

THE SILVER DEBATE

An Exciting Meeting Expected in the House.

THREE DAYS DEVOTED TO BILL.

The Arrangement Made Not to Filibuster Is Of

Mr. Harter, of Ohio, Was Willing to State the Promise, but Messrs. Tracy and Williams, the Leaders of the Democratic Anti-Silver Men Would Not be Bound—Proceedings in the Senate During the Coming Week.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—This week will probably be the most exciting of the present session of Congress, so far as the silver debate will begin, and a vote is now expected to be reached on Thursday. To-day is a suspension day, and it is supposed that several important bills will be passed under the two-thirds rule.

To-morrow, Wednesday and Thursday will be devoted to the consideration of the Bland-Flaun Coinage Silver bill—on these days the House will meet at 11 o'clock, with a recess from 5 until 8 and adjourn at 10 p. m. unless a change in the programme occurs. Friday private bills will be considered as usual, and on Saturday the private pension bills passed last Friday night in Committee of the Whole will be put through the House under the order made Saturday week. The Free Wool bill will thus be sidetracked for over a week. This bill and other tariff measures will be taken up next week, however, and considered without interruption.

It is understood that the arrangement between the silver and anti-silver wings of the Democratic party by which in return for a promise of the anti-silver men not to filibuster against the Bland bill, the time was extended from three to five days, is off. As stated in these dispatches, Mr. Harter, of Ohio, was willing to make the promise, but Messrs. Tracy and Williams, who are in charge of the Democratic opposition to the bill, refused to be thus bound. The time is to be divided among the parties, so that the anti-silver Democrats and Republicans will have half between them. Representative Abner Taylor, of Illinois, has charge of the time for the Republicans. Mr. Tracy for the anti-silver Democrats and Mr. Bland for the silver men.

The pending special orders in the Senate are a bill for the repayment of the purchase money and fees paid on certain entries of public lands, which is opposed by Mr. Berry, of Arkansas, and has therefore been taken out of the morning hour so as to allow of more extended discussion than is permitted under the five-minute rule; and the resolution with regard to the refunding of the West Virginia direct tax, upon which Senator Morrill is anxious to speak.

It is not deemed probable, however, that the aged Senator from Vermont will be sufficiently recovered from his recent severe illness to be able to take the floor during the present week.

For to-morrow, Mr. Gibson, of Louisiana, has had assigned his bill for a permanent system of improvement of the Lower Mississippi, to extend over a series of years and to cost about fifteen millions of dollars.

To this plan Mr. Allison has given notice of an intention to move an amendment so as to take in the Upper Mississippi.

Mr. Dolph and Mr. Mitchell desire to follow this measure with bills for the improvement of the Columbia River, Oregon.

The Indian Appropriation bill and the District of Columbia Appropriation bill will be called up for the Senate's action during the week.

Found Drowned in the Passaic.

NEWARK, N. J., March 21.—The body of a woman was found in the Passaic River, half a mile below this city. It was lying on the shore among the meadow grass at a place called Brill Point. The woman was apparently 45 years old. She wore nothing but underclothing, which was of fine material. The identity of the woman is unknown.

Rick Statesmen Improving.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Secretary Blaine is improving, and it was said at his home that he was out yesterday for a short time. Dr. Bussey, the physician in attendance upon Senator Morrill, says that the Senator is still improving. Representative Springer continues to improve. Dr. Curtis, his physician, reports a rapid change for the better during the past three days.

First Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms.

DENVER, Col., March 21.—Mr. L. N. Stevens of this city has been appointed First Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms of the Republican National Convention to be held at Minneapolis next June. Mr. Stevens was formerly district-attorney of this country, and became known all over the country through his connection with the Graves murder case.

To Resume Work.

WICKESBURG, Pa., March 21.—The Mounton Iron and Steel Company of Danville, Pa., will resume work to-day, and will employ 400 men. The puddlers have agreed to accept the $8.50 basis. The families of the men who went on strike eight months ago are in a destitute condition.

A Prominent Justice Dead.

NYACK, N. Y. March 21.—Justice John Ryley died at Valley Cottage, Rockland county, yesterday morning after a three day's illness of pneumonia. He was for a long time a prominent Justice of the Peace in this county and enjoyed great personal popularity.

Proclamation in Odd Fellows.

TRENTON, N. J., March 21.—James W. Treachard, the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, has issued a proclamation calling on all lodges to appropriately celebrate the seventy-third anniversary of Odd Fellowship on the 28th of April.

Olomargazine Dealers Arrested.

PITTSBURGH, March 21.—Over 300 olomargazine dealers in Allegheny county were returned to court Saturday for violating the law, and at least 100 will be returned next week.

THE GERMAN CRISIS.

The Resignation of Caprivi Causes Intense Excitement.

BERLIN, March 21.—The impending Cabinet crisis and the startling reports regarding Emperor William's health are the all-absorbing topics of conversation throughout the German Empire. It is rumored that there is being considered a plan to bring the obstinate and fiery young ruler to reason, if not to restrain him to some degree in his headlong policy of government. A meeting of German Princes, it is said, will be called with this object.

Since the fall of Bismarck, two years ago, the political tension here has not been so intense as it was yesterday. From the elegant Miller's Unter den Linden to the bare cafes of Karl strasse, in the student's quarter, the one topic has been the action of Zedlitz and Caprivi. Last night the restaurants Unter den Linden were crowded with officers and politicians eagerly discussing the probable course of the absent Emperor. The general opinion is that Zedlitz will be allowed to go and Caprivi will be commanded to stay.

Bismarck Satisfied.

BERLIN, March 21.—While dining with the Burgomaster of Hamburg last evening, Prince Bismarck said: "Well, you see the Emperor is his own Chancellor again; Count Caprivi has retired."

HILL IN WASHINGTON.

The Senator Very Much Pleased With His Southern Trip.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Senator Hill has returned from his Southern trip. He arrived yesterday morning on the regular Richmond & Danville express. District-Attorney Ridgway of Brooklyn, and Assistant-Adjutant General McKwan of Albany, accompanied him. The party took a carriage and drove to the Arlington Hotel.

Senator Hill says that he had a most enjoyable trip. "As I said in several of my speeches," "I have gained an idea of the South and its needs. I made a great many speeches to very large crowds of people, and everywhere met an enthusiastic and cordial welcome."

Senator Hill has no plans for the immediate future. He expects to remain in Washington for some time attending to his duties in the Senate. He says that he has not accepted an invitation to address the Hill Club of St. Louis and probably will not be able to accept it.

A REMARKABLE FREAK.

An "Infant" 29 Years Old That Was Helpless Since Its Birth.

UPPER SANDUSKY, Ohio, March 21.—There died last night at Wharton, in the western part of this county, one of the most remarkable of creatures, an "infant" aged 29 years. The child, or young man, was the son of Austin Borden, and during all the years of his life was nothing more than a mere baby. It developed in no respect and died in its cradle. It could neither talk, walk nor crawl, and was as helpless when it reached manhood as the day it was born. Doctors were completely baffled and could do nothing, and for twenty-nine years its death has been patiently waited.

Disorderly Students.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 21.—A party of Yale men, bent on a lark, broke up the last act of "The Vendetta," at Tunnel's Grand Opera House. One of the students threw a snow ball, hitting one of the actors. Another missile of the same character struck Miss Frances Field, the leading lady of the company, and inflicted quite a severe blow, stunning her for a few moments. For a few minutes there was considerable excitement in the theatre, which was packed. Four of the disturbers were arrested for breach of the peace.

Cardinal Tascheran Congratulated.

QUERBEK, March 21.—Cardinal Tascheran is receiving the congratulations of the clergy and laymen of the diocese of Quebec on the occasion of the 23d anniversary of his elevation to the episcopate. The venerable cardinal is in excellent health despite his advanced years. It is said he will commemorate his anniversary by donating a considerable sum of money to Laval University to construct an observatory in place of the dome lately destroyed by fire.

Feather-Weights Matched.

CHICAGO, March 21.—Tommy White is in Chicago on a visit from Minneapolis. The clever feather-weight has been matched for an important engagement. Like Weir, the "Belfast Spider," has accepted Prof. Donaldson's terms and will fight ten rounds with White for a purse of $600. The contest will take place in the gymnasium of the Hennepin Club at Minneapolis on April 6.

The Whiskey Trust Case.

BOSTON, March 21.—It is believed that some important developments will be made in the Whiskey Trust cases during the coming week. James N. Veasey of Cincinnati, who is probably as well posted as any man in the United States as to the workings of the Whiskey Trust is at present stopping in this city, but refuses to be interviewed on the subject.

Tried to Sell Brian Born.

NEWARK, N. J., March 21.—Thomas Gilroy of Paterson tried to sell the race horse Brian Born to a horse dealer in this city for $100. The dealer's suspicious was aroused by the small price asked for the animal and he had Gilroy arrested. It was found later that the horse had been stolen.

The Gut-Rich-Quick Dupes.

NEWARK, N. J., March 21.—The claims of the dupes of the get-rich-quick National Customs Clothing and Merchandise Company have been filed with the county clerk. There are several hundred names on the lists, and the total of the amounts due them is $27,196.

An Expedition Suffers Defeat.

LOS ANGELES, March 21.—News from Sierra Leone is to the effect that the expedition to Yeombo, chief town of Simada, has suffered a severe defeat. Captain Robinson and a private were killed and all the officers and thirteen men were badly wounded.

Broke His Neck.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Stephen Knave, colored, while riding a spirited horse around the White House lot, south of the Executive Mansion, was thrown from the animal and, striking on his head, broke his neck.

A New Paper.

There was issued last week in Mahanoy City from the printing office owned by Mr. John Smith, a new publication, known as the American-Russian News. It is a five column, eight page paper, printed entirely in modern Greek. The heading, an elaborate decorative, has as a center piece an American eagle grasping an American flag and a Greek national symbol in its claws. On one side a farmer, unmistakably Russian in appearance, is plowing the earth, while on the other is a representation of a coal mine at work. The paper is the only Greek Catholic publication in America. It is the organ of the Greek Catholic Union, and is intended to educate the members of the society, in the requirements of American citizenship as well as to foster the interests of the Union.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loran Trecoott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four-years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a drench, all cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at C. H. Hagenbach's drug store.

A Surprise Party.

Miss Lizzie Sutton was tendered a surprise party Friday evening, at her residence on West Cherry street. Among the guests were Misses Laura Schwartz, Park Place; May and Lou Carter, Nellie Finney, Nellie Evans, Carrie Fulmer, Nellie Levine, Sadie Beesa, Daisy Hess, Katie and Lottie Burkhardt, Mary Pomeroy, Mabel Straup, Annie Stein, Mabel Glover, Nellie Jones and Miss Edith Fortner Central; and Messrs. Charles Miller, Reading; Frank Snyder, Thomas W. Wren and George Goodman, of Mahanoy City; Samuel Small, John Lewis, Wm. Penn; Guy Keiper, Ross Glover, Harry V. Hafner, William H. Hutton, H. M. Wastley, Charles Kirlin, Harry Cather and Grant Lessig.

A Very Marked Improvement.

Frank Leslie's Illustrated Weekly is improved in every respect. The character of the illustrations and the tone of the letter-press are such as to make this paper a household necessity. It speaks what is best for the country, and will be undoubtedly recognized as the great Republican illustrated weekly. The plan of giving illustrated stories and presenting the prominent news features of each week is most admirable. This week's issue contains striking character-sketches of the great speakers in the silver debate in Washington, a page of pictures showing the craze in mining stocks at Duluth, and an interesting series of pictures on the leading foreign events. Cut out this paragraph and send it to the Arkel Weekly Company, 110 Fifth Avenue, New York City, for a sample copy, which will be sent free.

The Inquest Ended.

The inquest in the case of John Merget, the policeman who was shot to death near Tamaqua last Wednesday morning, was concluded at Pottsville on Saturday. There were no new developments, nearly all the testimony relating to the capture of the three young robbers now in the county jail for the shooting. The verdict of the jury was: "That the said John Merget came to his death on March 16, 1892, while in the discharge of his duty as an officer, from a gun shot wound inflicted by one of the three captured on Pitch Mountain, who are now in the county jail."

It Hits the Mark.

That great colored weekly, Judge, always hits the mark. Its cartoons this week are as funny and clever as ever. If you are interested in politics and wish to see the funny side of every political question, now is the time to place your subscription. While Judge hits hard blows, they are never given with mean intention, and even if your politics do not agree with it, you will find it to be fair and honest in intention. In its sketches it surpasses all its rivals and gives more for the money than any of the comic weeklies.

Foresight!

The mine surveyor who has a good foresight and a desire to reach an elevation above the position of a mere mine surveyor, will make frequent objects, and combine with his knowledge of surveying a knowledge of mine ventilation, methods of mining, geology, mechanics, etc.

If he will take a back-sight he will think of many times when he would have been benefited by a knowledge of these subjects, and have been saved the humiliation of confessing his ignorance to a mining engineer.

It is his head is level he won't go off on a tangent because a friend calls his attention to this matter. On the contrary he will enquire "how can I learn these branches, and at the same time keep at work?" The answer is, Take a course in THE COLLIERY ENGINEER SCHOOL OF MINES.

Tuition is by correspondence, and the lesson papers sent to students are the text books. You can take the full course and not lose a day's time. One evening a week will suffice. You can take your own time, and you can begin at any time. The sooner you begin the better.

The day of mine surveyors is rapidly drawing to a close. Mining engineers are wanted, and if a man knows nothing but how to make a mine survey and put it, he is not going to rise. Whether you take a course or not it will pay you to send for free pamphlet giving full particulars, which will cost you nothing.

Address, THE COLLIERY ENGINEER CO., Scranton, Pa.
