ELOPEMENT IN NEWARK.

'I Have Married Frankie.' Writes the Bride to Her Parents. NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 11.—Miss Kate Schleicher, aged 18, the daughter of a well-to-do butcher, of No. 60 Waverly place, left her home while her father was engaged at supper last evening, and in company with a companion, Miss Emma Mansfield, entered a carriage occupied by Frank Pierson Bond and Harry Winans, both prominent musical artists.

The party were driven to the parsonage of the Franklin Street Church, where Miss Schleicher and Mr. Bond were married by Rev. Dr. Brady. The bride sent a note to her father reading: 'I have married Frankie,' and then left the city, it is said, for Washington. All the parties are well known and highly respected. The young lady was engaged to marry a promising young German of the Thirteenth Ward.

BRAKEMAN HERRICK INDICTED.

Two Counts Against Him for Manslaughter in the Second Degree. WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Feb. 11.—The grand jury has indicted Brakeman Albert S. Herrick on two counts for manslaughter in the second degree, for causing the accident near Hastings on Christmas Eve on the Hudson River railroad.

Beside the indictments the grand jury presented a statement in which they censure the New York Central and Hudson River railroad company for careless and negligent management of the running of their road on the day of the accident, and also censuring Charles C. Delancey, station master at Hastings, for not stopping approaching trains when he knew a blockade was in force some distance away.

Accident to James Couch.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—James Couch, owner of the Tremont House and one of Chicago's oldest settlers, met with an accident yesterday that will probably cause his death. While trying to board a street car he fell. A heavy truck was close behind Mr. Couch, and before the horses could be stopped, the wagon had passed over the old gentleman crushing the left leg and cutting off the fingers of the right hand. Mr. Couch is 91 years of age and has been a leading citizen of Chicago since 1836.

The tribunal will have seven members, two representing the United States and two Great Britain, and three representing neutral governments.

Won in a Minute and a Half.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 11.—James Doran, of Dreyea, and William Thompson, of this city, fought last night for the heavyweight championship of Northeastern Pennsylvania, in Jester's Athletic rooms. Keg of Powder—Little Spark.

ALLIANCE, O., Feb. 11.—A terrific explosion occurred in a blacksmith shop at Garfield, a few miles from this place, by which P. Mercer, James Rice and William Good were probably fatally injured. Russian Merchants Uneasy.

ST. THE NEW GETTYSBURG.

A Glorious Conception Wonderfully Executed.

Few people, except those who have visited Philadelphia and seen Paul Phillips' mammoth cyclorama, 'The Battle of Gettysburg,' can form any idea of its startling magnificence. The visitor, on entering this peculiar building, passes through a long, winding corridor, and on mounting a flight of steps, suddenly finds himself on what appears to be the summit of a high hill. His first impression is one of mingled astonishment and awe. He speaks to no one; silently he gazes upon the awful scene of carnage. He is completely dazed. Everything has a weird appearance; the subdued light seems to fall, tremblingly, both on the scene at his feet and on the distant silent hills. Around him is the whole unbroken circle of the horizon, the range of vision being apparently forty of fifty miles in every direction; at his feet is a mound of real earth, covered with broken gun-carriages and other debris of war, and, as the ground slopes away to the plain below, his eye is led to the field where the Northern and Southern forces are engaged in mortal combat. So perfect is the illusion, so admirable the blending of light and shade, that it is impossible to determine where reality ends and painting begins. Indeed, words fail to adequately describe the wonderful effects of the graphic and life-like portrayal of this, the mightiest battle of the war. This great cyclorama is situated at the corner of Broad and Cherry streets, Philadelphia, Pa., and is open from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. No one should fail to visit it.

THE BEHRING SEA DISPUTE.

Mr. Lowther Informs Mr. Brice that an Agreement Has Been Reached.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—In the House of Commons Mr. James Brice, Member for the South Division of Aberdeen, made inquiry as to the present state of the negotiations between Great Britain and the United States in regard to the Behring Sea dispute, and also asked for information as to the state reached by the negotiations between Great Britain and France and Newfoundland over the fisheries misunderstanding.

The Right Hon. James Lowther, Parliamentary Secretary of the Foreign Office, promised Mr. Brice that full papers on the subjects he had asked about should be forthcoming.

Mr. Lowther added that he was glad to say that a complete agreement had been arrived at with the United States Government in regard to arbitrating the Behring Sea matter, and that Italy, France and Sweden would shortly be asked to appoint arbitrators.

During the day a circular from Mr. De Cobain was handed to the members of the House of Commons, inclosing the statutory declarations of his accusers, and stating that his health is such as to prevent him from submitting to the strain of a criminal trial. He also says that it appears that all the members support the motion demanding that the government furnish information supporting the charges against him, and adds that if the warrant is withdrawn and his health permits, he will submit to be examined.
