President Carnot Accepts the Ministers' Resignations.

The Followers of the Old Regime Throw Aside Their Ancient Dignity and Embrace and Even Eiss Each Other-Minister Fallieres' Colleagues Attribute the Crisis to Bis Attitude Toward the Clergy-Clemenceau, Who is Quick to Turn Others Out of Office but Never Takes Office Himself, Seizes the Opporinuity-The Demand for Urgency Placed the Premier in a Difficult Position.

Pans, Feb. 20 .- President Carnot has accepted the resignation of the Ministers. He had a long con_erence with M. de Freycinet, at which the Premier told him that his action could not be recalled and that the course of the Chamber left no choice but dishonor or resignation

M. Fallieres, the Minister of Public Lime Worship, is looked upon with coldness by his colleagues as the primary cause of the crisis by his aggressive attitude toward the clergy. The supporters of the government join in condemning his policy as having rendered the catastrophe

After the defeat of the Ministry there was a remarkable scene in the Chamber. At first the majority were as thunder struck as the minority.

They had hardly expected to overthrow the Ministry by such an extraordinary vote. The followers of the old regime who have sat in calm hauteur day after day, watching the onward sweep of the current beyond their control, suddenly awoke to a sense of the result.

They threw aside dignity and began to embrace and even to kiss each other. to embrace and even to his each other. Nobles from remote parts of France, where loyalty to the Church and the royal house is born in the people, danced about like dervishes in their delight at the defeat of the Ministry.

The minority was first dumbfounded and then frantic and answered the shouts of joy with yells and execrations. The prudence of the Ministry in promptly retiring, without theatricals, prevented serious disorder.

erious disorder.

The crisis came so suddenly and with so little cause that it has had little or no disturbing effect as yet upon the public. There is some excitement, but it is confined to political circles. The prevailing opinion is that there will be a dissolution of the Chamber unless the Ministry which has just resigned is patched up.

M. Clemenceau, leaster of the Radicals.

had a hand in the crisis, as he had in nearly all crises of the kind in many years. He is quick to turn others out of office, but never takes office himself. In the present case M. de Freychet had no intention of passing the Associations bill, which was designed merely to frighten the Bishops and please the Radicals. The demand for urgeacy placed the Fremier in a difficult position. If he accepted the motion it would be equivalent to a direct attack on the Church, and would bring down upon the Government the bring down upon the Government the hostility of the Right, while to refuse urgency would betray insincerity on the part of the Government.
