Terrible Suffering Among Georgian Bay Lumbermen.

MANY DEATHS IN EACH CAMP.

Medical Aid Scarce-A Number of Men Have Gone Crazy.

Some Camps Deserted by Those Who Have Escaped the Disease and the Sick Left to Shift for Themselves -- Miserable Accommodations for the Afflicted---Work of the Scourge on English War

LOCKPORT, N. Y., Jan. 23.-Stories of the terrible suffering and pitiable condition of the lumbermen in the lumber camps of the Georgian Bay and back Canadian woods districts from the ravages of the grip have been received here and are vouched for by lumber and wood pulp agents who have recently been up

L. M. Proctor, of Ogdensturg, has just arrived from Georgian Bay. He says that in a lumber camp of the Emery Lumber Company, of Chicago, nineteen men out of 159 died of grip, and that half of the rest were sick and the balance taking care of them. Other camps are similarly affected.

The suffering of the men is indescribable. Some of them are reported to have gone crazy and taken two or three men to control them. The accommodations are meagre and altogether inadequate to the medical feet and so the state of the the needs of the sick men. The lodging bouses are log cabins or shantles. Medical aid, except of the crudest kind, is hard to secure and the men suffer and get well or die.

me camps are entirely deserted, and many of the men taken sick are left withare. Agents for wood pulp syndi-have returned and report the back Canadian wood districts in a similar conlition. The lumbermen are scared at "the scourge," as they call it, and flee to the large towns or cities where they can secure medical aid.

Many camps are totally deserted with the exception of the stricken and a few noble fellows who are staying to look after their comrades. The deaths have been numerous and the burials take place in the woods under the snow, where many a man whose family does not know where he is now lies sleeping forever.

crease in Value of Products.

Washington, Jan. 23.- The Census Office has issued a bullet n presenting the steel in the New England States.

The bulletin shows that although a decrease has taken place in the number of establishments engaged in the manu-facture of iron and steel in 1890 as compared with 1880, due principally to local causes affecting the supply of raw materials, there has been an increase in the value of finished products. In this con-nection the fact must be noted that the statistics printed are confined to the operations of establishments manufacturing from the ore, forges and bloom-aries, rolling mills and manufactures of crude materials for the foundry, machin-

In 1870 there were 48 iron and steel establishments in New England, with a capital of $5.589.000, which employed 3,185 hands, to whom $2,158,719 in wages

3, 185 hands, to whom $2, 138,719 in wages were paid and which consumed materials costing $7,338,156, producing manufactures valued at $10,824,803.

In 1880 the number of establishments had increased to 61, with an invested capital of $11,560,408, the workmen numbering 8,654, and receiving wages amounting to $3,357,911, the cost of materials being $9,518,570, and the value of products amounting to $14,558,697.

of products amounting to $14,558,627.

In 1890 the number of establishments had decreased to 35, but the total capital invested had increased to $13,415,450. The hands employed, excluding officers and clerks, numbered 6,645, receiving wages amounting to $3,234,318. The cost of materials consumed was $9,286,-050, and the value of the products was $15,105,441.

One Lunatic Kills Another.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 23.-O. A. Williams, an inmate of Dixmont Insane Asylum, choked James McAffee, a fellow lunatic, to death early in the morning. He was in the act of choking a demented patient by the name of Brownella, when a guard passed, interfered, and placed him in a straight jacket. Williams was admitted from Washington county on Thursday morning. He was thought to be harmless and was placed in the room with eleven others for the night. Census Statistics for New England--- In- Tuneral at Newark, N. J., Monday-Specalation as to His Successor. Washington, Jan. 23.-The funeral of the late Justice Joseph P. Bradley will statistics of manufacture of iron and take place at Newark, N. J., where he practiced law for years, Monday afternoon. The remains will be taken there Monday morning. The Justices of the Supreme Court and many distinguished Government officers will attend.

Although Justice Bradley had been ailing for a long time, it was only about a week ago that his health became such as to alarm his family and friends. The cold damp weather, together with his 79 years, proved too great a strain for his Justice Bradley was a self-made man, and was, moreover, the richest man on the bench. His fortune is estimated at $750,000, and he included among his pos-sessions the largest private law and miscellaneous library in Washington.

He was the eldest of the eleven sons of a poor farmer in Berne, N. Y., and received with his father's assistance, only a common school education. He resolved to get a better knowledge of affairs, and to get a better knowledge of affairs, and by teaching school and doing other work he was enabled to graduate from Rut-ger's College in the same class with ex-Secretary of State Freinghuysen. In the practice of law at Newark, N. J., he made a great reputation as well as a considerable fortune as a raiload law-

For many years he was a director and principal counselor of the New Jersey, Philadelphia and Trenton, and of the Philadelphia and Frenton, and of the Camden and Amboy railroad companies. He was the actuary of the Mutual Benefit Insurance company of Newark from 1857 to 1863, and from 1865 to 1869 he was the president of the New Jersey Mutual Life insurance company.

In the field of literary effort Judge Bradley also distinguished himself. In 1851 he delivered the annual address before the Historical Society of New Jersey.

fore the Historical Society of New Jersey taking for his subject "The Perils Through Which the Federal Constitution Has Passed, and Which Still Threaten It." In 1865 he delivered a wedely quoted address on the life and character of Hon. William L. Dayton, and in June, 1870, he delivered the Centennial address at Rutger's College. Lafayette College, in 1859, conferred upon him the degree of

It was in March, 1870, that he was appointed by President Grant a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. He was designated Circuit Justice for the large Southern circuit. On the resignation of Justice Strong he was assigned to the Third Circuit, embracing the States of Pennsylvania, Delaware and

New Jersey, Probably Justice Bradley's most notable act was deciding the memorable Presidential contest of 1876, when the question was submitted to a commission of fifteen, consisting of five Senators, five Representatives and five Associate Justices. Of the latter Justice Bradley was one. Without the latter's vote the commission was tied on Hayes and Til-den, and he gave the casting vote for

In early life he was a Whig, and later became a Republican nominee for Con-gress in the Sixth New Jersey District, but was defeated. He had two sons and two daughters.

Speculations as to his successor are already indulged in by politicians. In many quarters an impression prevails that Attorney General Miller will be selected to fill the vacancy.

McGuire Indicted for Murder.

Goshen, N. Y., Jan. 23.—The grand jury has found an indictment against Fred McGuire for murder in the first fred McGuire for murder in the first degree. McGuire's crime was committed on Mrs. Amelie G. Gregory on October 14, near Middletown, N. V. McGuire pleaded not guilty and was remanded if will probably be tried during the April term. It is alleged that the indict-ment was presented on the strength of the testimony of his accomplices, Sarah A. Brown and Warren Brazington, who testified before the grand jury that McGuire is the perpetrator and they accessories only so far in that they had knowledge of the crime and shared in the plunder They were also remanded.
