In less than two weeks old Sol will cross the line. He slipped across last year like a zephyr, but there is no counting on him continuing to play the lamb role.

The Mugwump finds himself in an uncomfortably vacillating frame of mind these days, as the question whether free trade or free silver shall be made the foremost issue varies in the Democratic party. With free trade to the front, the Mugwump loves the Democracy. With free silver to the front, he hates it. Meantime no one loves the Mugwump.

There is no more intensely American and native element of the population than the farming element. When they go into the market they would prefer to buy an article of American production simply because it is American. They are untainted with the foppish folly of some of the dwellers in cities that makes even an article of home production sell better with a foreign trade mark on it. They are imbued with a patriotic pride of country that leads them to prefer the home-made article. Herein lies the strength of the protective policy with the farmers.

Two years ago Carlisle and other Democratic leaders worked their brains vigorously trying to devise some means by which they could get Speaker Reed's doctrine as to counting a quorum before a Supreme Court for prompt decision. They failed to conceive any such scheme, and they ought to feel glad of it now. The Supreme Court has at last got round to the matter and has decided by unanimous vote, the Democratic justices concurring, that the Republicans were right, and the rule as to counting a quorum is valid in every respect. If such a ruling had been announced while the Democrats were still howling tyranny, oppression, czarism they would have been caught in a doubly ludicrous plight. Cheap and foolish as they must feel now they ought to be thankful that they had two years to cool off and the country the same length of time in which to let the matter fade away before the decision of the Supreme Court was announced.

WHAT wonderful progress New York is making in raising the fund to build the Grant monument! The total contributions last year footed up $15,000, of which the secretary gobbled $5,000 for salary, and several hundred more went for expenses. It would seem that the principal use made of the dead hero is to furnish some gentleman of leisurely inclinations a fat berth for an indefinite period.

REPUBLICAN

In 1890, during November the exports of builders' hardware, saws and tools from the United States to Cuba amounted in value to $20,234.

In 1891, under Republican reciprocity, during the corresponding month, our exports of such articles to that country amounted in value to $36,856.

This increase of $16,622, or 82 per cent, was due to Republican reciprocity.

There is a probability of a new and high distinction coming to an earnest member of the Grand Army of the Republic. It is believed that the Pope intends to shortly raise Archbishop Ireland to the dignity of a Prince of the Church—a Cardinal. The Archbishop was a faithful and much beloved Chaplain to two Minnesota regiments, and showed much courage in doing his duty on the field of battle. The members of the Department of Minnesota esteem him very highly, and he is always zealous for the interests of the order. He is now in Rome and the Moniteur di Roma, an organ of the Vatican, recently had a long article eulogizing him, and defending him against the attacks of the Italian, German and Austrian papers.

A BRILLIANT SOCIAL EVENT.

ROBBINS' OPERA HOUSE A SCENE OF SPLENDOR.

A GRAND LEAP YEAR ASSEMBLY.

The R. and Y. Carnation Club Entertain Their Guests—A Splendid Success in Every Respect—The Attendants.

Last night's Leap Year Assembly of the R. and Y. Carnation Club, in Robbins' opera house, was a grand social event. Upwards of eighty couples were present and all expressed themselves as highly pleased with the affair.

The hall was magnificently decorated for the occasion. Lace curtains, lambrèques, flags of all sizes, bunting and Japanese ornaments hung in profusion and were displayed to excellent advantage by the electric lights. Floral ornamentations were also conspicuous. Regs were plentiful on the borders of the dancing floors and two corners of the space were handsomely arranged for picturesque effect and solid comfort with the aid of rugs, robes, easy chairs and beautiful lamps. The arrangement of the hall reflected much credit upon the committee of the club and the patronesses.

The committee consisted of Misses Nellie Finney, Mame Williams, Naomi Wooden, Nellie Evans and Katie Burkhardt. The patronesses were Mrs. John P. Williams, Mrs. J. F. Finney, Mrs. F. J. Portz and Mrs. Fred. Burkhardt, and to them the committee is indebted for invaluable services.

The number of attendants from out of town places was large, but all were well provided for and voted the hospitality extended them first-class.

The excellent and famous Schoppe orchestra furnished the music for the dancing, and excellent music it was too. There are two things on which Shenandoah can justly pride itself—the Grand Band and Schoppe orchestra.

The floor, which had been waxed expressly for the occasion, was well lit for every dance, and the whole programme was carried out to the end without a marvellous feature. All seemed to appreciate and enjoy the spirit of the occasion.

Tables were arranged on the stage for supper, and an excellent supper it was. The spread was bountiful and wholesome, and not one left it dissatisfied.

The balcony reserved for spectators was crowded during the evening, and the expressions upon the faces of those who viewed the sight below were in themselves evidences of complete success.

The ladies in attendance on the floor were:

Misses Blanche Rich and Dollie Wythe, Ashland; Maud Johns, Mt. Carmel; Emma Newman, Russell and Smith, Pottsville; Emma Engle, Fountain Springs; Laura Swartz, Park Place; Minnie Glover, Dudley, N. Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved. From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all, eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store, regular size, 50c, and $1.00.

POLISH JUSTICE WANTED.

An Appeal for the Poles and Hungarians.

EDITOR HERALD:—There is too much opposition on our foreign population. Every time a Pole or Hungarian steals a watch he is arrested and dragged before a 'quire. If he cannot pay the costs and settle the case he is dragged down to Pottsville jail and scores of witnesses who know little or nothing about the case are compelled to attend court day after day to serve as witnesses. Whether the man is convicted or acquitted he is put to great expense to pay the 'quire and officers, who wax rich on the cases. Add to these expenses the regular costs of the court and think of the imposition upon those unfortunate, while other nationalities can commit worse crimes and escape. Fortunately, but a few of our 'quires are engaged in this dirty business. They would show common sense if they would try to settle these petty cases, and would save the people much annoyance and the county considerable expense. It is these petty things that keep the three judges at Pottsville busy.

To remedy this evil I suggest the election of an educated and practical Pole or Hungarian as Justice of the Peace, one who will give better care to the interests of the Poles and Hungarians and be able to speak to and treat with them intelligently. He could save thousands of dollars for them and have it spent in a legitimate way in town.

The Poles and Hungarians have come here to stay. They are buying property in the town and are investing in its enterprises, and those who are raising families are sending their children to the public schools to be educated and become good citizens, but many of them are held back in the exercise of this spirit by the constant imposition of these petty law suits.

A Polish Justice of the Peace would soon do away with this evil, and a few of our American (?) and humane (?) justices would then be forced to act more legitimately. AN AMERICAN POLE. Shenandoah, March 11, 1892.
