AFFAIRS CAUGHT HASTILY.

What News Gatherers Take a Moment to Tell About. The grip still hangs on. The fresh fish market is improving.

Local politicians are putting their heads together.

The heaviest snow of last winter came in March.

The weather is too changeable to suit the ice men.

There is quite a demand for the large postal cards.

Polite correspondence no abbreviations are tolerated.

We expect to hear the sleigh bells ring again before the blue birds sing.

India meal and vinegar, or lemon juice, used on the hands, will heal and soften them.

The past week's weather was varied enough to make one forget what country he was living in.

Fresh fish now adorn the stands, and as an offset to pudding and sausage, they are quite toothsome.

It isn't so much that a man objects to pay the debt of nature; it is the nature of the debt that troubles him.

The sale of lemons this winter has been unprecedented. It is said the juice eliminates the grasp of the grip.

If some men could only be convinced that it pays to be good, they couldn't be kept out of the church with a gun.

Electric Bitters.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise.

CANE PRESENTATION.

A Token of Esteem to Jeffrey Williams.

Last evening Jeffrey Williams, who returned from Butte City, Montana, several weeks ago and who will go back there with his family next Tuesday, was presented with a handsome gold-headed cane by Shenandoah Valley Encampment, I. O. O. F., and friends.

The presentation took place in the parlors of Mr. John H. Evans' residence on East Centre street. The gentlemen present were Messrs. Henry L. Jones, S. R. Broome, John Bunn, James Watson, of Yatesville, E. R. Williams, John H. Evans, William Bennis, C. G. Palmer, Thomas Miners, Jonathan Wilkingsham, William Draper, F. C. Reese, Thomas Lathrop, W. J. Evans, Joseph Hinks, A. D. Gable, W. J. Watkins, Thos. T. Williams, Jacob Davis, John W. Morgan and R. A. Davenport.

Mr. Hinks presented the cane to Mr. Williams, who acknowledged the gift gracefully and with feeling. An excellent luncheon followed and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

The balance of the evening was passed in listening to addresses from all present and singing by Messrs. Morgan, Wilkingsham, Williams and Watson. One of the surprises of the evening was the announcement by Mr. C. G. Palmer that he will see many Mr. Williams to the West next Tuesday.

Regret was expressed that Mr. Palmer's intended departure had not been learned of earlier, so that some substantial token of esteem could have been prepared for him, but as the likelihood is that Mr. Palmer will return here before leaving his family in the West, should he decide to do so, his many friends will have an opportunity to over-see the surprise in the future.

The address made during the evening were directed to the expression of esteem and good will to Mr. Jeffrey Williams and wishes for good health and prosperity for himself and family in the future.

Mr. Davenport entertained the party with an exceedingly interesting recital of the principal incidents attending the trip made by himself and Mr. N. J. Owens some months ago. As the party took farewell leave of Messrs. Williams and Palmer both gentlemen were visibly affected, but they said they were encouraged for their departure by the kind and brotherly acts and expressions of sentiments during the evening.

ON RAILROADS.

The Norfolk, Wilmington and Charleston Company.

Mr. C. P. Hower, the financial agent of the N. W. & C. R. R., reports that most of the bonds of the Carolina Construction remaining unsold will be taken up by some of our moneyed men in Shenandoah.

Mr. Hower is not selling the stock of the railroad company. He is placing a guaranteed six per cent. bond of the construction company which has the contract for building the railroad.

This enterprise is backed by the leading capitalists of this state and the South, among whom are the following: Hon. A. S. Cadwalader, retired merchant and capitalist, Yorkley, Pa.; J. L. Stadelman, coal and lumber merchant, and vice president of the Bryn Mawr National Bank, Ardmore, Pa.; W. H. Welmer, firm of Welmer, Wright & Hopkins, wholesale shoe dealers, Ninth and Market Sts., Philadelphia, D. C. T. Gontee, director of Bryn Mawr National Bank, Bryn Mawr; C. A. Warner, contractor and builder, Ardmore, Pa.; Dr. George Riley, president Harrisburg National Bank; Isaac M. Thomas, capitalist of Wilkes-Barre; Harvey Yeager, merchant and capitalist, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; W. W. Winton, president Winton Coal Co., Scranton, Pa.; P. J. Ferguson, soliciting agent Lehigh Valley Railroad and Vice President of First National Bank, Shenandoah, Pa.; R. Duncan Herr, counsellor-at-law and capitalist, 35 Williams St., New York; J. C. McNaughton, lumber merchant, 216 S. 3rd St., Phila.; Hon. Thos. J. Jarvis, ex-minister to Brazil and ex-Governor of North Carolina, Greenville, N. C.; Conrad Lee, wholesale lumber merchant, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; J. H. Steele, I. N. McGarrie and W. W. Connell, of Scranton; Green, Foy & Co., bankers, New Bern, N. C.; C. H. McKibbin, formerly vice president and purchasing agent of the Union Pacific Railroad; Hon. Simon P. Wolfvorton, Sunbury, Pa.

From the Pacific.

Judge A. P. Overton, of the Supreme Court, of California, President of San Francisco Savings Bank, and Director of the Home for Feeble Minded Children, is one of the most prominent men on the Pacific coast. As a man he has the confidence of every one, and as a judge he is held in universal esteem.

A short time ago, as honor wrote that he had been induced to purchase Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine for a lady who had been subject to spasms for 24 years. It gave the best of satisfaction and did "more good in three months than other remedies had done in three years."

The patient is greatly improved though it was evidently a desperate case. Dr. Miles' Nervine and also his New Home Cure are excellent remedies. They may be had of our enterprising druggists.

Keagey's Surprise, at Last.

To the public—I want to say that there are always agents who do not live in town canvassing orders for crayons. That is what they say. The most of those pictures are of a very inferior grade, made of bromide prints, and will, in six months, turn yellow. A word to the wise is sufficient. We can give you a crayon as perfect and cheap as any man living can, but we cannot give you a crayon for $5. We can give you a bromide crayon 18x22 framed, for $3, but cannot guarantee it; but we will warrant all our solid crayons.

Car Watchmen.

George V. Boyer and Richard Hornberger have been appointed night and day watchmen to guard the electric cars that arrived here yesterday from the Philadelphia Car Works of J. C. Brill & Co. It became necessary to have the cars guarded on account of the curious crowds jumping on and off them and the reckless antics of the boys.

It Should be in Every House.

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpburg, Pa., says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds; that it cured his wife who was threatened with Pneumonia after an attack of "La Grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good.

Little Locals.

Many strangers in town this week. Good many bad pavements in town. Many people visited the Reading freight depot yesterday to inspect the electric cars. The meat business must be paying since there are so many people engaged in it who, but a short time ago, did not know the difference between a knuckle and a hoof.

A bad cough or cold calls for a good remedy—the cure for it. For Coughs, Colds, La Grippe and Consumption, a perfect and permanent cure is "Par-Tina," the worst case is yielded to its healing properties. Cures 25 cents. Par-Tina is sold at P. P. D. Kirlin's drug store.

Borough Council Meeting.

The first regular meeting of the Borough Council for the month of February will be held this evening.

A Voice From Florida.

Dr. W. F. Byrum, Live Oak, Florida, says, "Red Flag Oil is one of the most successful pain cures we sell. It is an infallible remedy for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and sprains. Red Flag Oil costs 25 cents. Sold at P. P. D. Kirlin's drug store."
