

THE EVENING HERALD. ALL THE NEWS FOR ONE CENT.

Has a larger circulation in Shenandoah than any other paper published. Circulation books open to all.

THE Electric Railway people, in junction or no injunction, loose little time and the work of construction is progressing rapidly.

THE New York Tribune prints a dispatch on the "Output of Minneapolis Mills," which isn't half so interesting as the true history of the put out of Texas Mills.

WITH a heavy fall of snow, a fight among corporations and a falling off in the sick list, Shenandoah would be a most unusually lively place this winter.

SUNBURY is forging ahead in all sorts of enterprises that Shenandoah ought to take pattern after. Eight miles of streets are to be paved as a commencement. Shall we have a New Shenandoah, too?

THE New York Chamber of Commerce asks the Legislature to appropriate $1,000,000 for World's Fair purposes. The Grant monument would be an interesting exhibit.

OUR town people may as well make up their minds to prepare for a great change in the town's future. Something of a substantial nature will follow the completion of the Electric Railway. If there any flies on any of our moneyed people they should brush them off.

Respond Cheerfully.

Owing to the extraordinary expense the Grant Cornet Band has been under the past year and which will be a necessary expense for 1892, it is compelled to appeal to a generous public for assistance in the shape of contributions towards its fair, commencing February 18th, and continuing two weeks. Solicitors will call on the business houses in a few days and a liberal response will be thankfully received and acknowledged by the

GRANT CORNET BAND.

Investigating the Gallatin's Loss. WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—The Acting Secretary of the Treasury has directed an investigation to be instituted into the case of the revenue steamer Gallatin, recently wrecked off the coast of Massachusetts, with a view to fixing the responsibility for the accident. A Strike Expected.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 13.—A strike is expected at the Pennsylvania Steel Works of Carnegie, Phipps & Co. Three thousand men are involved. They are angry over the discharge of several spearmen. The company has erected a high board fence about the works, which indicates that non-union men may be called into service unless the Amalgamated Association backs down.

WHAT THEY COST.

FIGURES ON WATER WORKS IN DIFFERENT TOWNS.

A VERY INTERESTING ARTICLE.

The Population of Towns, Source of Water Supply, Systems, Miles of Pipe, Pressure and Cost of Works.

In an interview with a HERALD reporter Mr. E. J. Wasley, treasurer of the Shenandoah Water and Gas Company made reference to the recent discussions in and out of the Borough Council concerning the cost of water works. He stated that in view of the rejection of the offer made by the old water company to sell out and the statements that the price asked was exorbitant he concluded to collate facts in connection with the water works of other towns in the area and after considerable trouble he gleaned the following:

Table listing water works data for various towns including Shenandoah, Ashland, Danville, Hazleton, Mahanoy City, Lock Haven, Lancaster, Milroy, Minersville, Shamokin, Schuylkill Haven, Sunbury, Tlemont, and Watertown. Columns include Population, Source of water supply, System, Daily capacity, Miles of pipe, Diameter of pipe, Pressure, Works owned by company, and Cost of construction.

STILL THEY COME

ANOTHER INJUNCTION ISSUED BY THE POTTSVILLE COURT.

BOROUGH COUNCIL RESTRAINED

From Continuing Its Steps Towards Establishing Public Water Works and Issue Bonds for the Purpose.

The water question is daily becoming more interesting, and the latest developments are not such as are circulated to give encouragement to the scheme to build a borough water works. Citizens who, up to the present, have kept out of the fight, and who are interested only in keeping Council within bounds and keeping the taxes down, are now taking a hand in the contest. A bill in equity was filed in court yesterday signed by M. P. Fowler, Lewis Kline, J. S. Kistler, T. D. Davis, John Daddow, Geo. W. Beddall, S. A. Beddall, A. Kincaid, Henry Weiderhold, C. W. Dengler, John Price, Frank Warnick, John P. Boehm, H. W. Titman, D. J. Langton, A. H. Roads, S. D. Hess, Michael Monaghan, J. S. Callen, E. J. Wasley, M. O'Hara, Daniel Bailey, Patrick Ryan, Thomas McAllister, J. B. Monaghan, John Roberts and Joseph Beddall, and praying for an injunction to restrain Council from proceeding without authority to issue bonds and contract a debt of from $125,000 to $150,000.

THE RAILWAY INJUNCTION.

The Street Committee Takes Action in the Matter.

Last night the members of the street committee of Borough Council and Councilman Lamb met W. F. Sadler, Jr., J. R. Coyle, E. G., and C. R. Eberle, representatives of the electric railway company and had a talk over the condition of affairs as charged by the injunction served upon the railway company by the old water company, to prevent the former from laying its tracks on the middle of the streets and over the pipes of the latter company.

The street committee decided, by resolution, that it will stand by the ordinance granting the right of way to the railway company and under no circumstances will it allow the tracks of the railway company to be laid on the sides of streets when it was contemplated they should be laid in the middle.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

Daniel Dean is going to make an effort to capture the Citizens' nomination for Chief Burgess. His card appears in another column of the HERALD.

Milton H. Masters has been suggested as the Democratic nominee for the same office. In point of fitness, respectability, &c., he is the best man in that party to lead their ticket in the spring.

Timothy Lynch is a candidate for School Director in the Second ward.

Many Republicans are of the opinion that a straight Republican ticket, both ward and borough, be nominated next month and drop the misnomer since it has been proved that the number of Democrats that vote the Citizens' ticket is so insignificant that it is folly to continue to rail under false colors.

David F. Davis, who has been a resident of this town for 22 years, is a candidate for the Citizens' nomination for High Constable. Mr. Davis is a cripple. He is 46 years of age and 37 years of this he spent at work in the mines.

People Stood up and Cheered.

"The Midnight Alarm" is a melodrama of more than ordinary ability. The way in which people stood up and cheered the company was a caution, and seldom have such words of praise been given. The scenery is excellent and the stage properties are away in advance of the majority of such productions. The play is a great go.—Montreal Herald. "The Midnight Alarm" will be produced at Ferguson's theatre on the 21st inst. for the benefit of the Columbia Home Company. The Schoppe orchestra of ten pieces will be in attendance. Chart now open at Kirlin's drug store.
