of grip.

George Foutner, Jr., of Frackville, was in town this morning.

Miss Effie Heaton, of No. 4, left for Bloomsburg yesterday.

Mrs. Robert W. Roberts, of New Philadelphia, is visiting town friends.

Mrs. Hughes and her daughter, Miss Meil, were in Pottsville yesterday.

Miss Susie Buford, of Pottsville, who has been spending a few days at the residence of S. A. Beddall, left for her home yesterday.

Frank McDermott, the operator at the P. & R. telegraph office, is suffering from a severe attack of grip. Charles Curtin is taping the key for him.

Will Hughes left town this morning on the Lehigh Valley railroad on a commercial tour, in the interest of the shoe firm of Folmer & Co., of Orwigsburg.

The wife of John Housenick, of town, is ill at the home of her parents in Berwick and the case is made more distressing by the fact that the members of the family are victims of the grip.

Thomas Sanger and Robert Hughes returned home last evening after spending several days in New York City and New Jersey. Mr. Sanger brought with him a very handsome souvenir, the gift of some of his intimate friends.

Entirely Satisfactory.

W. J. Arkell, publisher of Judge and Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper, writes:

JUDGE BUI DING, Cor. Fifth Ave. and Sixteenth St., New York, January 14, 1891. "About three weeks since, while suffering from a severe cold which had settled on my chest, I applied an Allcock's Porus Plaster, and in a short time obtained relief."

"In my opinion, these plasters should be in every household, for use in case of coughs, colds, sprains, bruises, or pains of any kind. I know that in my case the results have been entirely satisfactory and beneficial."

DIED.
