"SHENANDOAR, Feb. 1st, 1892,
"Dear Sir:—You are respectfully invited to strend a meeting of personal interest to your elf this, Tuesday, evening, at 8 o'dook, in the sarlor of the Ferguson House.
"P. J. FERGUSON,
"Per C. P. H."

In response to the request five mystified themselves in the parlor of the Ferguson House after greetings by 'C. P. H." or C. P Hower, formerly of Bryn Mawr. 'What are we here for ?' was answered by Mr. Hower, who stated that the meeting had been called in the interest of the Nor-Company.

Mr. Hower is a gentleman of plain, but well-to-do appearance, suave in manner, a clean cut, business-like countenance and a After a few preliminary remarks he spread upon a table two maps showing the route of the Atlantic Coast Line and the proposed route of the Norfolk, Wilmington and Charleston Railway. The road, Mr. Hower showed by pamphlets and other documents he held in hand, was chartered by the Legislature of North Carolina on March 3d, 1891, with a capital stock of $6,000,000. The general offices of the company are at 212 South Third street, Philadelphis, Ps. The road has the chartered right, according to the documents, to build its road through the state of Virginia, and has secured in North Carolina "one of the most liberal charter, ever granted." Also, it will form the inside Atlantic Coast route, and shorten the distance between Norfolk, Philadelphia, New York, Boston and all other northern points, and Charleston, Savanoah, and Florida, over one hundred miles over the distance traversed connect with the Pennsylvania Railroad the road "will run through the richest and best trucking region of the United States, traverse the largest timber district in the and naval stores producing country. It will also open to immediate settlement we will warrant all our solid crayons. and establish numerous towns,"

Mr. Hower stated that the company now has thirty-five men at work securing right aundry. Everything white and spotless of way, and that the townships along the tace curtains a specialty. invested. The road has been surveyed, but is not staked, because, Mr. Hower, said, the company wants to keep the people in ignorance of the exact line of the road until after they vote their subscriptions. The engineers have made two parallel surveys, and the people are not sure which will be fol-The adoption will depend upon blorida Oranges-large, sweet and juicy. Another lot the highest bidder. After Mr. Hower had figured up how the Atlantic Coast line is paying 15 per cent, on its bonds, he said he will call upon his listeners within two or three days and talk more on the subject.

The meeting adjourned. Mr. P. J. Ferguson was present as a director of the company, he having taken a 85 000 block of stock. Mr. Hower says he only has about $14,000 worth of stock left and that the company is willing to give Shenandoah seven directorships if her people will take the stock-that is seven directorships in the railway, construction and land boards. Mr. Francy, who was at the meeting, said last night that he did not exactly understand the matter, that it looked to him like a wheel within a wheel arrangement, but it was understood to-day that he had decided to join Mr. Ferguson as a Southern railroad magnate.

Election of Officers.

The following is the result of the election held by the Shenandoah Heat & Power Company: President, J. S. Callen; Secretary, H. A. Swalm; Treasurer, J. S. Kistler. Directors, J. S. Callen, J. S. Kistler, A. J. Luburg, P. J. Ferguson, Joseph Beddall, S. A. Beddal, John R. R. R. freight depot at the north end of Robbins, P. J. Ganghan and H. W. Titman. The only change in the board of directors is the satstitution of Mr. Titman or William Kimmel. The headquarters of the company have been changed from Mr. Kimmel's residence to the office of Dr. Kistler.

From the Pacific.

Judge A. P. Overton, of the Suprem-Court, of California, President of Santa Rosa Savings Bank, and Director of the Home for Feeble Minded Children, is one of the most prominent men on the Pacific oast. As a man be has the confidence o every one, and as a judge he is held in universal esteem. A short time ago his Honor wrote that he had been induced to ownsmen and a HERALD reporter seated purchase Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine for a lady who had been subject to speams for 24 years. It gave the best of satisfaction and did "more good in three months than other remedies had done in three years !" The patient is greatly improved hough it was evidently a desperate care Dr. Miles' Nervine and also his New Heart Cure are excellent remedies. They may be had of our enterprising druggists.

"The Corner Grocer." Squire A. J. Gallagber, who has, withir short time, built a lucrative Justice of the Peace, real estate and insurance business, has made a new departure by purchasing the grocery store at the corper of Centre and West streets, heretofore conducted by the Muldoons. The 'squire is a young man but he has more push and enterprising spirit in him than can be found in half a dozen ordinary men and he will certainly make his new venture a success. He has arranged matters so that the grocery business will be kept abreast with the best in the town, in stock and prices, and yet give all matters pertaining to his office as Justice of the Peace and his real estate and fire insurance business the usual prompt and careful attention.

Keagey's Surprise, at Last. To the public :- I want to say that there are always agents who do not live in town canvassing orders for crayons. That is what they say. The most of those pictures are of a very inferior grade, made on bromide prints, and will, in six months, turn yellow. A word to the wise is sufficient. We can give you a crayon as perfect and cheap as any man living can, but we cannot give you a cray n for $5.
