AFFAIRS CAUGHT HASTILY.

What News Gatherers Take a Moment to Tell About.

More snow. No dust lately. The streams are full. Grip patients recovering. There is a fancy now for old jewelry. Colder weather coming. "Have you an injunction?" is a by word now.

The HERALD is eagerly looked for. Applicants for positions on the electric road continue to pour in.

Snow shovels have a market value now.

The full moon brings a cold wave. Any number of grip cures about. Probably it was the January thaw we had.

Window gardening is now receiving attention from lovers of flowers.

Tiny seal heads adorn the fashionable hat.

The moon will now be on the decline nightly.

It doesn't take many pints of whiskey to make a peck of trouble. Necessity knows no law and is generally too poor to hire a lawyer.

This being leap year, we hope everybody will have a jumping good time.

Coughing Leads to Consumption. Kemp's Balsam will stop the cough at once.

A Surprise. Keep your eye on this local. Keagey, the photographer, will have his new opening in a few days and will have something interesting that will surprise the people.

118 W. COAL STREET.

This is not a man ranting over a La Grippe doctor bill, nor is it a clergyman bemoaning the receipt of a light Sunday collection. It is a Pottsville editor, clanking for some plausible argument in favor of Pottsville supplying two-thirds of the jurors for the county court.

Specimen Cases. S. H. Clifford, New Casol, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large Fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by C. H. Hegenbuch, Druggist.

Resolutions of Condolence.

At a regular meeting of Phoenix Fire Company No. 2, of Shenandoah, Pa., held in their hall on Tuesday evening, January 5, 1892, the following preamble and resolutions, were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS It has pleased our Heavenly Father to call from the scene of his usefulness our esteemed brother, James Stanton, and while we in all humility bow in acknowledgment to his divine decree, it is proper that we, his fellow members, should pay our tribute of admiration and sorrow in respect to the memory of the deceased; therefore be it

Resolved, That in his death this company has lost an active worker, his wife a loving husband, his children a kind father, and the community a good and useful citizen.

Resolved, That we extend to his family our heartfelt sympathy and condolences in their sad loss.

Resolved, That the charter of the company be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days, that a copy of the above preamble and resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased, that a copy be spread on the minutes, and that they be published in the Sunday News and Evening Herald.

Nothing Compares With It.

The mania for realism on the stage appears to be unbounded. Fire engines, patrol wagons, buzz saws, stamping mills and saw mills have been used "to hold the mirror up to nature." But plays with these features are as nothing compared with "The Midnight Alarm," presented at Jacobs' Academy last night. "The Midnight Alarm" is bound to please, because it goes a long distance toward satisfying the current rage for realism.—Buffalo Courier

"The Midnight Alarm" will be produced at Ferguson's theatre on Thursday evening, next, for the benefit of the Columbia Hose Company. Music by the Schoppe orchestra. Reserved seats chart now open at Kirilin's drug store.

The Democratic Chairman.

The Democratic Standing Committee met in Pottsville Saturday and elected William A. Marr, Esq. of Ashland, chairman for the ensuing year. A great surprise was sprung by Mart Quinn, who was to have presented the name of George Wadlinger, Esq. of Pottsville, late Democratic candidate for Judge, naming Mr. Marr. The meeting broke up in confusion by a motion to adjourn being forced against a motion by Mr. Quinn that a meeting of the Fourth Legislative District be called after adjournment to elect delegates to the state convention. As some members threatened each other with personal violence Chairman Marr declared the meeting adjourned.
