LIKE A WILD MAN

Dr. Scudder Either Insane or Shamming.

SAYS PROPLE PURSUE HIM.

The Hospital Attendants Do Not Be lieve He is Crazy.

In His Calm Moments He Declares Re Committed No Murder-The Rev. John L. Sendder, of Jersey City, a Brother, Believes Harry is Iusane-He Says His Father Wrote Him Two Week's Age That His Brother's Mind Was Affected.

CHICAGO, March 5.-Dr. Henry M. Scuider is either insane or giving a clever imitation of insanity.

The attendants at the detention hospital take the latter view of it. When a reporter stood at the door of Dr. Sendder's cell the man raved and spoke of people who were pursuing him, and sprang at the bars like a wild man. In calmer moments he declared he had com-In mitted no murder.

"Murder!" he screamed. "It's a damnable lie! I know nothing about it. Oh, yes, I believe that they did say something about it, but I was too sick to pay any attention to it."

When he became more rational he said: "It is preposterons. Do you said: "It is preposterons. Do you think I would kill an old woman who had only a few months to live at best? Rot and non-sense!"

Then the doctor grew wild. Making a spring at the grated door, he yelled: "You look like the man that came sneaking around and peered through the window at me last night. He was a the window at the hist hight. He was a field. All night long he peered and smirked at me. You are he, and have come to tornent ms. Go away!"
All further efforts at conversation were fruitless. The attendant in charge of Dr. Scudder declares that the man is shamming and not doing it well, either. The Rev. John L. Scudder, brother of the accused man was seen at his home, 311 Varick Street, Jersey City. He had just received a despatch from another brother, the Rev. Doremus Scudder of Chicago which read : "We believe Harry insans. Put no cre-

"We believe Harry insans. Put no cre-dence in press statements."

"Of course my brother is insane," said Mr. Scudder, "that is, if he did this horrible thing at all. We know nothing definite about it except what the papers say, but I cannot believe that any sane man would attempt to murder anyone with a man in the next room and a ser-vant expected any moment. Since my vant expected any moment. Since my brother's return from India, eight years ago, he has been a physical wreck, and he has always been inclined to brood over any thing that worrified him. He has recently lost his place as medical ex-aminer for two insurance companies in Chicago, and my idea is that he worried Chicago, and my idea is that he worried about the financial loss until he conceived this plan, granting, of course that he did kill Mrs. Dunton. My father wrote me two weeks ago that Henry's mind seemed to be slightly affected. Some of the papers say there was bad feeling between Mr. Dunton and my brother. This is false. They were the best of friends."

Mr. Schidder also said that there was insanity in the Schidder family, his uncle, Joseph Schidder, having died insane.

sane. An aunt of his father, he said, had also died insane.

The Rev. Mr. Scudder, Henry M. Scudder's father, was for nearly 12 years pastor of the Central Congregational Church in Brooklyn. He left Brooklyn for Chicago in 1884 and has frequently visited Brooklyn.

It is about a year since he made his last appearance in his Brooklyn pulpit. The books of the Long Island College Hospital show that his son graduated in 1874, and it is supposed that he married while still a student at the hospital. None of the old professors or instructors of that period is now attached to that of that period is now attached to that institution.
