

DON'T MISS IT.

A mistake would be disastrous to this fair creature. Let us hope that all the ladies of Shenandoah may not miss a secure footing, and that they may escape the perils that surround them by reading Smith & Swingle's opening announcement. Don't miss it.

GRAND OPENING DAY! OF THE READY-PAY STORE!

DON'T MISS THE OPENING.

This elegant counterpart of the illustrious M-Ginty is about to exemplify the proverb, "Pride goeth before a fall." Note the great fall of prices we are offering in this advertisement. It is the great opportunity ever offered to the people of this section. Don't miss the opening.

Gents' Furnishing Goods.

A Cheerful Home.

"Well, Mary, how cheerful your home is. You always have such a cheerful fire." "Yes, it's true; we always have a good fire since we got our coal from Zeiss & Co.'s Mountain Colliery. Before we always had such a time getting a fire in the morning. That made us all cross and crabbed; but now everything is lovely. And, besides, it is cheaper. Mary Shoemaker takes orders, does the collecting and delivering."

LOCALETTES.

Full streams. The snow is going. Beautiful moonlight evenings. Lenten days are moving along. Now the cry is "terrible roads." The spring equinox in about two weeks. The March moon will be full on Sunday. A pint of rye often causes a peck of riot. Soon time to put the garden tools in order. The correct thing is to go slow these fast days. Winter is giving the lap of spring a terrible chill. March snows are said to be good for the crops and sore eyes. "Time's up," said the workman, as he fixed the hanging clock. There ought to be a general fixing up of the sidewalks this spring. There hasn't been much blow about March yet, but it will get here. In swell society a full purse frequently hides the deficiency of an empty head. Red shoes for children are to be a summer fashion. How cool they will look. When a woman rises to terminate a visit she has more to say than during her whole stay. The Easter bonnet will run the risk of being drenched by April showers, as it will come late in that month. The fellow who believes that it is cheaper to move than pay rent, is now looking up a new location. You will usually find it the case that the man who has the most irons in the fire has a wife who has to furnish the kindlings.

A Corner in Hats. Some hats are neither worth throwing nor taking out of a corner. A good hat is light, durable, stylish and a pleasure to the wearer; a bad hat isn't worth powder enough to blow it into perfdition. Good hats are no more expensive than bad ones, but bad hats are expensive at any price and sensible men wouldn't be paid to wear them. Our $2 hat is a perfect gem, and there is no reason to be without one at this low figure. The same is true of our $2 Neckwear and Suspenders. Good shirts from $1 up to $2. All the newest things in gents' underwear, collars and cuffs. Everything at rock bottom price. SCANLAN, 19 South Main St., Shenandoah.
