BLAINE WITHDRAWS

Declines to be a Candidate for the Presidency.

LETTER TO GENERAL CLARKSON

His Name Will Not Go Before the Republican Convention.

Asks His Friends to Make an Earnest Effort in the Approaching Contest, Which He Says is an Important One Because the Financial and Industrial Policies of the Government are at Stake—Views of Prominent Men.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—The following letter has been made public:

"WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.

"Hon. J. S. CLARKSON, chairman of the National Republican Committee:

"MY DEAR SIR: I am not a candidate for the Presidency, and my name will not go before the Republican National Convention for the nomination. I make this announcement in due season.

"To those who have tendered me their support I owe sincere thanks and am most grateful for their confidence. They will, I am sure, make earnest effort in the approaching contest, which is rendered specially important by reason of the industrial and financial policies of the Government being at stake. The popular decision on these issues is of great moment and will be of far-reaching consequence. Very sincerely yours,

"JAMES G. BLAINE."

Secretary Rusk said: "It will result, I think, in President Harrison's renomination."

HON. JAMES G. BLAINE.

"Will it open the field for other candidates, or restrict it?"

"The field has always been an open one, but several gentlemen, to whom Secretary Blaine was a block, will enter the race."

"Will Ohio have a candidate?"

"No."

"For whom will she be?"

"For Harrison. Ohio has always felt very friendly toward Blaine, but she has never supported him for the Presidency, always having had in contests where he entered, a candidate of her own.

"I did not know," said Secretary Elkins, "that Mr. Blaine had written a letter, but he told a number of gentlemen that he would not be a candidate, and was satisfied that he would not be."

Secretary Tracy: "I am not surprised. I've been expecting such a letter for some time. It points to Harrison's renomination and re-election.

Secretary Noble said: "With Blaine out of the field, there is no man of sufficient national importance to contest the nomination with Mr. Harrison. His administration has been fair, just and upright. He will be renominated unanimously and re-elected. As Mr. Blaine says, his declination is made "in due season."

Senator Cullom, of Illinois, says that as Secretary Blaine has withdrawn he, the Senator, is in the race for the Republican nomination for President.

BEER NOT SPIRITUOUS.

Decision Rendered By United States District Judge Knowles.

HELENA, Mont., Feb. 8.—Beer is not spirituous liquor, according to a decision rendered here by Judge Knowles, United States District Judge. This is an original ruling by a Federal Court on this subject.

Of the State courts that have passed upon the question, those of New Hampshire, West Virginia and Tennessee have agreed with the Judge's ruling, while the Court of North Carolina and one in New York have held the contrary.

The case on trial was that of a man who sold a bottle of beer to an Indian on the Crow Reservation. He was discharged. The Federal statutes provide a penalty for selling spirituous liquors or wine to an Indian on a reservation.

May Be Duke of London.

LONDON, Feb. 8.—Among all the titles which have been proposed for Prince George of Wales it is now considered that the most probable of adoption is that of Duke of London. This would be an entirely new title, and would therefore be subject to none of the objections raised by some people against the alleged unfortunate association of titles which have been borne before and have become extinct, in the original family and whenever revived, in from one to four generations. The title of the Duke of Clarence is one of those regarded with superstitious disfavor.

Rev. Dr. Geda Dead.

NEWPORT, R. I., Feb. 8.—A private letter received here announces the death at Sierra Leone, Africa, Dec. 18, of Rev. T. R. Geda, until last June Presiding Elder of the New England Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, and well-known among the colored Methodists of New England. He accompanied Bishop H. M. Turner on his trip to Africa last October, and liking the country determined to remain, though a young man. Mr. Geda had occupied prominent positions in his church in this section.

Room for the Behring Sea Agents.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—A room is being prepared at the State Department for the use of the Behring Sea agents in which to hold their sessions, beginning next Tuesday. They will occupy the apartment between Chief Clerk Brown's room and that formerly occupied by Third Assistant Secretary Foster, in charge of reciprocal trade arrangements negotiated under section 3 of the McKinley bill.

Minister Porter's Visit.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—The presence in New Orleans of ex-Governor Porter, U. S. Minister to Italy, on leave of absence from his post since Baron Fava, the Italian Minister, withdrew from Washton as the result of the severance of diplomatic relations incident to the Mafia troubles, is the subject of considerable speculation here. At the State Department it is said his visit has no significance, and Minister Porter is credited with saying that his visit is purely a personal one. As it is generally understood that Italy is about to resume diplomatic relations with the United States by sending a minister resident to Washinton, Minister Porter's visit to New Orleans, the seat of the difficulty that gave rise to his leaving Rome, is believed to have some connection with the final adjustment of that affair.

Belmont Pestered by Cranks.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—August Belmont is the latest acquaintance to the list of New York millionaires pestered by cranks. A man named Richard Nixon, formerly employed at the Belmont mansion in Fifth avenue as a butler, went to the house last Saturday night very drunk and demanded the wages he said was due him. He threatened to kill Mr. Belmont, and for a time created great excitement among the inmates of the house. Mr. Belmont sent for the police, who took Nixon to the station. Mr. Belmont declined to press a charge against Nixon and he was discharged. Since then he has hung around the Belmont mansion much to the annoyance of the family, who fear he will do harm. Police protection was claimed to-day, and an officer was detailed to watch the mansion and arrest Nixon if he should appear.

Spreckles and the Sugar Trust.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—A well-known sugar importer said to-day that he had positive assurance that Claus Spreckles had joined the sugar trust, so far as his Philadelphia refinery was concerned. As to the San Francisco business, the importer said, Spreckles would retain possession of that, but with limitations as to territory in which to sell sugar. So confident are the importers and weighers of sugar that Spreckles has gone into the trust despite all denials, that many of them believe their occupation will soon be gone, as the trust does not require their services.

Traffic Manager Hubbs' Discharge.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 8.—It is stated that the reason for the discharge of General Traffic Manager Hubbs of the Southern Pacific Railroad, as demanded by Jay Gould, was because Hubbs violated the rule of the Trans-Continental Association in regard to cutting rates by taking one hundred carloads of sugar from this city to Chicago at 65 cents per hundred. Gould found out about this great cut and at once demanded Hubbs' discharge. Hubbs received a salary of $20,000 a year.

Barlow on the Sound, Westchester Co., N. Y. To Alva's Brazilian Specific Co—Gentlemen:—Last spring I was troubled with what the doctors told me was muscular Rheumatism. I was unable to walk for nearly six weeks. All this time I was using the medicine prescribed by the attending doctor, and from which I got no relief.

A friend sent me a large bottle of Swift's Blood Cure, which I tried, and before two thirds of the Cure was used I was able to walk without pain. It is now two months since the pains left me, and have not as yet returned, and I am entirely free from them.

I delayed writing to you as I was anxious to know whether I was temporarily or permanently cured.

It is with pleasure that I now state that from my present feelings, I would judge that I am cured.

It is really necessary for me to recommend this medicine as I am positive that a trial of it is all that is necessary, and I am fully convinced it will recommend itself.

Very truly yours, M. HOGAN,

Webster's Crime.

He Will be Placed on Trial for Murder on February 15.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Burton C. Webster, gambler and bookmaker, charged with the crime of murder in the first degree, who has been a prisoner in the Tombs since August 7, 1891, is at last to be put on trial.

The case is set down for Friday, February 15, and the district attorney promises that there will be no more delay.

The crime for which Webster was indicted and imprisoned was the shooting and killing of Charles E. Goodwin, jr., in the latter's apartments in the Percival, 230 West Forty-second street, on the night of August 2.

At the time of its occurrence the crime created a tremendous sensation, not only on account of its apparent cold-bloodedness and deliberation, but because of the peculiar relations of the parties involved and the strange stories which were floating about in connection with some of them, which gave it a flavor of mystery and which aroused public curiosity to the highest pitch.

An important feature of the case was the woman at the bottom of the affair. She was Evelyn Granville, who had at one time been an actress, but had more recently become notorious in other roles.

At the time of the murder of Goodwin she was living with Gambler Webster, who preferred to call her his "common law wife," a term which she herself admitted accurately described her position.

After the shooting of Goodwin, Webster mysteriously disappeared. He remained in concealment in this city for nearly a week, despite the efforts of the police to find his hiding place.

Then he surrendered himself Aug. 7, at the office of his lawyers, Howe & Hummel, and at the coroner's investigation claimed that he had acted in self-defense in killing Goodwin.

It was said at the time that he might have avoided arrest altogether and easily have escaped from the city to some foreign country, had it not been that some very uncomfortable rumors had leaked out which made it unwise for those who knew of his place of concealment to attempt to shield him any longer from justice.

Webster is not an indigent person. He has plenty of money and many influential friends among his associates of the betting ring and the gambling palaces. Even while he is languishing in a Tombs cell his horses are winning big stakes at the race tracks almost every week.
