the Confessed Her Guilt-A Remarbable State of Affairs Existed in the Institutution-There Was Not Less Than Twenty Cases Similar to Hers-Always a Negro and a White Girl-The Vice Mas Existed for Over Twenty Years.

AN UNNATURAL LOVE

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 21 .- The story of the origin of the fire that de-stroyed the Female Reformatory on the night of March I has just come to light, and reveals a remarkable phase of depravity that has existed among the inmates for 20 years.

Little Anna Tapp, a child of 6 years, who had been under the cars of the institution, died yesterday morning as a result of the exposure on the night of the fire. Mrs. Elmira Johnson, the assistant superintendent now in charge of the detachment of prisoners housed at the workhouse, made this death the occasion of a talk to the assembled girls. She lutions. said she had reason to know that one of the girls had set fire to the institution, and this girl had not only that crime but also the death of little Annie Tapp n her head.

Most of the lumates burst into tears, for the child had won the hearts of even the criminal women in the prison. A little later Minnie Johnson, one of the three girls who had been suspected of starting the fire, sent for Mrs. Johnson. The latter went to her cell and she there confessed that she had set fire to the building.

Minnie Johnson is a rather pretty girl of 17, who was sent up from Richmond two years ago on conviction of theft. She had been working in the laundry on the day of the fire and had lingered be-hind the rest. When they were gone she ignited an ironing cloth at a gas jet and threw it upon a shelf under a stairway. From this started the fire that wrecked the building. In her confession the Johnson girl said that she had not intended to fire the building, but simply to create a scare to get even because Patsy Williams, a colored girl, had been separated from her. An intimacy of long standing and of re-volting nature had existed between these two girls. It had been detected through two girls. It had been detected through endearing and disgusting notes between them that had been intercepted, and the officials of the prison had made every effort to break it up without auccess. until they finally removed the negro girl from the prison. This confession gave rise, of course, to further inquiries by reporters, and elic-ited the information that there are no less than twenty such cases of unnatural love among the female prisoners, and what is most remarkable, each case is a mixture of the races. It is always a negro and white girl, never two of the same race. The officials have made every effort to break it up, but the inmates resort to all sorts of schemes to meet resort to all sorts of schemes to meet each other and be together. The vice has existed for over twenty years, and all efforts to stop it have proved unsuccessful. The board of man-agers is thinking of erecting separate buildings for white and colored inmates.

It is situated on Hagen avenue near Gravier, in an ere are treated there. Treatment plays a small part in the matter, though, as the disease is incurable, and the hospi-tal is designed simply to prevent lepers from mingling with the rest of human kind.

About a month ago a young white giri, Miss Naomi Ribbi, came to the hos-pital from Iberville Parish. She be-longed to one of the Creole families in that section of the State, and was only 20 years old. Iberville is the home of a number of lepers, and from some one there the young woman contracted the terrible disease. When received at the leper hospital it was found she was be-yond even the alloyinition of her pain. Both bar cres had been eaten away. She lived a month, passing through terrible tortares, and died in great agony yesterday.
