LOCALETTES.

Moonlight. Mud and slush. The snow is going rapidly. Full moon on Sunday. Look out for storms this month. Moving day is rapidly approaching. The country sales have commenced. March is a hard month for sickly people.

In a few more weeks the shad season will open.

Society will take a rest during the Lenten season.

The ground hog's reign will soon expire and then spring.

The HERALD circulation is constantly mounting upwards.

Railway trains do not wait until the first of April to move.

It is not always the 7-foot man who has the towering intellect.

When a chapple loses his head nobody notices any change in him.

If March didn't come in like a herd of lions, then what were they?

March came in like a lion. May the lamb soon appear on the scene.

The man who wears a broad necktie doesn't always have a dirty shirt on.

None but the brave deserve the fair and none but the brave can live with some of them.

Those who have had an opportunity to find out, say the country roads are in pretty bad shape.

Nine tailors make a man sometimes, then again all the tailors in the world can not make a man—pay his bill.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all, eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store, regular size, 50c. and $1.00.

The proprietors of Pan-Tina have spent thousands of dollars to make it known that it cures Coughs, Colds and La Grippe. Trial bottles of Pan-Tina free at P. P. D. Kirlin's drug store.

Coming Events.

March 16—Grand entertainment in Robbins' opera house under the auspices of U. S. Grant Lodge No. 28, A. P. A.

March 17—Welsh Congregational church tea party in P. M. hall.

April 21—Margaret Tea, Robbins' Hall; under the auspices of Lydia Degree Lodge, No. 112, I. O. O. F.

"All worn out" is the expression of the sleepless sufferer with that terrible cough. Pan-Tina puts a stop to it. It's a remedy for Coughs, Colds and Consumption. 25-cent Pan-Tina is sold at P. P. D. Kirlin's drug store.

"Daniel Boone."

Lovers of fine music should not miss hearing this now famous band on parade next Monday as well as their concert at night. This is now acknowledged to be the finest of all traveling bands. It is composed of fifteen of the best musicians obtainable, each man being a solo player, and the programme they offer at their nightly concerts is a big one. Every effort has been made by Peck & Fursman to have this the crack organization of its size in America, and it is evident that they have succeeded. The latest and best music is constantly being rehearsed by them under the leadership of a competent band master, who has special arrangements made for this band. The orchestra attached to this company is also a very fine one, producing the latest operatic selections and closing the performance with the national "Star Spangled Banner."—Boston Globe. "Daniel Boone" will be produced at Ferguson's theatre this evening.

An Important Difference.

To make it apparent to thousands, who think themselves ill, that they are not affected with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a coactive condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

A Marked Improvement.

No exchange is welcomed to our tables more eagerly than Frank Leslie's Illustrated Weekly. It is this week all the improvements which have been gradually taking place in its pages. In make-up and pictures it ranks not only with the best American weeklies, but with the foreign ones as well. It does good woman's service in the Republican cause when it prints such an excellent cartoon as the one showing the Tammany tiger on top of the Democratic mule, being ridden by the clever Senator, David B. Hill, of New York. This week's issue illustrates the magnificent hotel building on Fifty-ninth street and Fifth avenue, New York; a spirited scene of a stag hunt in the North Woods; a story entitled "A Commonplace History," and gives a picture of the negroes on their way to Liberia who were stranded in New York. But the most interesting thing in the paper is the contribution by Captain B. Kelso Carter on the coming transformation of the earth, written in a popular style, the first of a series to be presented, which will be interesting alike to clergymen and laymen. Price, ten cents.

Prompt Payment.

To the officers of the Home Friendly Society of Baltimore, Md:

GENTLEMEN:—We hereby return our thanks this day for the promptness with which we were protected in the face of poverty, caused by the death of our beloved mother, Harriet Yarnell, for which we received in full this day, through your officers and agent, David T. Williams, the sum of seventy dollars ($70.) We cannot speak highly as we wish to recommend this company before the public for its promptness in assisting the needy in time of distress. Therefore we advise all families to have protection by enrolling their names with this company. THE CHILDREN, 4-5 St. 28 W. Centre St., Shenandoah.

"Tribune Almanac."

The Tribune Almanac for 1892, just out, is a wonderful book. We can hardly spare the space to enumerate the whole list of contents of this admirable volume of reference. Our readers can send to The Tribune for a circular giving them full information, and we advise them to follow this course, if they are in doubt. They can be sure, however, that The Almanac contains all the statistical information they are likely to want, including some specially valuable new features. The country is discussing currency questions now, and The Tribune gives in this Almanac two tables of immediate interest. One is the coinage of the U. S. for every year since 1795. The other is the circulating medium of each kind and the total amount per capita for each year since 1860. There is a Perpetual Calendar, copyrighted, of great value; and a great mass of other exceedingly useful tables and statements. The great Tribune Almanac for 1891 had an enormous sale. The book for 1892 is likely to do even better. Price 25 cents.

A Pleasant Affair.

Good Looks.

Good looks are more than skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the Liver be inactive, you have a Bilious Look, if your stomach be disordered you have a Dyspeptic look and if your Kidneys be affected you have a pined look. Secure good health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is the great alternative and Tonic acts directly on these vital organs. Cures Pimples, Blisters, Boils and gives a good complexion. Sold at C. H. Hagenbuch's Drug Store, 50c. per bottle.
