

TO MAKE A MATCH

Sullivan Will Cover Corbett's Money.

CORBETT'S TERMS AGREABLE

Wakely, John L.'s Backer to Post $2,500 To-Day.

Prospects Bright for a Battle in August Before the Club Offering the Largest Purse—Wakely Says That Sullivan Will Whip Corbett Easily—The Big Fellow Would Rather Meet Mitchell.

New York, March 10.—The champion pugilist of the world, John L. Sullivan, means business, that is certain. There is not a particle of "bluffing" about him. A battle between him and James J. Corbett is now assured. Sullivan says he is sorry that Mitchell does not show the willingness to meet him that Corbett has. Corbett, when he heard of Sullivan's sweeping challenge, through his manager, W. A. Brady, posted $1,000 as a guarantee of his sincerity to make a match. This was done on Monday.

No sooner did John L. learn of this than he immediately telegraphed one of his backers, Charles Johnson, of Brooklyn, who is now at Hot Springs, Ark., to cover the forfeit, and to notify Corbett's backers that he would fight him the latter part of August or early in September. Johnson immediately sent word to Jimmy Wakely to cover Corbett's $1,000 and to post $1,500 more, in pursuance of Corbett's conditions that the champion must post that much more to show that he meant business.

Wakely received his instructions from Johnson yesterday afternoon. "I will put $2,500 to-morrow afternoon," he said last night. "Sullivan will agree to Corbett's condition to fight before the club giving the largest purse, before the California Athletic Club, and an outside bet of $10,000.

Corbett will at once post $1,500 in addition to his $1,000 already up, which he said he would do the instant Sullivan showed that he would fight him. The remaining $7,500 will be posted by the backers of each in such instalments as they may agree upon.

Now that John L. will meet Corbett the latter will go into training immediately at Belfast under the watchful eye of Muldoon.

THE RUMOR NOT TRUE.

That a Hartford Detective is Married to Miss Atkins.

New York, March 10.—On the steampassenger list of the White Star steampship Teutonic, from Liverpool yesterday, were the names of Mrs. H. W. Atkins, Miss F. Atkins and W. C. Fielding. In Hartford, Conn., about a year ago Miss Atkins, then the wife of Arthur L. Rood, a wealthy resident of Hartford, brought suit for a divorce.

Fielding, a Hartford detective, was employed previous to the suit to shadow Mr. Rood, and it was partly upon his evidence that the divorce was granted. Mrs. Rood resumed her maiden name of Atkins, and when her mother and when her mother and she departed for Europe five months ago accompanied by Detective Fielding it was rumored that Miss Atkins and he were married. The detective denied this emphatically yesterday.

The complete returns give the Conservatives 53 and the Liberals 20. The latter, with one or two exceptions, denounced Mercier from the hustings. In the last Parliament Mercier had a majority of 37.

FLOGGED BY A PRIEST.

The Victim Had Imposed on the Reverend Father's Generosity.

BROCKTON, Mass., March 10.—Father McDrail of St. Patrick's Church created a sensation on Elliott street by publicly horsewhipping a man who had imposed upon his charity.

The victim of the whipping, whose name is not made public, borrowed money from the reverend gentleman on the plea that he wished to send it to his suffering family in Ireland. Instead of using it for this purpose, however, the man spent the money in supporting his mistress.

The priest was very angry when he learned of how he had been deceived and when he met him on the street he was prepared for the second and gave him a severe whipping.

NEW YORK, March 10.—There was a handful of persons present at one o'clock yesterday when the third day's journey was begun. At that time, Ashinger, Lamb, Lumsden and Martin were on exactly even terms, with leading a few laps behind and Schock about a mile in Reading's rear. Soon after the start Lamb broke a pedal and lost a lap. He made a "kick" which lasted the entire afternoon and finally resulted in his being placed on the same plane again with the leaders. The attendance last night was fair. The score at 12:30 clock this morning was as follows: Ashinger, 533 miles, 8 laps; Martin 533 miles, 5 laps; Lumsden, 523 miles, 6 laps; Lamb, 523 miles, 5 laps; Reading, 523 miles, 4 laps; Schock, 513 miles, 7 laps; and Stage, 483 miles and 1 lap.

Harmony, who had been drinking hard of late, suddenly became insane yesterday morning, and getting some oil, he poured it over his sleeping wife. He then dragged her to a stove in order to set her oil-saturated clothing on fire. Her screams brought assistance, and she was rescued just in time. Harmony then grabbed up his little son and rushed across the street to his father's house with him. He excitedly told them to care for the child, then drew a knife and hid his throat from ear to ear. He died in a few minutes.

The colored Amazons are entrenched in the church and parsonage, and bid defiance to the combined forces of the opposing faction and the law.
