MRS. NEVINS' REPLY PUBLICLY ANSWERED.

She Vigorously Attacks the Secretary's Statement.

DECLARES HE IS UNTRUTHFUL.

Accuses Mrs Blaine of Brutality Toward Her Daughter.

Mrs. Nevies' Account of the Reception Blaine Flew Into a Terrible Passion and Ordered Them From the Bouse.

New York, March L -Mrs. Nevins, the mother of Marie Nevins Blaine, who when he granted the divorce.

Mrs. Nevins said: "Secretary Blaine's statement is a tissue of lies from end to end. I and my daughter will yrove that to the work before we are through with This is not the first time that Mr. Blaine has been called upon to explain occurrences in his family. But without any prejudice on my part I can safely say any prejintee on my partitions salely say that he has made a great mess of it this time. Just at present I will confine myself entirely to that part of his statement where he tries to his at me.

"His story of our interview with Mrs.

the story of our interview with ark. Elaine is largely manufactured out of the whole cloth. I will tell you exactly what took place. I accompanied my daughter to the house. The nurse and the child were with ns. We were shown into the drawingroom. Mrs. Blaine came in. We all bownt and proconded at once to business Marie asked to see her husband. Mrs. Blaine said she could not see him. She insisted upon the nurse leaving the room. She said she would not discuss the matter before a servant. The nurse and little Jim went to the kitchen. We continued to talk the matter over for some time.

All three of us were perfectly cool.

'Mrs. Blaine said when Marie spoke of going away again, "Well, you can leave your baby here if you want to." If Marie had been some poor outcast whom Jim Blaine had betrayed Mrs. Blaine could not have spoken in a more

I spoke up for Marie. 'They have both done wrong. Mrs. Blaine, in marry-ing without our consent.' A moment or two later she turned to my daughter and said in an extremely significant sort of way, 'Well, your marriage was all wrong anyway, Marie.' Then I pro-tested. Mrs. Blaine instantly flew into a fury. "She almost foamed at the mouth. She rang a bell and a servant appeared with surprising speed. If it had been my servant I should certainly have accused her of savesdropping. 'Show these persons out,' cried Mrs. Blianc. And then she added, 'and watch them.'

"We walked out and called the nurse and little Jim. At the door of the carriage the nurse, who was crying out of sympathy for Marie, said: 'Aira. Blaine, his wife. Go right up to his room. No one has a right to stop you.' Marie went back to the house. I stayed in the

"Mr. Blaine speakes of his dear little grand son in several places. Why, do you know he never offered to pay so much as that poor child's milk bills? He's worse than his wife. He is a regular snake in the grass.

FATHER DUCEY EXPLAINS.

Received Permission from Archbishop Corriguo to Marry Blaine.

NEW YORK, March 1 .- The Rev. Thos. J. Ducey, paster of St. Lac's Catholic Church, whom Secretary Blaine in his statement criticized for having married James G. Blaine, jr., and Marie Nevius, left town yesterday. Before he went away he had something to say in reply to Mr. Blaine.

"Mr. Blaine says I transgressed my "Mr. Blaine says I transgressed by priestly duties in marrying his son," said Father Ducey. "What I did I did with the knowledge and approval of Archbishop Corrigan. The dispensation was obtained from the Archbishop, who knew all the circumstances. "Mr. Blaine's son told me he was 21 years old. How was I to know he was only 18? Mr. Blaine should prefer his complaint to the Archbishop, not to me."

Archbishop Corrigan delegated his secretary, Mgr. McDonnell, to reply to Father Ducey's statement.

"I am surprised," said Mr. McDonnell, "that Father Ducey tries to shield himself by drawing the Archbishop in the matter. All that the Archbishop in the downth the marriage was to issue the dispensation. Father Ducay came to the Archbishop's house with young Mr. Bialne and Miss Nevins. He explained the situation. The Archbishop was reluctant to grant a dispensation. He talked to the young couple for more than an hour, but he could not dissuade them from their purpose. The young man said that as he lacked but a few weeks of being 21, there could be no objection on the score of age. The Archbishop told young Mr. Blaine that as a jection on the score of age. The A. bishop told young Mr. Blaine that on count of the conspicuous position of his father he should be careful not to do any-thing that might interfere with his father's plans. The young man was persistent, and on Father Ducey's re-commendation the dispensation was granted."

Father Ducey's Letter.

Washington, March 1.—Secretary Blaine was taked if he would furnish for publication the letter of Father for publication the latter of Father Duccy in answer to the one contained in his, Blaine's, statement, as suggested by the Reverend Father. Mr. Blaine replied that he had no offiction to the publication of the priest's letter, but that he would not give it out himself. It was the priest's place to publish it. He added, easonly, that the letter did not smount to anything.

50 CENTS.

No book, excepting the Bible, has ever had such a sale in the United States as General Grant's Memoirs. 650,000 copies have already gone into the homes of the rich, but the subscription price of $7.00 has placed it beyond the reach of people in moderate circumstances. If 650,000 people have been willing to pay $7.00 for Grant's Memoirs, there must be a couple of million people in the United States who want them, and will jump at the opportunity to buy them at the low figure here offered.

We will send you General Grant's Memoirs, publishers' original edition, best paper, cloth, green and gold binding, hitherto sold by subscription at $7.00.
