The Storm.

March came in like a full-blooded, furious lion and brought with it the heaviest fall of snow we have had this year. The roads are in pretty bad condition and traveling on foot is about as miserable as it is possible could be. The majority of people seem content to put up with the situation. They accept the stormy beginning as an indication of an early spring.

An Important Difference.

To make it apparent to thousands, who think them-elves ill, that they are not affected with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a coactive condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

A Clergyman's Opinion.—Having had an opportunity to test the excellent qualities of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, I hesitate not to say, it is the best remedy I have ever used in my family.

TIRED OF WAITING.

Mrs. Pierce's Husband Failed to Provide a Home For Her.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., March 1.—An action for divorce has been commenced by Mrs. Viola Pierce against her husband, George Pierce, of Highland Falls.

The couple were married at Highland Falls in 1883, and at the time the marriage caused a sensation in the social circles of Orange County. The bride was very beautiful and of a prominent family, while the groom was popular and well known around the neighborhood. The marriage was a secret one.

Before the honeymoon was over Pierce went to Kingston to provide a home for his bride. Months passed, but the bride never got a glimpse at the promised domicile. Then Mrs. Pierce went to South Norwalk, Ct., refusing to have anything more to do with her husband. He followed her, however, and induced her to return to her mother at Highland Falls.

Pierce made plenty of promises and for a time all went smooth. Trouble soon broke out again and Mrs. Pierce took another trip to South Norwalk. Pierce followed her, and after remaining there a few days, returned to Dutchess County and began proceedings for divorce on the statutory grounds. One O'Donnell was named as co-respondent. The notice was served by publication. This angered Mrs. Pierce and she immediately engaged a lawyer to begin a counter suit for divorce.

The first hearing was had a few weeks ago and Pierce was ordered to pay counsel fees and a weekly allowance, pending a settlement of the case. Pierce made one payment and then withdrew his suit.

TO ESCAPE MARCH WINDS.

Jay Gould Leaves New York on an Extensive Journey.

NEW YORK, March 1.—Two carriages drew up at the house of Jay Gould yesterday, and shortly afterward Mr. Gould appeared at the door leaning on the arm of Dr. Mann. Miss Helen Gould and her younger brother Howard came behind them, and the quartet entered the first carriage, Miss Gould's maid and several pieces of baggage were placed in the second carriage, and both vehicles were driven rapidly toward the ferry for Jersey City.

Arrived at Jersey City, the party went on board Mr. Gould's private car Atlanta, which had been provisioned and fitted up for an extensive journey. The car was attached to the Congressional Limited train, which left for Washington.

Mr. Gould's appearance when he came out of his door betokened weakness. His face looked drawn, and he seemed to have grown grayer than when last seen on the street. He showed many evidences of his illness.

It was said that that the party would make Washington their first stopping place. It was also said that Mr. Gould's object was to escape the March winds, which are so procreative of his old malady, neuralgia.

Ryan-Needham Fight Off.

NEW ORLEANS, March 1.—Half an hour before the men were due in the ring it was announced that the fight between Ryan and Needham would be postponed. Ryan being ill with tonsillitis and fever. He was, however, seen on the streets an hour before the announced time of the fight. This is the second time that Ryan has pleaded some complaint as an excuse for not fighting. The visiting sports are wild at his action. Needham announces that he will never give Ryan a chance to meet him again.
