BEHLIN, Feb. 26.-Ten thousand of the hungry and oppressed of this city marched yesterday to the gates of the Emperor's Castle and demanded justice. Singing the Marseillaise with a mighty roar, they swept up the broad avenue of Unter den Linden, gathered renewed inspiration at the statue of the great Frederick and, fighting hand to hand with the police, they cried aloud for the Emperor, who, pale and alarmed, looked down upon them from a window of the Alte

With a wave of the hand he could have calmed the mob, but, indifferent to their cries, he permitted the police, strongly re-enforced, to drive his subjects back, bleeding and blind with rage and disappointment, to the farther parts of the city, where until early this morning their scattered bands pillaged the bakeries and other shops where food could be had, and, led sometimes by women. sometimes by men, defied the police and spread abroad the rallying cry of

After the rioters had been driven from before the castle gates, thousands of the unemployed gathered in the streets, especially of the eastern quarter. Men rushed forth from their homes, followed by wives and children beseeching them not to risk their lives. On Weissen-strasse a tall, good looking woman of strong German build, denounced the authorities and demanded that her hearers proceed to obtain by violence the food

As darkness came on the mob in-creased. The rioters held virtually pos-session of the eastern quarter of Berlin, and especially of Frankfurter, Koopn-inker, Andreas and Weissenburger streets. The whole police force was streets. The whole police force was called out, under orders to go to any ex-

One of the sturdlest of the mob was a Brandenburg blacksmith, who, with no weapon but his fists, resisted half a dozen policemen in their efforts to make him a prisoner. A terrible blow from his right arm nearly killed one of his assailants, and he was abot down. He was borne to a hospital fatally wounded.

In tirucnerweg strasse the mob attacked the beer houses and shops, demanding bread and beer. They pillaged the bakeshope and divided the bread among all who wanted it. The half-famished poople seized and devoured the food with a wolfishness which was eloquent of their misery and hunger. Some men left the mob and hurried home, with quent of their misery and hunger. Some men left the mob and hurried home, with loaves under their arms, to their starving families. Others sat down on the street and banqueted on the spoils.

At Elizabeth strasse the police stopped a man who was hurrying along with loaves clasped in his arms. He fell on his knees and begged ito be allowed to pass. "My children have had nothing to eat since Tuesday," he cried. They had other work to attend to and allowed him

The police were directed with much judgment and skill, their instructions being to aim for the capture, or if ucces-sary, the killing of those who appeared to be leaders. This they carried out, and as fast as one who seemed to be a ringleader was taken, he was hurried away to prison. In this way the mob was

The military remained under arms, but took no part in the struggle. This course is said to have been followed by the direct orders of the Kaiser. It is also intimated that the authorities had an intimation that the soldiers could not be remained in a coulder with the means and trusted in a conflict with the people that they were safer in garrison than they would be on the streets. The panic caused by the uprising is al-

Berlin's Mobs Continue Their THE SUCCESSFUL MEETING OF SOROSIS SOCIETY.

> A Frank and Open Discussion of the Most Important Question Which Can Concern Any Woman.

An intensely interesting meeting of the Sorosis Society was held on Monday, when the preparation of women or wifehood and motherhood was fully discussed. Mrs. Ada M. Brown, who presided, among other things said:

"Woman's function in the world is letermined by nature-she is made to be the mother of the race. Paysio gically we must take into considera tion that she may become a wife and a mother, though practically we in a mother, though practically we had note it. It is a mistake then to train girls precisely like boys. No true woman's woman wishes to be a man, she is quite satisfied to be a good specimen of her own sex."

Mrs Doane spoke strongly and lanented the false modesty which forbade methers facing squarely the true and needful squarton of their daughters. She advocated the special baconing of girls in public schools on a atters of hygiene and physiology as they are taught in the codeges. Life demands much more of our girls than it does of our boys," she said, "and we should recognize it. The schools docate our girls to the ground our girls than it does of our girls than it does of our boys," she said, "and we should recognize it. The schools docate our girls to tignore the fact that the happeness or misery of the that the happiness or misery of the coming generations lies in the hands of girls who, with all their learning, are ignorant of the vital principles which underlie the glory of wifehood

She had beadache, backache, cold feet and sinking sensations. Her complexion was sallow; her appetite fickle. I knew the cause and I am happy to state that I was able to afford relief. I feel it my privilege to-day to state that I believe there is a means where by women who are suffering can obtain complete relief, and those who are in health be continued in its enjoyin health be continued in its enjoyment. A few years ago, a prominent and wealthy gentleman residing in Rochester, N. Y., was given up to die. By means of a simple and purely vegetable remedy he was restored to perfect beaith. So efficient did this remedy prove in the case of many well-known men, that it began also to be used by ladies, and to-day thousands of women in all parts of the land owe their restored health and continued happiness to the wonderful power of Warner's Safe Cure. If, however, the blood be impure, it is certain to produce poisonous effects in the parts with which it comes in contact, and thus causes inflammations and the innumerable liftammations and the innumerable lifts which make the physical life of Louis, president, and W. discriminate—not condemn all because some are inefficient. The merits of Warner's Safe Cure have been proved beyond a doubt, because they deal directly with the causes of all

If they are healthy, bright and vigorous, America will advance even more than it has in the past. If, on the other hand, the wives and mothers of the land are weak, morbid and sickly, little can be hoped for either the future prominence or power of this nation. If ladies will realize this and act accordingly the effect will be felt through future. the effect will be felt through future generations.
