Memphis Visited by a Most Destructive Conflagration.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 9.—A most disastrous conflagration broke out in the building occupied by the Bruce-Berne Hat company. The building was soon seen by the firemen to be doomed, and all their efforts were at once concentrated in an effort to save the adjoining property.

Several other buildings were also destroyed. The loss will probably exceed $1,000,000.

STOLE $396,000.

The Czar Asks the Denver Police to Capture the Thieves.

DENVER, Col., Feb. 9.—The Russian Government has officially notified Chief of Police Farley, through its consular agent at San Francisco, that one of its treasury vaults in Siberia has been despoiled by robbers.

Gold to the amount of $396,000 has been taken, and his Imperial Majesty the Czar, requests that the chief arrest the robbers if they happen to arrive in Denver.

The robbery was committed December 1, the perpetrators making tracks at once across Siberia, and the agents of the Russian police are of opinion that some one of the Chinese seaports is the point where they will take ship for America.

THE "TIMES" MAN AT IT AGAIN.

Latest Report of the Chilean Correspondent of the Thunderer.

LONDON, Feb. 9.—The generally wrong correspondent of the "Times" in a long dispatch to his paper says accounts confirm the deep impression caused in Spanish and Portuguese republics by the action of the United States against Chile.

The almost always wrong correspondent then says: "They regard it as an outrage, and declare that the illusions they have hitherto held respecting the great northern republic have vanished. The legitimate influence of the United States has been destroyed, and in the future the Central and South American republics must look for protection and mutual aid of interest, both commercial and political, only among themselves."

"Mr. Blaine seems to have foreseen and directed this impending destruction of his Pan-American policy by the unwarranted ultimatum sent to Chile. Consequently he is throwing the responsibility on President Harrison. Private advices place beyond a doubt this immense change, which marks the occurrence of an epoch in the history of the two Americas."

The Police No Protection. PEORIA, Ill., Feb. 9.—A few evenings ago evidences of an attempted wholesale burglary were found at the residence of Henry S. Ottenheimer. All the silverware in the house was found tied up in a table cloth in the hallway, the thief evidently having been scared away. A policeman was put on guard to prevent a similar occurrence, but the thief returned and carted all the valuables away.

Fanny Worden Threatened. BOSTON, Feb. 9.—A visitor to the Worden household in Hanover found rifles in the corner and pistols on tables handy for use. Fannie Worden is learning to shoot to protect herself. She talked of their snare and showed threatening letters which had been received from friends of Frank Army, who murdered her sister Christie.

Roasted to Death. POTTSVILLE, Pa., Feb. 9.—A fire of unknown origin destroyed a small frame dwelling one mile from this city, and roasted to death Mrs. Jane Redoxy, the only occupant. The place bore a bad reputation and was known as the "Lone Star Hotel." It is said that she had a large sum of money secreted about the house.

Discovered a Buggy and Dead Horse. NASHUA, N. H., Feb. 9.—Much excitement has been caused in Hollis over the discovery of a buggy and a dead horse in the woods in the north part of that town. No one has been reported missing in the vicinity.
