National Democratic Convention Goes to Chicago.
JUNE 21 CHOSEN AS THE DATE.
Much Surprise Expressed at the Outcome of the Contest.

Fifteen Ballots Taken By the Democratic Committee in Executive Session—Chicago Got Twenty-seven Votes on the Last Ballot—Demonstration After the Vote Was Announced.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The National Democratic Committee yesterday decided, after casting fifteen ballots, to hold the next National Democratic Convention at Chicago, on June 21. The vote on the last ballot was:

Chicago, 27; Milwaukee, 18; Kansas City, 2; St. Paul, 1; Detroit, 1.

After the National Committee had been called to order by Chairman Brice, and the address of welcome had been made by Commissioner Ross, it went into executive session, and the Montana contest was decided in favor of C. A. Broadwater, with A. W. Lyman as proxy. Mr. Richardson was recognized as the representative from Iowa, and Mr. Harriety was substituted for Mr. Kerr to represent Pennsylvania.

June 21 was selected as the date to hold the convention.

A recess was then taken until 4 o'clock, at which time the committee re-assembled, and the presentation of the claims of the various cities was begun.

Cincinnati was presented by Mr. Ramsay and Mr. Follett, Detroit by ex-Congressman Mayburn and Representative Chipman, and Indianapolis by Senator Turpin and Charles L. Jewett.

Kansas City was presented by Mr. Putnam and Senator Vest. The latter's allusion to Milwaukee produced the utmost enthusiasm.

Milwaukee was presented by Gov. Peck, whose speech sparkled with wit and humor from beginning to end. Mayor Summers of Milwaukee followed Gov. Peck.

Comptroller Meyers of New York city came next in behalf of New York city while Congressman Fellows followed for the same place. Mr. Breslin for the Hotel Keepers presented New York from a hotel man's point of view.

M. F. Tarry presented the claim of San Francisco, and St. Paul was presented by R. W. Lander and ex-Representative Wilson.

A recess was then taken until 9 o'clock when the committee immediately began to ballot, as follows:

First, Chicago, 1; Milwaukee, 8; Kansas City 13; Indianapolis, 2; New York, 5; Cincinnati, 3; San Francisco, 8; Detroit, 4; St. Paul, 7.

Second, Milwaukee, 10; Chicago, 2; Kansas City, 12; Indianapolis, 3; New York, 4; Cincinnati, 1; San Francisco, 8; Detroit, 3; St. Paul, 7.

Third, Cincinnati, 3; Detroit, 1; Indianapolis, 2; Kansas City, 5; Milwaukee, 10; New York, 1; St. Paul, 9; Chicago, 3; San Francisco, 13.

Sixth, Milwaukee, 8; Chicago, 3; Detroit, 3; Indianapolis, 7; St. Paul, 13; San Francisco, 3; Kansas City, 6; Cincinnati, 6; New York, 1.

Fifth, Indianapolis, 3; Milwaukee, 10; Detroit, 1; New York, 4; Cincinnati, 11; San Francisco, 9; St. Paul, 10; Kansas City, 10; Chicago, 9.

Seventh, Milwaukee, 9; Detroit, 1; Kansas City, 3; Chicago, 3; Indianapolis, 1; New York City, 7; Cincinnati, 2; St. Paul, 4; Des Moines, 17.

Eighth, Detroit, 1; Cincinnati, 1; New York, 1; Chicago, 3; St. Paul, 3; Milwaukee, 9; Indianapolis, 21; Kansas City, 5.

Ninth, Cincinnati, 1; Chicago, 4; Kansas City, 6; New York, 10; Milwaukee, 20; St. Paul, 6; Detroit, 1; Indianapolis, 5.

Tenth, Chicago, 15; St. Paul, 6; New York, 1; Detroit, 6; Kansas City, 3; Milwaukee, 22.

Eleventh, Detroit, 3; Cincinnati, 1; New York, 10; Chicago, 8; St. Paul, 6; Milwaukee, 8; Indianapolis, 1; Kansas City, 6.

Twelfth, Milwaukee, 20; Chicago, 17; Kansas City, 3; St. Paul, 6; Detroit, 1; Indianapolis, 1; New York, 1.

Thirteenth, Milwaukee, 21; Chicago, 17; Indianapolis, 1; New York, 6; Detroit, 1; Cincinnati, 1; Kansas City, 4.

Fourteenth, Cincinnati, 0; New York, 0; Chicago, 22; Milwaukee, 21; Kansas City, 3; St. Paul, 3; Detroit, 1.

Fifteenth, Chicago, 27; Milwaukee, 18; Kansas City, 2; St. Paul, 1; Detroit, 1.

When on the 15th ballot it was announced that Chicago had twenty-seven votes and the Convention, the crowd in the corridors were fairly struck dumb. That a city which had not even asked for the Convention should be selected was inexplicable. The Milwaukee, St. Paul and Detroit delegations went out on the sidewalk and cheered for Cleveland.

Resolutions thanking the Hon. William Dickman, the resident member of the Committee, and the local reception committee for their excellent care and attention to the National Committee, were adopted, and at 11:45 p. m., the committee adjourned.

WHY THEY CHEERED.
The Reading Railroad's Splendid Showing for 1891.

Corporation meetings are not usually demonstrative. On the contrary, as a rule, such gatherings are characterized by color-blooded and business-like stoniness. It must, therefore, have been peculiarly gratifying to President McLeod, of the Reading Railroad, when, at the annual meeting of that corporation the other day, the stockholders applauded the unexpected favorable report of his administration of their great property during the past year.

The results accomplished and the gains achieved in every department of the company's business during a year when other railroads have barely succeeded in holding their own, have scarcely a parallel in railway history, and constitute a most emphatic endorsement of the integrity and ability of the road's present management.

As compared with 1890, the business of the railroad itself for 1891 shows an increase in net earnings of $1,600,216.44, and an increase in profits of $1,610,688.82, while the Coal and Iron Company's operations exhibit an increase of $638,339.94 in net earnings, and a total gain over the previous year of $640,421.67, making a total gain, for the two companies, of $2,250,462.49.

The net amount set aside as profits for 1891 is considerably more than double that of 1890. Out of this there will be paid the full interest, 6 per cent., on the first preference income bonds, and 4 1/2 per cent. on the second preference. That the management did not strain a point to say the full 5 per cent. on the latter securities is evidence that Mr. McLeod will not descend to questionable methods in order to make a good showing.

Many interesting facts are to be gleaned from the President's report. From it we learn that the Reading Company is one of the greatest land owners in the Union, it vast estates, comprising coal, iron ore and timber lands, aggregating upwards of 194,000 acres. The Company owns at least 50 per cent. of all the anthracite coal remaining unmined in Pennsylvania. The Reading is also a landlord on a very large scale, owning 2,764 dwelling houses, built upon its lands, and for the most part occupied by miners and other employes.

To operate the mines there is employed a force of 24,754 men and boys, and it will surprise most people outside of the "region" to learn that of this number only 9,709 are foreign born, 2,600 horses and mules, 18 locomotives and 7,275 mine cars are in use underground to move the coal from the chambers to the breakers. Among the commodities used at the mines annually are 2,000 tons of blasting powder, 140 tons of dynamite, and 7,275 mine cars are in use underground to move the coal from the chambers to the breakers. Bartow on the Sound, Westchester Co., N. Y.
To Alva's Brazilian specific Co.—Gentle-son.—Last spring I was troubled with what the doctor said to me was muscular rheumatism. I was unable to walk for nearly six weeks. At this time I was using the medicine prescribed by the attending doctor, and when I got to bed I was unable to get up. A friend sent me a large bottle of Castor Oil Cure, which I tried, and before two-thirds of the cure was used I was able to walk without pain. It is now two months since the pain left me, and have not as yet returned, and I am very grateful to you for sending me the medicine. I am anxious to know whether I was temporarily or permanently cured.

It is with pleasure that I now state that from my present feelings, I would judge that I am cured.

It is only necessary for me to recommend this medicine as I am positive that a trial of it will do me good, and I am fully convinced it will recommend itself.

NATIONAL LEGISLATORS.
Proceedings in the Branches of Congress Yesterday.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—At no time during the day were there more than 30 Senators present, except, perhaps, for a brief period during Mr. Stanford's speech in favor of his land loan scheme, and the Senate went into executive session and adjourned with scarcely six Senators in attendance.

The La Abra case still holds the floor, and bids fair to continue to do so through the coming week.

The proceedings in the House were enlivened by two or three passages-at-arms, one between the Speaker pro tem and Mr. Reed, and another between Mr. Simpson, of Kansas, and Mr. Pickler, of North Dakota.

A laugh was raised in both of these cases, Mr. Simpson being especially successful in scoring a point at the expense of Mr. Pickler and the Republican party. A bill was passed appropriating $15,000 to complete the allotment in severalty of land to the Cheyenne and Arapahoe Indians in Oklahoma, so that the remaining lands would be ready for occupation.

The proposed code of rules for the 53d Congress was presented by Mr. Catchings and will be taken up for consideration Monday. The portraits of ex-Speakers Galusha A. Grow and Samuel J. Randall, painted for the State of Pennsylvania, were presented to the House by Representative C. W. Stone. Speeches were made by Representatives Wright, McAleer and Brosius, of Pennsylvania, Holman, of Indiana, and Henderson, of Iowa, after which the portraits were formally accepted.

During a part of the proceedings ex-Speaker Greer occupied a seat with the Speaker pro tem. Adjourned until Monday.

ANOTHER FALSITY NAILED.
Minister Mont Denies the Latest Story Concerning Mr. Egan.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The adjournment of the Senate and House until Monday next settles definitely the question whether the Chilian correspondence and the accompanying message of the President would go to Congress this week. Unless there are some new developments in the situation before Monday the correspondence will in all probability be sent in on that day.

It has all been prepared for transmission to Congress and can be sent at the President's pleasure. There have been no new developments this morning. Messrs. Elaine, Tracy and Mont have no news for publication.

A rumor that gained some credence last night was that Minister Mont had received a dispatch from his government instructing him to request the United States to recall Mr. Egan, compliance with the request to be followed by a promise on the part of Chili of apology for the Baltimore affair. Senator Mont was asked about the rumor greeted the question with a laugh and said he had received no such dispatch.

THE REFUGEE MATTER.
A Cablegram to Grace & Co. Throws New Light on the Subject.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—W. R. Grace & Co. yesterday received a cablegram from their house in Valparaiso, Chili, stating that the Chilian government were not officially notified of the transfer of the refugees until after they were on board the Yorktown, and that upon receiving from Commander Evans the official notification of his intention to transfer the refugees to merchant steamers, the Commander of the Marine District merely answered officially that they would have to take whatever risks in the matter which might apply to them as refugees from justice.

It would seem that the Captain of the Yorktown did not understand the whole position and that the Chilian government is desirous of complying in every consistent way with the rights and desires of the United States.

Believed to Have Been Murdered.
PORT JERVIS, N. Y., Jan. 22.—Midst surroundings which suggest a battle for life and murder, the body of George Markart of Calicoon was found in Calicoon creek. This belief is strengthened by the knife-wounds which the body bears, and by facts ascertained about his relationship with his brother-in-law, Adam Heidt, who is suspected of the crime. Heidt, who is slightly deranged, frequently threatened to take Markart's life because he believed Markart to exercise a potent spell over his cattle causing their death. A coroner's jury is now investigating the case.

SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 22.—The Lehigh Valley Railroad, after several years of effort, has succeeded in determining the route by which they will enter this city with a branch from their main line at Pittston, and have selected a terminal site. It is also stated that the Pennsylvania Railroad will be interested with the Lehigh people in this undertaking, which may ultimately result in the building of a line across the northwestern portion of the State from Scranton to the Poughkeepsie bridge.

Believed to Be in Brazil.
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 22.—Thomas N. and Frank H. Allison, the missing conveyancers who disappeared from Manassas, a suburb of this city, some ten days ago, are said to have gone to Brazil.
