VOL. VII.—NO. 44. SHENANDOAH, PA., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1892. ONE CENT.

AT A "kicker" once, always QUAY a "kicker." Disappointed AGAIN office seekers who will sacrifice their party to "get even" on a personal disappointment are to be found in all parties, but the Republican ranks seem to contain the most of such class. It is such people who are again urging warfare against Senator Quay. They are trying to make an incision in the Republican ranks and when they succeed they will gradually open the gash by disseminating falsehoods until it will become large enough to allow the enemy to creep in. The anti-Quay fights are only pretexts for disorganization. The pills prepared by the medicine men in the Democratic wigwags and dealt out to the Ingrates of the Republican party with the assurance that if properly taken they will remedy their ills. The blind, silly disorganizers take the dose and swallow it according to directions; and when the time arrives for their condition to change for the better and it fails to do so, they appeal to the Democratic physicians, who, knowing they have excellent dupes in the patients, sagely remark, "Quay is doing it. You are better than you were before you followed our directions, but you can never completely recover until you get rid of Quay."

Anti-Quayism is a purely Democratic institution with an "Independent" Republican rallying surrounding. It is the Democrats who want Quay killed, not the Republicans. The renegade members of the latter party who shout the battle cry are only mere figure-heads—knavish dupes. Scan the "Independent" Republican field and where do you find the leader—the chairman of the state committee? Dealing out his libellous matter from his headquarters in the office of the Philadelphia Times. We hear a great cry from Pittsburg that several of her prominent citizens have been converted to the anti-Quay movement, and we find that two of the most prominent of these men are clients of Dalzell, one J. B. Ford, a disappointed candidate for postmaster at Pittsburg; and the other, H. D. W. English, who kicked because Senator Quay did not put his father-in-law in the McKeesport post office. The anti-Quay men all over the state are prompted by the same spirit as that which nettled their disciples in this town—political disappointment. Some of these renegades are now shifting from their former bases and claiming they are against Quay because he is against Harrison. Quay's friends say the Senator is not against the President, but the renegades smile incredulously. These people also smiled when Quay denied the dastardly Bardsley charges last fall, and refused to accept the verdict of vindication awarded by two juries. Conviction must be born in their brains (?) it cannot be inoculated. General Harrison has made an admirable President. His administration is above reproach. Although he may not have satisfied all in his party, it is certain that he shares the good will of all.

It is inconsistent for the "Independent" crowd to say they are against Quay because he is against Harrison, for that crowd is constituted of men who have failed to get that which they expected to receive through Harrison's election. Hence they themselves have the grievances against Harrison, if any exist.

If Quay never has stronger opponents than those who constitute the Mapes, Emery & Co. combine his political life will last for years to come. The people soon tire of the subtleties these resort to for personal gain. 'Tis a pity we haven't got more Quays and less "kickers."

The writer of the communication to a Pottsville evening paper will distinguish himself if he writes much more. We have a "pi" box in our office that closely resembles his letter—? ? ? ! ! x x — + " " .

An express train in California dashed into a wedding party, and a girl who had passed from maidenhood to wifehood within the hour was plunged suddenly into widowhood. A strange mingling of joy and crushing grief have gone into the warp and woof of this young woman's destiny. Fortunately, such a weaving is rare.

The discovery of spots on the sun, which is exciting great curiosity and comment just now, is more or less connected with the second coming of Christ and the end of the world. Signs are multiplying rapidly.

GEN. WILLIAM LILLY, OF MAUCH CHUNK, PA.

GEN. WILLIAM LILLY, Republican Candidate for Congressman-at-Large.

The accompanying illustration is a good likeness of General William Lilly, of Mauch Chunk, Republican candidate for nomination for Congressman-at-Large. General Lilly is one of the most popular and one of the best known men in this state. He has figured prominently in the politics of Pennsylvania for years. After being unanimously named by the State Convention as a Delegate-at-Large to the Constitutional Convention the people elected him. But perhaps he is better known to the people of this section through his connection with the Miners' Hospital at Fountain Springs. Gen. Lilly was appointed by Gov. Hoyt one of the Board of Commissioners to locate and build the hospital and when the state formally turned over the institution eight years ago, Gen. Lilly was one of the Board of Trustees that received it. He was the only member of the original commission so honored. When Gen. Cameron withdrew from the office, after serving a year, Gen. Lilly was again offered it; and it was not until the trustees unanimously insisted, after the resignation of Robert Allison, that he consented to serve, and he now holds the office. Gen. Lilly has been a friend of the Union soldier as well as the miner. During the war he voluntarily supported the families of five soldiers.

The dagger of the assassin is no more sure of its work of death than a neglected cough. Dr. Cox's Wild Cherry and Seneca will speedily cure you.

Fish for Our Streams.

PERSONAL.

Vincent Moyer, of Port Clinton, is the guest of town friends.
 Mrs. T. J. Foster and daughter, Mrs. Stanley P. Allen, left for Reading this morning.
 Louis B. Friedman, now traveling with L. N. B. Straus, cigar manufacturers, Philadelphia, was in town yesterday.
 Joel D. Ledden, of Wm. Penn, and John Watson, of town, representing Watkin's Waters Post, No. 146, G. A. R., of town, will leave on Monday to attend the Department Encampment, Grand Army of the Republic, at Pittsburg.
Is it True
 That Harry Goodman is to be appointed to a position on the paid police force?
 That all Councilman-elect Stout asks is that Borough Treasurer Bradigan be reappointed?
 That it is natural for a Republican to insist upon the appointment of such a strong Democrat?
 That the Democrats who attended the Citizens' primaries defeated Baird for School Board?
 That all of Nieswenter's friends voted for Baird?
 That the friends of the Bradigans voted for Baird?
 That members of the Citizens' party are unable to find a candidate for Borough Treasurer?
 That Lamb and Malone made a deal, express or implied, before the election?
 That the Councilmanic members of the Citizens' party are inviting Democrats to join them in distributing patronage?
 That the defeat of Butts was one of the provisions of the deal alleged to have been made before election?
 That if a deal was made before the election it was intended solely for the benefit of the people, and not to serve any personal ends?
 Orders for EVENING HERALD should be left at Hooks & Brown's news stand, No. 4 North Main street.

A Good Suggestion.

It is understood that the friends of Frank C. Reese are urging his election as clerk of the Borough Council. The suggestion is an excellent one. Mr. Reese is a young man of unexceptionable ability and it would be impossible to find any one in the borough better qualified for the position. In addition to being exceedingly popular Mr. Reese has to his credit several years' highly satisfactory service as an assessor and three years' service as Borough Auditor.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE PARADE.

A GRAND DEMONSTRATION TO BE MADE MONDAY FOR WASHINGTON'S ANNIVERSARY

Notes of Other Local Events. The Shenandoah Choral Union Concert a Success—A Ladies Aid Social Event.

The Joint Committee having in charge the celebration of Washington's Birthday, have about completed their work, and from present indications the parade will be a large one. Several societies from out of town have been invited and will participate in the demonstration. The Grand Band has been engaged to head the parade, and will treat our citizens to some of their excellent music. S. D. Hess will be Chief Marshal, with James Patterson and Henry Bickelman as aides. The line of parade will form at 9:30 and pass over the following route: Form on Main street, between Oak and Cherry, move up Main to Oak, out Oak to White, north on White to Centre, east on Centre to Emerick, north on Emerick to Coal, west on Coal to Chestnut, south on Chestnut to Cherry, east on Cherry to Jardin, north on Jardin to Coal, east on Coal to Main, north on Main to Hook & Ladder house, countermarch south on Main to Oak and diamas.

Camps 112, 183 and 206, and Council 367, will form on South Main street, between Oak and Cherry.
 Company A, Jr. O. U. A. M. Guards, and Commandery No. 14, S. of A., will form on West Oak street, between Main and Jardin.
 Delano's uniformed company will participate in the parade here.
 Fly your hunting to the breeze on Monday.

There is quite a friendly rivalry between the three camps in town as to which will have the largest number in parade.
 There will likely be a general suspension of work on Monday.
 Unfurl the stars and stripes in a manner befitting the day.

Patriotic Sermon.

By a special invitation from Rev. William McNally, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of town, camps Nos. 112, 183 and 206, P. O. S. of A., will attend that church in a body to-morrow evening, at 6:30 o'clock, and listen to a patriotic sermon. The reverend gentleman's abilities as a pulpit orator and logical reasoner are a sufficient guarantee of the treat in store for all who attend these special services.

The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use the California liquid laxative Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., printed near the bottom of the package.

The Last Night.

To-night the Baldwin Comedy Company will close their engagement in Ferguson's theatre by producing "The Streets of New York," one of the most popular plays on their repertoire. Last night's attendance was large and "The Vagabond" was well received.
 Boys wanted at Hooks & Brown's book store to sell newspapers.

Grand Ball at Mahanoy City.

A grand ball will be held in Armory Hall, Mahanoy City, Monday evening, February 22d. Walbridge's orchestra of ten pieces will furnish the music.

A Pleasing Affair.

Mrs. M. P. Fowler last evening gave a dinner at her residence on West Oak street, in honor of Mrs. A. J. Luburg, treasurer of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church. The guests were entertained in royal style. Among those present were Mrs. John Hooks, Mrs. Ogden, Mrs. Hutton, Mrs. Bird, Mrs. John Robbins, Mrs. Dr. Kistler, Mrs. Webster, Miss Hattie Callen, Mrs. J. Beacham, Miss Sallie Beacham, Mrs. Krick and Mrs. Oscar Yost.
 Hereafter the Roshon gallery will open on Sunday for the accommodation of those who cannot come on week days. 2-12-92
