SOUTH SHENANDOAH SHORTS, Picked Up in and About the Town on the Hill.

The only ,eat breathing place in Shenandoah, where health and good cheer abounds, is at South Shenandoah, better known as Turkey Run.

There is quite a colony located here and all live comfortably. They are not crowded as in the hig town across the "divide." The new coal opening of Zerby & Co will be a great advantage to this piace. The works are built differently from any other and the coal, which is gotten out much cheaper than by the old plan, is of a very superior kind and, in time, will command a ready sale at fair prices. At present this product is delivered to any part of Shenandosh at a much lower figure than can be purchased elsewhere.

Since the introduction of the electric lights to show the people the way from the big town to the little one, the people of the latter are much better pleased and to Concilman Holman much credit is given. He is greatly esteemed by these people and show their appreciation of him whenever opportunity offers.

The free mail delivery here is another great convenience to the people and could the electric road be run to this place their cup of happiness would be overflowing.

Demorest Contest.

[Comosunicated] The contest last night was well attended and all seemed to be more than satisfied with the competition, the lady contestants winning an easy victory over the sterner sex. The first to appear was much younger Chill's attitude grows more chilly than any of the other competitors; yet, notwithstanding this, she fairly vied with the majority of her rivals. The seventh is worthy of notice. However, the third and fifth I consider to have given the best rendering; and I should maintain that it was only a matter of taste that secured the medal for the third. Other adjudicators would have awarded it to the fifth, as being more natural and at the same time entering into the sp rit of the subject.

War With Chile.

AUDITOR.

Will we have war with Chill? Every one now is asking his neighbor what hthinks of the changes of war. Apparently this is because Frank Lealie's Weekly devoted so much space to illustrating the wonderful ships of the new navs. A men int resting picture is shown of the Mian fonomoh, which is the strongest boat in the new navy. Every one who wishes to see what a magnificent boat she is should not miss looking at her in Frank Lestie's Weekly. This great weekly is the only one which gives every week a page of foreign events, and this fact alone makes it worst the subscription price of $4 per year. Those who have not had their character read should see what an interesting subject it is, and and in a specimen of their handwriting to the Arkell Weekly Company, 110 Fifth Avenue, New York, whose offer is still good on the colored number, a chrysanthemum plants or flower seeds which is good until June 1st.

Creditors Will Lose Nothing.
