The libel suit of Senator Matthew Stanley Quay against the Pittsburg Post is at an end and the Senator is again vindicated. This victory is especially significant, inasmuch that the defendants went into court blowing horns and notifying the public to be prepared for startling exposures in connection with the character of the distinguished Senator, Martin and others. The exposures failed to develop and the ingenuity of the distinguished counsel for the defendants failed to make of Quay what the New York World has so often predicted he would prove to be if he dared to take the witness stand in a court of justice. Quay's statement in his own behalf before the United States Senate was pooh-poohed and treated as "only Quay talk." The Democrats and their co-operators in the Republican ranks said that nothing could satisfy the people short of a libel suit by Quay and his appearance on the witness stand. They have been accommodated at last and now have the verdicts of two juries to munch upon for a while. Quay has convicted his vilifiers, who are now placing their trust in God and Quay's good nature to intercede for them.

THE New York Democrats are taking the whole hog. If the Republicans ever get a foothold in New York state again it must be through a revolution.

BETTER mail facilities coming, wait a little longer.

extension have already been introduced in the House.

EX-CONGRESSMAN THOMPSON, of Kentucky, says Hill's presidential boom has knocked Cleveland entirely out of the water, and the New York delegation will go to the convention unanimous for Hill. He says the only thing to prevent Hill's nomination is the fear that Cleveland is going to knife him in the election. Should this seem likely to endanger his chances of success he thinks that Senator Gorman will be nominated.

ON THE ALERT.

Last evening the survivors of Company B and D, of the old and popular Seventh Regiment, National Guard, met in Shamokin to reorganize and offer their services to the government in the event of war being declared with Chile. The members of Captain Johnson's Company, H, of this borough, also of the Seventh, are anxious to do the same thing. Let a call be issued so that Co. H may be placed on proper footing. It may mean its re-admission into the National Guard. There is a strong feeling among the young men of this community in favor of connecting themselves with the National Guard and prompt action would no doubt result in the speedy formation of a company of material that would be a suitable successor of Shenandoah's old time pride. Give the boys a vent for their patriotism. The spirit will never move them more than it does at the present day and now is the time to act.

FOURTH WARD.
 Shenandoah, Jan. 22, 1892.
 [The correspondent is hardly justified in calling the present Borough Council a Republican body. But let that be as it may, he must bear in mind that the paid police are under the control of the Lamp and Police Committee and that committee consists of M. G. Wurm (Democrat) T. H. Van Dusen (Republican) and T. Mankler (Democrat).—Ed.]

ABOUT BANDS.

"Jack" McCarthy's Opinion of Those in the Region.

"Jack" McCarthy, of the Hazleton Sentinel, has missed his vocation by not attaching himself to Puck or Judge. Hear him on the coal region bands:
 Ever band, brass, silver, cornet or string, in the coal region town is "the best in the region" if the local prints are to be taken at face value.
 In the counties of Luzerne, Carbon and Schuylkill there are 129 regularly organized bands, some of which are known to fame and many of which are not, but if the 1331 men that comprise them got together Niagara wouldn't be in it for noise.

Like the average fire company the average coal region band is sort of national affair. You rarely find different nationalities represented and the idea of harmony in nationality is very often above the idea of harmony in sound.

The Germans, Irish, Poles and Hungarians lead in the band idea. There are 53 bands in which the membership is exclusively German, 20 American, 19 Irish, 14 Poles, 6 Hungarians. This does not count in the drum corps, a crude form of art in which the American youths delight, nor does it count string bands, but only "parading" bands, the acme of musical achievement.

The band leader is the editor in chief of the band. He clips out the selections his subordinates grip out on the ambient air upon all occasions from lively to serene and in no single instance has a public print ever had the temerity to call the work of this personage "bummy," or even ill advised.

It will be remembered by the Hon. Robert E. Pattison that when he brought his suster and religious mug to Shenandoah that the band played "Listen to My Tale of Woe," and when the buoyant and effervescent Mr. Delamater came along it ground out "Listen to the Mocking Bird." The case of the Weatherly band that played "What Shall the Harvest Be" while serenading a newly married couple is still fresh in the public mind having been ever since a contributing cause to the celibacy of men and the old maidenhood of women.

While the mistakes of the Moss who leads a band are not as likely to be pictured in the public prints as the bad acting of a humble actor an outraged public sentiment occasionally calls them down as in the case of the Shamokin band which played "Johnny Get Your Gun" when coming from a funeral. When the collector went around to the citizens for money to keep the "superb organization up to its high standard of excellence," as the forbearing editor put it, he was sat up and told to go to the crowded regions below.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism his Stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric cured him.

Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Spenser, Catawba, O., had five large Fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by C. H. Hagenbuch, Druggist.

WHAT THEY WOULD DO.

How Some of our Townsfolk Would Treat Chile.

Arthur Trezise—I'd take them down to the station and give them a shock.

Max Reese—Send them here and I send them to Europe at the lowest rates.

P. J. Ferguson—I would get as many as I could into my theatre and get May Davenport's company to give a show.

T. J. Higgins—I think a few months service on a joint water committee would cool them down.

Tom Sanger—What's the matter with sending Co. A down there?

Jim Smith—Just let me get the Chief Burgess and I'll show you how I would treat them.

Phil Holman—Let them take turns on my Turkey Run route.

John Bartsch—They would have a picnic then. Send them with me to Fisher's patch some cold morning.

Squire Monaghan—Get somebody to swear out a warrant and I'll send Jerry after them.

Denny Doyle—Put up the stuff and we will send the Sunday News to them.

Police-man Davis—If we only had them here our locked up cell was a dandy place for them.

E. J. Gibbons—I don't know. Ask P. J. Pat Conry—If they can handle picks send them down Coal street.

Tom Grant—Get an injunction against them.

Wm. Kimmel—A petition may do some good.

Cha. Bowman—There's plenty hand out west if they are not satisfied where they are.

Jim Daniels—They are too far away. I'd catch any of them on the coal trains I will tell you.

Jimmy Kane—Make gate tenders out of them.

Constable Phillips—I'd take them all before Squire Bill.

J. P. Willis—I would bury them.

Jim Mitchell—Turn the hose on them.

Over two weeks have elapsed since the lengthy discussion was held in the Borough Council over the water question and it has not yet suited the joint committee to state what the proposed new water works are to cost and how much over the amount the committee claims to have at its disposal the borough will be obliged to pay. What will the I. O. U. be, gentlemen?

LITTLE LOCALS.

Whisperings of the People Caught on the Fly.

Many of our townsmen attended court to-day on license business. The liverymen are in good humor. Demands for sleighs are coming in from all quarters.

Coasting accidents continue. The latest is that of I. Robbins' son, at Pottsville, who had his skull fractured. Some of the young men intrusted with horses and sleighs on the streets are not as careful as they should be. This is especially true when turning corners.

Stringers and ties are being laid in the excavation made for the electric railway on West Coal street. The digging is progressing favorably and Gilbert street has been reached.

Liveryman Daddow drove quite a jolly party to Ringtown last evening. Those who took advantage of the fine sleighing were: Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Al. Broom, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ellis, Jr., and Miss Annie Johnson.

It looks as if Congress would pass an appropriation to pay the fares of all old soldiers who attend the meeting of the National Encampment of the G. A. B. this year; consequently the different posts will fill up the next few months.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

The Republicans of Schuylkill county have very wisely decided to induce District Attorney R. H. Koch, of Pottsville, to accept the nomination for Judge. He is a gentleman of high legal attainments, and during his present term of office has demonstrated his ability as a lawyer and is eminently qualified to occupy a seat on the bench. There are few persons in Schuylkill who are better fitted and none more deserving of this position than Mr. Koch.—Shamokin Dispatch

The time for holding the spring election is approaching rapidly and there is much activity among the politicians and those seeking offices.

The Burgess fight is now confined between Smith and Acker, Democrats, and Lemig and Dean, Republicans.

An Unlucky Ride.

Thursday afternoon several of Sam Major's friends called at his cigar store with a horse and sleigh and invited Sam to take a ride. He willingly acquiesced, and immediately boarded the cutter. Everything went lovely and the occupants of the sleigh were in a jolly mood, when their ride was brought to a sudden termination. When on West street, near the Lloyd street school building, Sam thought the speed at which they were traveling was too slow, and immediately applied the whip, whereupon Mr. Major turned a complete somersault and landed on the snow upon his head. A physician was called and pronounced no bones broken, and the unlucky tobacconist was again placed in the sleigh with a request that the horse be allowed to walk for the rest of the way. His request was complied with and the unlucky man is to day receiving the condolence of his numerous friends.

Chance of a Lifetime.

J. Coffey has purchased at Sheriff's sale the entire stock of dry goods and groceries of Leffler Bros., at Locust Dale; besides an immense quantity of similar goods from a Shamokin party. He will remove the combined stock by Thursday morning to his corner store in the post office building. Those wishing to save money should avail themselves of this opportunity. Tea, formerly sold at 60 cts., at 25 cts. Granulated sugar, 4 cts. Best Java coffee, 21 cts. Barley and rice, 3 and 4 cts. Storekeepers can secure bargains in coats, show cases, scales and fixtures by purchasing at once. 1-19-92

Fatal Injuries.

A Polish miner employed in Packer No. 3 colliery was the victim of a fall of coal yesterday afternoon. He received the weight of the fall on his back and the back of his head and was removed to his home on North Chestnut street in a critical condition. Towards evening he died.
