At first she declined to make any acknowledgement. Then she confersed that she took the money, but it was evident she could tell more if she wished to speak. A private consultation was decided upon, and after repeated persuasions on the part of her parents the gir! made a clean breast of everything. What she stated promises sensational d-relopments, as it implicates one or more parties. Warrants for their arrest have born issued.

Mrs. Drumbeller, who hoped until the last moment that the suspicions against her daughter would fail, was completely prostrated when the confession was made. She feil into a fit and remained in it, in spite of medical attendance, for over three hours. She is in a precarious condition. The girl's father is also sorely aggrieved by the affair. The girl is under $500 ball, pending future proceedings in the case.
