AFFAIRS CAUGHT HASTILY.

What News Gatherers Take a Moment to Tell About.

New moon.

Sudden weather changes.

The spring election is rapidly approaching.

Hot milk is a better tonic than beer, it is said.

Real jewels are sometimes worn in the bonnet.

Brunettes are said to be harder than blondes.

Contentment gives more happiness than wealth.

There can be six or more weeks of pretty cold weather.

The auctioneers will soon be crying the spring country sales.

Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, will fall on March 2nd. Easter Sunday, April 17th.

If your potatoes are frozen soak them in a pan of cold water several hours before you put them over the fire for boiling.

The next man to have his day is St. Valentine, February 14th. His votaries are made up of children and a few cheerful idiots of more mature age.

The music of the amateur pianist is generally forte but it sounds like sixty.

Don't mind about prosperity doing you justice. If it doesn't you won't need it then.

These are days when the death angel is cutting a wide swath in the ranks of the humble and the great.

Hitlinal drunkards in Norway and Sweden are imprisoned and fed on bread and wine until it is nauseating.

We never realize how difficult it is to make something out of nothing till we try to make friends with some people.

How much interest are you going to take in the nomination for councilmen? This is a much more important matter than the nomination of a county ticket.

Waters' Weiss beer is the best. John A. Reilly sole agent.

Flour and Provisions!

118 W. COAL STREET.

Six Hundred Idio.

Packer colliery No. 3 suspended operations yesterday for a month, throwing six hundred men and boys out of employment. The ostensible reason for the suspension is a need of repairs, but it is thought that the crowded condition of the coal market is the real reason.

Numerous Descendants.

TRUSSVILLE, N. J., Jan. 29.—Mrs. Elizabeth C. Evans, who is dead here at the age of 99 years, left nine children whose ages are respectively as follows: 75, 72, 69, 62, 65, 68, 55, 52, 51. She also left thirty-four grandchildren, fifty-one great grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. She was married twice.

Butler County Bank Suspends.

CHICORA, Pa., Jan. 30.—The Butler County Bank, of this place, has closed its doors. Its owner, H. J. Hoyt, made an assignment for the benefit of creditors to Francis Murphy, of Campbell & Murphy, oil producers. It is believed that the assets will cover the liabilities.

Do Not be Deceived.

Persons with weak lungs—those who are constantly catching cold—should wear an Alcock's Porus Plasters over the chest and another between the shoulder blades during cold weather. Remember they always strengthen and never weaken the part to which they are applied. Do not be deceived by imagining any other plaster like them—they are not—may look it, but looks deceive. Insist always on having Alcock's, the only reliable plaster ever produced.

Not as Bad as Reported.

The young son of George W. Sebert, of North Jardin street, sprained his ankle while coasting on West Lloyd street to-day, and the accident led to the exaggerated report that his leg had been cut off by a collision of his sleigh with a wagon.

Got Five Cents Each.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—John Schweitzer, Henry Schweitzer and Robert Shirlock, who several weeks ago picked a quarrel on the street with William Wiley, with whom they had no previous acquaintance, and brutally beat and kicked him to death, have been sentenced by Judge Arnold to imprisonment in the Eastern Penitentiary for five years each.

Dr. Graves Joyful.

DENVER, Col., Jan. 30.—Dr. Graves has not been feeling well the last few days owing to his having over-eaten, but when the news reached him at Canon City that the Supreme Court had granted him supersedeas on his attorney's writ of error, he jumped to his feet much delighted. He feels sure that he will obtain a new trial.
