

MAY BE DISMISSED

Court Marital Verdict in the Throckmorton Case.

HE IS RECOMMENDED TO MERCY.

The President May Commute the Sentence to Suspension on Reduced Pay.

The Verdict Will Not Be Made Public Until the President Has Formally Acted Upon the Matter, But the Above is the Reason in War Department—Col. A. P. Morrow Retires and Thus Escapes Court Martial for Disobedience of Orders.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—Although the verdict of the court martial in the case of Major Charles B. Throckmorton, who was tried in New York some weeks ago on charges of duplicating his pay accounts, will not be officially announced until the President has formally acted upon the papers, it has become pretty generally known throughout the War Department that the sentence is dismissal.

It is reported, however, that the sentence is accompanied by a recommendation for mercy signed by all the members of the court. This circumstance, coupled with the officer's long service and the tremendous amount of influence at work in his behalf, will probably spare him the loss of his commission.

It is generally expected the President will mitigate the sentence to two or three years' suspension on half or three-quarter pay.

Charges of disobedience of orders have been made against Col. A. P. Morrow by General Stanley, commanding the Department of Texas, and a court martial was thought to be imminent, when his friends intervened and induced him to apply for retirement under the thirty year service law, the War Department agreeing to piggyback the charges on condition that the application for retirement should follow.

The arrangement will not be fully consummated until next August, when Colonel Morrow will complete the thirty years necessary to entitle him to retirement. The War Department has relieved him from his command and ordered him to his home in anticipation of that event.

The charges against Colonel Morrow are based upon certain actions of that officer during the recent Garza campaign. One of the principal charges, constituting disobedience of orders, recites that Colonel Morrow issued passes to men of his regiment to pass over the border into Mexico in the face of positive instructions prohibiting such action issued by General Stanley.

Colonel Morrow, it will be remembered, was tried by court martial in this city a few years ago on charges of duplicating his pay accounts and was suspended for three years. He was an aide to General Sheridan for a number of years.

GOOD FINANCIAL POLICY

WHAT AN INTERVIEW REVEALED.

Why Industrial Stocks are the Safest Investments, and How it is They Can be Secured at Bargains.

(N. F. Recorder)

I yesterday told you of an interview I had with one of the leading financiers of the day, and the interest he felt in industrial investments rather than in speculative ones. In the interview the gentleman gave me a hint which I have followed up successfully. His hint was of a heavy institution, which is upon a very solid basis, where he thought a limited amount of stock could be secured at a great bargain. I was so impressed with the idea that I called upon the president of the company and told him I would like some information. He refused to give it or even to be interviewed.

"But it has been asserted that some of your shares can be obtained at less than their market value?"

"Who says so?"

"I have reliable information to that effect," I declared.

"How absurd. No man sells anything at less than its price, unless there is a special reason for doing so."

"Well, is there not in your case?"

The gentleman smiled. "Yes and no. We might part with some shares to certain persons, but not a dollar's worth to a speculator or a financier."

"Why, may I ask?"

"Because the said stock is not a heavy institution, but a speculation."

"Easily, I suppose you own ten shares. Will you be interested in it? Will you be so good as to show me what it is?"

"Yes, I will be glad to do so, but I need your friends' consent first. Will they not increase the dividends? Will it not make all the rest of the stock more valuable?"

"I saw the force of the argument at once. The gentleman I talked with was Mr. H. H. Warner, President of the Safe Care Company, and after the ice was broken he talked freely."

"None of our stock is for sale, except in a limited amount, and to certain persons. It is too good. It is paying more than 15 percent dividends, and the introduction of our banking powder, which, as you are aware, is a very profitable business, will doubtless double our profits. I ask no one to buy our stock, although I stand ready to personally deposit collateral to guarantee a dividend of not less than ten percent per annum for the next five years."

"You have great faith in it?"

"Faith. Why should I not have it? If any of your friends wish to know more about it let them write me, or call at 50 Broadway, and I will give them all the inside information they desire. I will show them just what we have and what it is doing. They don't have any speculators write me. We have no stock to sell to them."

The frankness and outspoken manner of Mr. Warner impressed me. I could see that he was a man who dealt openly and honestly every word he said. I am also thoroughly convinced that investments in industrial companies that are paying steady and large dividends are better than stocks, bonds, or other fluctuating securities. I am pretty well satisfied, too, that the public is finding this out and profiting by it, and I am glad that it is so.—HAMILTON.

Brown and Murphy Fight With Gloves, Big as Sofa Pillows.

CHICAGO, Feb. 16.—The match between Andy Brown, the colored lightweight of New Orleans, and Jimmy Murphy, of Chicago, at the Second Regiment Armory, was a tame affair.

He scared Brown so much that the yellow fighter refused to make a lead in the earlier rounds. Murphy had to do all the fighting.

Just as the men were going lively Fitzpatrick stopped the fight.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—In the House of Commons Mr. Thomas Sexton, one of the members from Belfast, moved the amendment to be given notice on February 19, declaring that the Imperial Parliament had shown its inability to legislate for the special interests of Ireland, giving as an instance of this inability the failure of the Land Purchase act of 1891.

Mr. Sexton, during the course of his remarks on the subject, referred to the Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain in terms which must have disturbed even the extreme placidity of that gentleman's nature.

Mr. Sexton said, for instance, that Mr. Chamberlain, having introduced the bill, was the commander of a gang of political wreckers who were seeking, by means of a false light, to lure to destruction the vessel which was freighted with Ireland's hopes and desires.

Mr. Sexton also turned his guns upon Lord Salisbury, the Premier, classing him as an "erratic and unruly statesman, a scoffer by nature and a bigot by calculation."

GEN. GRANT'S MEMOIRS.

Original $7.50 Edition, for 50 CENTS.

No book, excepting the Bible, has ever had such a sale in the United States as General Grant's Memoirs. 650,000 copies have already gone into the homes of the rich, but the subscription price of $7.50 has placed it beyond the reach of people in moderate circumstances. If 600,000 people have been willing to pay $7.00 for Grant's Memoirs, there must be a couple of million people in the United States who want them, and will jump at the opportunity to buy them at the low figure here offered.

We will send you General Grant's Memoirs, publishers' original edition, best paper, cloth, green and gold binding, hitherto sold by subscription at $7.00.

FOR 50 CENTS! ABSOLUTELY ONLY 50 CENTS

And absolutely a proposition such as has never been made in the history of book publishing. The two splendid volumes of Grant's Memoirs, of which 650,000 copies have already been sold—not a cheap edition, but the best—for 50 cents; provided you send your subscription to this journal for one year, and also a subscription of $3.00 for the COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE, the brightest and cheapest of the great illustrated monthlies, itself equal to the best $4.00 magazine.

The COSMOPOLITAN is enabled to make this offer because of the purchase of 600,000 volumes at a price which even publishers would deem impossible, and with the idea of running up its circulation to half a million copies. By contract with the COSMOPOLITAN we are enabled to offer to our readers a share in the low price obtained through the largest purchase of books ever made in the history of the world.

If, however, you have Grant's books, the COSMOPOLITAN'S offer will permit you to take instead:

Gen. Sherman's Memoirs, 2 vols., sold by subscription for $5.00.

Gen. Sheridan's Memoirs, 2 vols., sold by subscription for $4.00.

Gen. McClellan's Memoirs, sold by subscription for $3.75.

All of these are bound in cloth, green and gold, in uniform style with Grant's Memoirs.

The COSMOPOLITAN and HERALD are sent postage prepaid, but the postage on the books, at the rate of 2 cents per ounce, must be remitted with the order: Gen. Grant's Memoirs, 10¢—48 cents; Gen. Sheridan's Memoirs, 2¢—46 cents; Gen. Sherman's Memoirs, 8¢—42 cents; Gen. McClellan's Memoirs, 48¢—24 cents, or books can be sent by express at the expense of the subscriber.

Send us at once $3.00 for a year's subscription to the COSMOPOLITAN and a year's subscription to the HERALD ($3.00 for DAILY; $1.50 for WEEKLY), and 50 cents for a set of Memoirs, to which add postage on the particular set of Memoirs selected.

While this offer appeals strongly to members of the Grand Army and their families, it also appeals to every citizen of the Union. Send all orders to the
