We think Archibald Belsazzar Lamb's boomerang will prove harmless.

The Hazleton Sentinel says: "The sentiment of the people in this section is turning toward Judge Sadler, of Carlisle, as the best candidate for Supreme Judge. He has the ability necessary and a good clean record beside. He would be a worthy addition to the Supreme Court. His candidacy is gaining ground daily and his chances for nomination are the brightest if the wishes of the people count."

MR. LAMB has our sympathy. The indignation of the Republican voters of town will cause the Dictator many sleepless nights.

THE petitions circulated yesterday by the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad system for the signatures of citizens resident along its line have already called forth thousands of cheerful responses. The citizens are a unit in the belief with the company that it is essential for the benefit of all concerned that Governor Pattison have the investigation of the recent "deal" pushed as rapidly as possible.

THE HERALD feels quite jubilant to-day. We trust Mr. Lamb can say as much.

It is probable that Oregon and the Northwest generally will like this parsimonious, cheese-paring, humbug-economy Congress a good deal less than they liked the billion-dollar Congress that has been the subject of so much Democratic obloquy. By the way, there would have been no billion-dollar Congress had it not been for the ten-billion-dollar Democratic rebellion. The annual charges on account of that rebellion still exceed

THE Philadelphia Inquirer was three years old on Thursday, and has good grounds for crowing. The progress of the Inquirer since its rejuvenation has been steadily onward, and to-day it is a paper of which its many readers may well feel proud. Here's congratulations for the past and best wishes for a long and prosperous future.

IN IT?
 We are.
 Feel's d?
 We do not.
 Are we content?
 You bet. We rested nicely. We didn't have anybody chop off the tough end of our oath; but all we got digested.

THE Democrats of town say the new election law will be advantageous to them. If they haven't received a good start it is no fault of the Republican—Democrat-o of the Lambrian-o—James-o—Gabeles-i-o. By jo!

ON that memorable occasion—not many months before the Third ward Democratic primary was held—there appeared an omen. Amen!

THE appointees of the new Council are all right, so far as we know. Those who have been retained have made good records and we hope the new ones will do likewise. It is not the tail we find fault with, but the thing that wags the tail.

IF Oliver Wendell Holmes had been at the Council meeting last night he would have said to some:
 And if I should live to be
 The last leaf upon the tree
 In the Spring,
 Let them write as I do now
 At the old forsaken bough
 Where I cling.

MR. FRANEY was cordial in his congratulations of some of the new borough officials last night. "She went through without a crack," said he. And Mr. Lamb was not present to enjoy the enthusiasm of the occasion.

THE COUNCIL IS ORGANIZED.

THREE CHANGES MADE IN THE POLICE FORCE.

THE DEMOCRATS MAKE A HAUL.

Coakley Elected Clerk, Bradigan Treasurer and McGuire Supervisor—Amour, Connors and Phalen off the Force.

UNNING FOR local political appointments is at an end. The Borough Council has decided. The officials to be elected have been carried away and the people will now look for the performance of work for which they elected the Councilmen. The campaign just closed has been the hottest fought in the borough for many years and never before did the clouds of uncertainty gather so thick about the organization of Council and the appointment of supervisor, police and other officials. It is not surprising that so many people have within the past two or three weeks expressed the opinion that it is time the borough have some other form of government by which the affairs of the place will not be brought to a standstill to give the officials time to put up fences and secure berths for themselves, relatives and friends. The Councilmen were thronged with spectators last night so that there was barely room for the officials, and it was only by strict orders that the onlookers were kept from crawling over the railing into the part of the room reserved for the Councilmen and reporters.

The meeting was called for 7 o'clock, but the tardiness of Councilman Van Dusen delayed business for forty minutes.

After the old Council was declared adjourned sine die, Lamb was made temporary chairman on motion of Coakley. James was made temporary secretary.

William McGuire, R. W. Stout and E. F. Gallagher, the new Councilmen, and A. B. Lamb and A. D. Gable, the re-elected members, were sworn in by Chief Burgess Smith, after which Borough Auditor O'Hearn and High Constable Flynn took the oath.

Nominations being declared in order, Van Dusen nominated James for permanent chairman. Amour nominated Hopkins, and the former was elected by a vote of 8 to 7.

McGuire, who had been reported during the afternoon as having deserted the Lamb-Gable-James combine, voted for James, an indication that he had made up his mind to dump the other combine and jump back to the first one he was interested in. If his change of heart surprised any of the Councilmen they did not give any indications of it. There was a smile or two, and that was all.

The vote taken on the elections were open, but upon the suggestion of Scheiffy two tellers were appointed to count ballots if any should be cast. None were cast, however, except in cases where there was no opposition and then Van Dusen was authorized to cast one.

For secretary McGuire nominated T. Coakley, a brother of Councilman Coakley, and Devers nominated Squire Carden. The former was elected by a vote of 8 to 7. Stout nominated T. F. Bradigan for treasurer and Holman nominated Frank C. Reese. Bradigan won by a vote of 8 to 7.

Gallagher nominated J. H. Pomeroy, Esq., for Borough Solicitor and he was elected without opposition.

Coakley returned the compliment paid him on the secretaryship by McGuire by nominating the latter's brother, Martin, for supervisor. Scheiffy named D. H. Llewellyn, after stating that he made the best supervisor the past year the borough had. McGuire was elected by a vote of 8 to 7.

Then came the selection of police. It was settled very soon. Basteridge nominated Jacob Davis and Hopkins nominated Richard Amour. Davis was elected by a vote of 8 to 7.

Edward S. Williams had no opposition for 1st lieutenant.
 For 2nd lieutenant Van Dusen named George Holvey and Hopkins named D. J. Connors. Holvey got there by 8 to 7.
 Gable then named James Tompest for patrolman and Amour named Phalen. Tompest benefited by 8 to 7.
 McGuire then closed the elections by naming John McGrail for patrolman and McGrail had no opposition.

Council then adjourned.
 In all cases during the elections where the vote stood 8 to 7 the eight men were: Lamb, James, Gable, Van Dusen, McGuire, Coakley, Stout and Basteridge. The seven men were: Hopkins, Amour, Holman, Scheiffy, Phalen, Devers and Gallagher.
 The heads chopped off by the elections were: Warren J. Porta, Clerk; D. H. Llewellyn, Supervisor; Chief of Police, Richard Amour and Policemen D. J. Connors and James Phalen.

The following table shows the name of each candidate and the members who voted for them, the "I" denoting the voters:
