WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.-Shortly after moon, Senator Brice, as Chairman, called the National Democratic Committee to order at the Arlington Hotel. The full committee consists of forty-eight memhers, but of these but forty-four were present or represented by proxy, the States of North Carolina, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, and the Territory of Utah not being represented at the meeting.

immediately after the meeting had been called to order, Commissioner Ross, representinge Se District of Columbia, defivered the address of welcome. This was briefly responded to by Mr. Brice, after which the committee went into executive session.
