ONE CENT.

A small "want" advertisement placed in the "Herald" will bring more answers to the advertiser than through any other paper in the town. WANT because it is more generally read. One trial will convince you of this fact, for the simple reason that the "Herald" is read by all the people of the town.

GIVE US PERMANENT ROADS.

We are too apt to ignore that which we trample under foot. The ancients knew and appreciated more the importance of good public roads than we do to-day. Many of the roads built by the ancient Romans and traveled by the proud Roman conquerors remain to this day. This is particularly the case in Turkey, where they have, ever since the Roman era, been in use with little or no repair. Of the numerous evidences left by them of their greatness and civilization these roads are the seal and stamp.

Have we any Romans in our Borough Council? We need them, and if the spirit of reform our Councilmen profess is more than skin deep they will prove themselves "the noblest Romans of them all" by commencing good work on the streets early and push it ahead until we have roads upon which we may look without blushing. And, above all, give us roads that will not, like the flowers, bloom in the spring and die in the fall, like the leaves. Where good roads prevail you find a community loth to give them up. It is a spirit of economy that restrains the work, and it is false economy. There are few blessings that any community can know equal to that of having first class roads. Circulation, which is the backbone of business, is facilitated by good roads. But unless they are made first class, to commence with, you will never have them and you throw away the money you invest in them.

FREE TRADE and free silver coinage, in their inevitable results, mean the reduction of home wages and employment and the payment of all remaining wages and employment in dollars worth seventy cents, or less. Isn't that a dainty dish to set before King Labor?

CAPITAL in this country is now about able to take care of itself in manufacturing enterprises, but labor is assailed by the cheap competition of the oppressed hordes of the world, and must have protection or sink to the level of its assailants.

IMPORTED cheap labor is less dangerous and injurious to our home labor than imported cheap labor products, but both must be held in check by governmental protection in the form of immigration laws and McKinley laws, or our labor will be overwhelmed and degraded.

REPUBLICAN

In 1890, during November, the exports of hams from the United States to Cuba amounted in value to $24,899. In 1891, under Republican reciprocity, during the corresponding month, our exports of such articles to that country amounted in value to $40,854. Republican reciprocity caused this increase of $15,955, or 64 per cent. in these exports.

MR. SPRINGER is a very agile performer in the ring of Democratic politics, but he will come to grief in his attempt to pull free wool over the eyes of the plain people of this country.

CINCINNATI wants to expend $5,000,000 in improving her water supply. This is a direct blow at the first principles of the Democratic party.

UNDER the Democratic rules the House is ruled by three kings—Crisp, McMillan and Catchings. All from the South, of course.

THE fathers and founders of free trade in this country advocated the doctrine that capital should own labor, white and black.

FREE woollogically means free trade, absolute and unconditional, all along the line of foreign trade.

OUR ELECTRIC RAILWAY PRAISED.

A VISITOR TO TOWN INSPECTS THE LINE

SAYS IT IS ONE OF THE FINEST

In Equipment and All Other Respects and Predicts It Will Be One of the Best Paying Lines in the State—A Paying Investment.

RAILWAY matters were under discussion in the office of the Ferguson House last evening when a HERALD reporter entered and was introduced to Mr. F. B. Musser, superintendent of the East Harrisburg Electric Railway. Mr. Musser is a pleasant gentleman, cool and deliberate in conversation, and seems perfectly at home when discussing electric affairs. Having an opportunity to throw aside his labors at Harrisburg for a day and having heard considerable mention of the Mahanoy City, Shenandoah, Girardville and Ashland Street Railway Company's road, Mr. Musser concluded he would pay Shenandoah a visit and inspect the line.

"How are you impressed with the electric railway here?" the reporter asked. "Very favorably. Very favorably, indeed. I think you have the makings of one of the best electric railway lines I know of."

"How do you think this road will compare with the East Harrisburg, as an investment?"

"It ought to pay better than our road. It will be an inducement for people to travel from one town to another and you have so many towns in a line in this valley the traffic ought to be very brisk and the income large. I went over the line to-day and must confess that the territory is a far better one than I expected to find. When traveling on a railroad through the valley one is led to believe that the population would hardly warrant the building of an electric road, but a drive over the route changes this impression."

"What kind of rail have you got on your line?"

"The flat rail." "Would you sooner have our rail?"

"Yes, indeed; because it is a 'T' rail. That kind of rail is better than the one we have in many respects. It is more easily kept up and cleaned and it does not induce wagon traffic. Sometimes it is almost impossible for us to keep our tracks clear of wagons and trucks. This is a source of considerable annoyance and delay to both the traveling public and the company."

"What is your opinion of the plant at Rappahannock?"

"It is second to none. I don't know that I have ever seen one equal to it in general appearance and equipment. I am very favorably impressed with your cars. They are very fine and far superior in general appearance and workmanship to any I have seen. I was surprised to find such cars provided for a line that is to have so much traffic by miners. The cars are of much finer finish than those we have. As to the power house, I am very much pleased. It is laid out well and the equipment is first class. The car house is very nicely arranged and equal to any I know of. I have been in the electric railway business for several years and have seen all the roads in the country. In making a comparison I am free to say that this one is first class. The road bed is very good. It is constructed on first class principles and I can see that money has been spent to make it first class."

"What do you think of the grade on the dirt bank on the outskirts of this town—do you think any difficulty will result from it in connection with the curves?"

"No, sir. We have curves of 34 feet with a pitch of 8 per cent. I notice that you have but 6 per cent. pitch on 45-foot curves?"

"Did you pay any attention to the trees at this point?"

"Yes, sir; and I believe the spans are perfectly safe. I have seen trestles built like those for main railroad line travel. In fact, I believe that half the flamber you have in the trestles would answer the purpose. The spans are very close together and I can see that money has been spent to make it what it appears to me—a first class job."

"Do you return to Harrisburg to-morrow?"

"No; I have accepted an invitation from Mr. Sadler, the vice president of the line, to witness the running of cars between Lost Creek and the power house. I am pleased that I have an opportunity to witness the operation of such a plant, as I will remain here to-morrow."

"He who steals my purse steals trash;" but he who wantonly purloins my "bottle of Salvation Oil, steals something that enriches him and indeed leaves me bankrupt, a victim to agony and pain, a sorrowing, woe-filled citizen, until I can slowly creep to the nearest drug store.

J. Harry James, Esq., of Ashland, was a visitor to town to-day.

Mrs. John Davidson and son Harry, spent to-day with friends in St. Clair.

Mrs. John Rohland, of South Plum alley, has presented her husband with a son.

Otto Paas, of Philadelphia, traveling passenger agent for the Atchison, Topika & Santa Fe Railroad, was in town last evening.

Superintendent Edward Reese, of Centralia, was in town to-day receiving congratulations upon his election as delegate to the Republican State Convention.

Peter Monaghan arrived in town to-day from Iowa. His appearance was a great surprise. He left here about 15 years ago for the West and had not been heard of for so long a time he was given up as dead. He is a brother of J. B. Monaghan, the South Main street merchant, and has a family of grown up children at Turkey Run. Peter was one of the original members of the Columbia Hose Company.

LOCALETTES.

Daylight is lengthening. March is on the home stretch. Next we'll be having April showers.

Burnt coffee is the simplest disinfectant. Just use the feminine fancy runs to belts. Contractors and builders expect a busy season.

Confectioners are now laying sugar Easter eggs. Winter dies hard but he'll soon have to leave go his hold.

One seldom succeeds in living up to his highest aspirations. The warm sun has greatly diminished the size of the snow banks.

Patent leather shoes given care and attention last the longer for it. Mr. Button's family expects to leave for Tallapoosa, Georgia, next week.

Mrs. Keim, mother of O. A. Keim, of town, was buried in Pottstown yesterday.

A good many people will try to do their moving before the 1st of April.

As a general thing pretty good prices are being realized at the public sales. It is usually a man who has a head like a cork who gets along best in the world.

The Shenandoah correspondent to the Journal wants P. J. to have his theatre better managed. The old man in his second childhood, is rarely as ridiculous as the young father in his first babyhood.

Electric lights are a blessing to engaged people. No matches are broken off where they are in use in homes.

Compelling a bird who can sing is small work compared to cooing some people who can't sing into not trying.

The man who keeps a barking dog, a crowing rooster and a stamping horse, is just the fellow to complain about the piano next door.

Don't miss the opportunity. No other refused at Wasley's for boots, shoes, &c. Beautiful weather. The frost will soon be out of the ground and work resumed on the electric road in town.

Political Points.

Republican primaries one week from to-morrow. Marshal Leeds has been made to walk the plank.

A. E. L. Lockie wants to represent this district in the next Legislature. He would no doubt poll a large vote in the First ward, if nominated.

There is more harmony among the Republicans in this town than in any other town in the county. The efforts of outsiders to manufacture a mountain out of a mole hill meets little encouragement.

The Republican primaries, to-morrow a week, will be held between the hours of 3 and 7 o'clock p. m.

The silver bill will take a needed rest. The Council "deal" is still a subject of much comment.

Robert Allison, of Port Carbon, denies he has withdrawn from the Senatorial contest in the 25th district.

James Culver, of Port Carbon, would rather go to the Legislature than be postmaster.

The Republican seems to be in high glee because the President failed to consult Senator Quay in the appointment of a postmaster in Swatara. Holy Scott!

Garden hose, nozzles, etc., seems to be the stock in trade with some politicians. Turn on the light.

Why not make the new water company "an islah" in the county Republican primaries? It would be a good card.

No better known remedy exists for all forms of Rheumatic diseases than the Genuine Imported Anchor Pain Expeller. To be had at all druggists at 50 cents a bottle.

Base Ball.

Our people who are in favor of having base ball this season will be called on to put down a contribution toward the support of the club. If there is to be ball this season, lovers of the game must rally to the support of the club.—Mahanoy Tri-Weekly Record.

Coughing Leads to Consumption. Kemp's Balsam will stop the cough at once.

Revival Meetings. The noted Evangelist, Rev. Arthur J. Ex-Sheriff Hobart Dead. Ex-Sheriff John P. Hobart, one of the best known citizens in this county, died at Pottsville yesterday, aged 78 years. Mr. Hobart was born in Pottstown in 1814, and after spending his boyhood days there, went to Reading, studied law and was admitted to the bar July 24, 1837. After practicing in that city for two years, he removed to Orwigsburg, this county, in 1840, where he engaged in the practice of his profession. In 1844 he went to Wisconsin and spent a couple of years there and again returned to Schuylkill county. He continued the practice of law, and in 1858 was elected Sheriff of Schuylkill county, and served his constituents well in that office. He held the office of United States Commissioner a number of years previous and up to the time of his death.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse. Mr. and Mrs. Loren Treescott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dread ail cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold. Yes, you may get a trial bottle free at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store.

The Police Appointments. The Pottsville Chronicle says, "From reports heard the fur will fly at the next meeting of the Borough Council of Shenandoah. A great deal of hard feeling has arisen over the police appointments, and some of the Councilmen will demand at the meeting the examination of the newly appointed officers. To be able to read and write are one of the indispensable qualifications."

Strength and Health. If you are not feeling strong and healthy, try Electric Bitters. If 'La Grippe' has left you weak and weary, use Electric Bitters. Leg Squeezed. Thomas Evans, a boy residing at 225 South West street, was injured in the Suffolk colliery yesterday afternoon. One of the cars used at Maple Hill colliery, which are much larger and higher than the regular cars, was run into the place where the boy was working and it dislodged the platform upon which he was seated and turning a fan. The boy was forced against a piece of timber and his right thigh was badly bruised. He was taken to his home in an ambulance.

An Important Difference. To make it apparent to thousands, who think themselves ill, that they are not afflicted with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a costive condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

Mine Foreman Injured. Lewis Evans, inside foreman at the slope of Ellengowan colliery, is confined to a residence on South Jardin street, on account of an injury sustained yesterday. While Evans and others were ascending the slope in a car at dinner time the car left the rails. Evans tried to get out of the car and his left foot was caught between the bumper and guard rail. The flesh was torn from the sole of the foot and the injury will keep Evans in the house for two or three weeks.
