MORE MAIL FACILITIES.

A Favorable Report From the Postal Authorities.

Superintendent R. C. Jackson has advised our local post office authorities that the matter of establishing a mail service on the Ashland branch of the Lehigh Valley Railroad has been favorably reported to the Second Assistant Postmaster General for his action. We may now expect to receive orders to start this service in a short time. At present the mail facilities between here and Lost Creek, Girardville and Ashland are very poor and have been the cause of much complaint; but under the proposed arrangement the mails for these places will be run at such times as to fully meet all requirements.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. C. H. Hagenbuch, Druggist.

MENNONITES DRIVEN OUT.

Russia Insists on Military Service, Which is Against Their Creed.

ODessa, Feb. 19.—The proposed emigration to America this spring of the German Mennonites settled near Tashkend, in Asiatic Russia, is the result of the new policy adopted by the Russian Government in requiring the Mennonites to do military service the same as other subjects of the empire.

This is against the Mennonite creed, the people of that sect being equally averse to lawsuits and to war.

For over 100 years their prejudices have been respected, and they have been regarded as desirable residents of the empire, on account of their skill, industry, and law-abiding character.

It is now desired, however, to get rid of all Germans, no matter how remote their descent, who are not entirely amalgamated with the Russian population. Hence the measures that are about to deprive Russia of its Mennonite population.

GIVING FAMINE RELIEF.

Peasants Starving Themselves to Keep Their Horses Alive.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—Count Tolstoi gives, in the "Daily Telegraph," an interesting description of the soup kitchens which he has established for the relief of his famine-stricken country people. When he hears that the people of a village are starving, he journeys thither and subjects the starosta, or leading elder, to a series of inquiries calculated to ascertain who are most in need.

Besides his soup kitchens, he gives rye bread and potatoes to those who are in need of relief. The peasants are most anxious to save their horses, as they are their chief dependence for future agricultural operations.

The peasants of one place, themselves virtually starving, have kept eight horses alive through the winter so far on famine rations rather than kill the animals. Men and brutes starve together.

Refuse to Report Unless Paid.

CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—Quite a number of physicians, including some wealthy and distinguished ones, have refused to comply with the health commissioner's request for reports of all new cases of typhoid unless they are paid a fee for such reports. They say the information is their own, and they do not propose to give it away for nothing any more than they would in their medical services. Health reports show nineteen deaths this week from scarlet fever, thirteen from diphtheria and twenty-five from typhoid.

Reading's Powder Mills.

SCRANTON, Pa., Feb. 19.—The Reading Railroad has perfected the purchase of an extensive tract of land along Spring Brook, on the Moose Mountains, within easy distance of the Jersey Central Railroad. On this tract the Reading Company will at once begin the erection of the largest powder mills in the country. From this mammoth plant the Reading will obtain all powder for use in the collieries of the company under the new deal. The tract is about ten miles from Scranton.

Actor Dixey the Defendant.

Boston, Feb. 19.—Harry E. Dixey, the actor, is a defendant in a suit in the Superior Court which is soon to be tried. The plaintiff is Wm. Gill, the playwright, the subject of the suit being an alleged breach of contract concerning the play, "The Seven Ages," and the amount of damages claimed is $5,000. Mr. Gill says he made a contract with Dixey by the terms of which he was to write and Dixey was to pay for the play.

Vest Pocket Edition.

The passenger department of the Chicago Milwaukee and St. Paul railway apparently know just what everybody wants. It is the shortest line between Chicago, Council Bluffs and Omaha. They have now issued a small book giving the population of all the great cities in the United States with a population of over 10,000. It gives the rank of every city and is an alphabetically arranged census of 1890. Shenandoah ranks 211 with a population of 15,944. It is a very handy reference. Send your name and address with a 2-cent stamp to Geo. H. Headford general passenger agent, Chicago, Ill., or to John R. Post, district passenger agent, Williamsport, Pa., for one of them.
