THE New York Democrats are discovering that the worst political schism is "Bossism."

DECISIONS of the highest court in the land settle nothing with Dave Hill. There is always an appeal open to Hill.

CLEVELAND and Hill are rendering such service to the Republican cause that it is possible they may yet demand of that party to belts nominees.

DO THE warring Democrats think by knocking each other out that it will be considered a sign that they can knock the Republicans out? That's their usual logic.

GOVERNOR MCKINLEY was exactly right when he said if there was no protection on wool as it comes off the sheep's back there would be none on woollens as they go on the back of the farmers.

THE money that goes abroad to pay for the labor of manufacturing one hundred million dollars' worth of woolen goods, or iron goods, etc., is absolutely taken from the employment and pay of labor in this land.

IF there were any doubts about the world revolving, the question would be settled by a glance at South America. It makes so many revolutions that it keeps one in a perpetual state of dizziness watching it.

MODUS or no modus, it will be a queer state of things if our choicest ships and the best vessels of the Queen's Navy cannot be put to any better use this summer than to chase one another in the dense fogs that enshroud the Behring waters. But this is election year in England, and there's no telling what may be done for effect.

THE Democrats were just as positive that the McKinley bill was unconstitutional as they were that it was ruinous and would utterly destroy the foreign trade of the country. The Supreme Court has explained how badly they were mistaken on the first point, and has shown that the law is constitutional and valid in every particular. The figures giving the imports and exports for the last year show a great growth instead of falling off in foreign trade, and conclusively dispose of the second objection the Democrats made to the McKinley tariff.

THERE is a bee reported buzzing in Mr. Holman's bonnet. It is undoubtedly a very thrifty little bee, which enjoys more laying up stores of honey than disbursing it.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Truscott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dread cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones." Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store.

"He who steals my purse steals trash," but he who wantonly purloins my bottle of Salvation Oil, steals something that enriches him instead and leaves me bankrupt, a victim to aches and pains, a sorrowing, woe-filled citizen, until I can slowly creep to the nearest drug store.

THE CONVICTED TOWN MERCHANTS.

EFFORTS TO FIND GOLDMAN AND RING FAIL.

IGNORANCE OF THEIR FRIENDS.

They Profess to Know Nothing of the Whereabouts of the Men Who Have Been Seen but Little Since the Verdict Was Rendered.

HERE is Max Goldman, or L. Ring? is a question that is being repeatedly propounded by our townsmen. Few people have seen them since their conviction and their friends profess utter ignorance as to their whereabouts.

L. Lauterstein, who was one of the defendants in the case and was acquitted, says he knows nothing concerning the men. "Goldman came to town with me Wednesday night," said he to a HERALD reporter, "but I have not seen Ring since the judge charged the jury."

A HERALD reporter called at the Goldman shoe store yesterday afternoon and found Mrs. Goldman in charge. She said her husband and Ring had gone to Pottsville and would probably return on the 4:10 p. m. Pennsylvania train. This morning the reporter again visited the store and Mrs. Goldman again informed him that her husband and Ring went to Pottsville yesterday. She said she expected them home last night, but they did not come.

Persisting in his inquiries a HERALD reporter learned from another source that Goldman is in New York and Ring is believed to be with him.

Reports were circulated about town late yesterday afternoon that Goldman left town on the 5:40 Lehigh Valley train Thursday morning for New York City and that he took passage on a steamer for Germany that afternoon.

"This story was clearly a hoax as a prominent gentleman of town who knows Goldman says he will take oath that at about 7 o'clock Thursday morning he met Goldman in front of his store and spoke to him. This statement led to the conclusion that Goldman was hiding in town, but the information the HERALD has received that Goldman is in New York seems to come from a reliable source.

L. Lauterstein was seen at the Lehigh Valley depot this morning and was questioned by a HERALD reporter.

"Where is Goldman, and where is Ring?" "I don't know. I can't tell you." "They are in New York—are they not?" "May be. I can't tell you," he answered with a smile.

"Yes, and I believe he did."

"But a well known man of town says he met and spoke to Goldman on Centre street at 7 o'clock this morning."

"I don't think he did," said Lauterstein. "I think the man is mistaken and that he met Goldman on Wednesday morning."

It appears that Mrs. Mary Menton had been a tenant of Grant's house and let rent due. The judge directed the jury to find a verdict for the defendants.
