AFFAIRS CAUGHT HASTILY.

What News Gatherers Take a Moment to Tell About.

Sleighing.

Sleigh bells again jingle.

It was the deepest snow this winter.

We had but little sunshine this week.

The demi-train still sweeps the sidewalk.

One half of January has already departed.

French cashmeres come in all the new art dyes.

Handkerchiefs with rounded corners are newest.

If you want to be happy, keep at work and you won't have time to be miserable.

The latest is the type trust, but it isn't well to trust type until one sees the proof-sheet.

Two of the hardest things to keep in this life are a new diary and a sharp lead pencil.

The days are lengthening, and we can already see a great difference, especially in the evening.

We never realize how difficult it is to make something out of nothing till we try to make friends with some people.

Lane's Family Medicine

Moves the bowels each day. Most people need to use it.

A Surprise.

Keep your eye on this local. Keagey, the photographer, will have his new opening in a few days and will have something interesting that will surprise the people. tf

Try It.

As an encouragement to the local amateur journalists, we offer a substantial prize to the boy or girl who will write the shortest, most interesting and amusing sketch on a subject to be based upon the accompanying illustration:

The writers may assume nom de plumes, but their real names must be sent in to guard against competition by adults. The contest will remain open until February 1, 1892. The prize sketch will be published with the real name of the author, unless a request that the name be withheld is made.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism his Stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large Fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by C. H. Hagenbuch, Druggist.

NEW JERSEY LEGISLATURE.

Important Bills in the Assembly--Nominations Sent to the Senate.

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 19.—The House of Assembly devoted much of its time last night to hearing eulogies on the character of Hon. W. D. Campbell, of Monmouth County, who died last year, a few weeks after the adjournment, and John H. Huyler, of Bergen, who died later.

The standing committees were announced by Speaker Berger.

The principal bills introduced were those by Hardin, Democrat, appropriating $4,000 to the Labor Bureau for current expenses, and one which gives power to the Vice-Chancellor to commit for contempt of court.

Cole, Republican, introduced a bill making it unlawful for any judge or court to institute or entertain contempt proceedings on account of any matter published concerning such judge, except it be contrary or indirect interference with some order or judgment in the course of a judicial proceeding.

The Governor sent the name of C. H. Ivins to the Senate to be prosecutor of Monmouth County. He has been filling the office for two years; also Robert Clymer, to be law judge of Gloucester.

Chief Judge Ruger's Funeral.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Jan. 19.—The funeral of Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals William C. Ruger was largely attended at St. Paul's Cathedral, the services being according to the Episcopalian ritual. A special train arrived from Albany at 12:30 p. m., on which were many representatives from the State departments. Among them were Gov. Flower, the surviving Judges of the Court of Appeals, Clerk Gorham Parks and Reporter H. E. Sickles of the Court of Appeals, State Treasurer Danforth, Attorney-General Rosendale, Deputy Attorney-General Maynard and delegations from the State Senate and Assembly.

May Go to the Court of Appeals.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 19.—The appointment of Deputy Attorney-General Issac Maynard to the Court of Appeals bench, it is said, is now definitely settled. Whether he is to be designated Chief Justice, or to fill the vacancy made by the promotion of one of the present judges to the Chief Justiceship, is not well defined by report. Judge Earl is said to fairly deserve the honor of filling the late Chief Justice Ruger's place, and if he is not appointed it will be because he is willing in the interest of the party to make way for some younger man.

Reward Offered for News of De Lima.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—D. A. De Lima & Co. have offered a reward of $500 to any person giving information that will lead to the finding of the missing Edward De Lima, son of the late senior member of the firm. Young De Lima disappeared several weeks ago, and nothing has been heard from him since. He is a graduate of Harvard, and recently fell heir to a fortune.
