

DON'T MISS IT.

A mistake would be disastrous to this fair creature. Let us hope that all the ladies of Shenandoah may not miss a secure footing, and that they may escape the perils that surround them by reading Smith & Swingle's opening announcement. Don't miss it.

A Cheerful Home.

"Well, Mary, how cheerful your home is. You always have such a cheerful fire." "Yes, the true, we always have a good fire since we got our coal from Zebe & Co.'s Shooting Gallery. Before we always had such a fire getting a fire in the morning. That made us all cross and crabbed; but now everything is all right. And, besides, it is cheaper. Mrs. Sherman takes orders, does the collecting and delivering."

LOCALETTES.

Winter is waning. A third of March gone. Dandelion time is nearly here. The black birds are coming again. Shenandoah ought to make a push for new industries.

The lazy man hits at nothing and generally hits it.

In a few weeks more spring fever will be appearing.

When expert witnesses disagree it is no wonder the jury decides it.

Late hours are said to tell on the face, and yet the face of the moon looks pretty bright usually.

A Corner in Hats.

Some hats are neither worth throwing nor taking out of a corner. A good hat is light, durable, stylish and a pleasure to the wearer; a bad hat isn't worth powder enough to blow it into rebellion. Good hats are no more expensive than bad ones, but bad hats are expensive at any price and sensible men couldn't be paid to wear them. Our $2 hat is a perfect gem, and there is no reason to be without one at this low figure. The same is true of our $2 Neckwear and Suspenders. Good shirts from 25c up to $2. All the newest things in pants, underswear, collars and cuffs. Everything at rock bottom price.
