BLAND'S BILL DEAD

He Charges Speaker Crisp With Inconsistency.

POSTPONED UNTIL DECEMBER.

Congressman Pierce Blames Cleveland for Its Failure to Pass.

The Committee on Rules Will Not Hold a Meeting To-day—The Closure Rule Will Not be Presented, as the Free Coinage Men Could Not Get More than Twenty-five Legislators in its Favor—Mr. Bland Gives Up the Fight.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The Bland Free Coinage bill is dead for this session of Congress. Mr. Bland himself has given up the fight. He accuses Speaker Crisp, to speak mildly, of inconsistency in refusing to vote in the Committee on Rules, as Bland alleges he had promised, for a special order with a cloture provision, unless a majority of Democrats in the House would sign a petition to that effect.

The Committee on Rules has decided to hold no meeting to-day, as Bland and his lieutenants have been unable to obtain more than twenty-five signatures for a cloture provision. Pierce, of Tennessee, accuses the Clevelandites of killing the silver bill, and leading Democrats acknowledge that the result makes more uncertain the Presidential candidacy. Mr. Pierce said:

"It was Grover Cleveland who killed silver in the House, and I want the country to know it. The National banks and other moneyed institutions have also brought tremendous influence to bear against the bill. The vote of last Thursday showed that two-thirds of the Democrats in the House favored the Free Silver bill, and if that is not enough for the Speaker and the Committee on Rules, I don't know what will satisfy them."

All the leading Democrats in the House refused to sign any petition for a cloture rule, on the ground that such a proceeding would stultify their protest against Mr. Reed's action in the last Congress and the action of the Democratic Senators last session in fighting the Force bill.

Mr. Reed and his followers have, with the anti-silver Democrats, forced the situation, and have placed the anti-silver Democrats in a position where they must either endorse his leadership of the last Congress or embrace what they denominate as the free silver heresy.

HARRISON SATISFIED.

Lord Salisbury's Reply Said to be Acceptable.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The Senate in executive session showed an increasing disposition to ratify the Behring Sea Arbitration Treaty, in view of what is considered Lord Salisbury's partial concession to the American claims.

The British Premier proposes that the treaty be ratified and the modus vivendi be immediately renewed, with the proviso that Canadian vessels which furnish security for damages in case the decision of the tribunal is against Great Britain, be allowed to hunt seals, or that the prohibition of sealing be enforced, if the United States will engage to pay damages to Canadian sealers if the decision is in favor of Great Britain.

The President and Cabinet, it is announced, are satisfied with Lord Salisbury's offer, and a favorable reply is expected to be submitted to the Senate to-day.

Wants $10,000 Damages.

ASBURY PARK, March 29.—Abraham Schlosbach, a merchant of West Asbury Park, instituted a suit for $10,000 damages against Simon Levy, a prominent clothier of Sea Bright. Four years ago burglars entered Levy's store and carried off $2,000 worth of goods. Recently Schlosbach was arrested charged with the crime. When the case was called it was dismissed by the Supreme Court Judge. Schlosbach claims that the arrest ruined his credit with city merchants and hence the suit.

Any commercial traveler who shall transfer or loan any privilege granted him is made punishable by fine of $500, or imprisonment not to exceed six months.

The score: New York 13, Washington 6.

OMINOUS THREATS

Paris Panic-Stricken Over Anarchist Plots.

ALL SORTS OF RUMORS AFLOAT.

The People Do Not Place Much Faith in the Police.

President Carnot and Members of the Cabinet Receive Letters—Wealthy Families Warned and Have Applied to the Authorities for Protection—A Building Society Requests a Double Guard—Many Arrests Made—Louise Michel Expected.

PARIS, March 29.—This city is panic-stricken and all sorts of rumors are afloat as to letters received by the police, Cabinet members and President Carnot, threatening vengeance in case the police do not stop their demagogic visits.

The "Intransigent," "Bataille" and other organs of their revolutionary tendency contend that the perpetrators of the outrages of the last few weeks are not arrested because the police side with Constans in whose interests the demonstrations are got up.

The general feeling is, however, that the police are incompetent and are now feeling the results of their negligence to keep in touch with the Anarchists.

Formerly much of the secret fund was devoted to corrupted agitators and getting the secrets of the organization from them, but the secret fund has been diverted recently to political uses, it is said, and the police have been left in the dark as regards the plots of Anarchists and Nihilists alike.

The police have received appeals for protection from several wealthy families who have received warning letters.

A building society which owns most of the property in the Flaine-Monceau requested a double guard last night, as its secretary received three letters during the day warning it that the property was marked for destruction because the owners had ejected non-paying tenants and had refused to let rooms at low rates to the poor.

Many arrests are said to have been made, but at the Prefecture of Police the one answer to all questions is: "There is nothing to be said."

Louise Michel is expected to arrive here to-morrow.

DROGGED FROM THE BENCH.

Paterson's Recorder Forebly Removed to Give His Successor the Place.

PATERSON, N. J., March 29.—Frank Van Cleve, who was recently appointed police justice of this city, presented his commission to Recorder James F. Stewart and demanded his position. Recorder Stewart refused to vacate the bench, saying that the law giving Van Cleve the position was unconstitutional. Van Cleve again demanded the bench, but the recorder refused to vacate.

Van Cleve called in Chief of Police Graul, who told Stewart that he had better retire gracefully. Stewart said he would not. Then Chief Graul removed Stewart by force. Stewart protested all the time. Stewart will test the law in his case by suing the city of Paterson for three years' salary.

Should Not Drink Beer.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 29.—Frank Reiford, his wife and Michael Dolan, who live in a tenement house on Genesee street, all got drunk yesterday on a keg of beer which one of the men found in the street before daylight. Mrs. Reiford, after drinking a few glasses of the liquid, went temporarily insane and attempted to murder her husband and his friend, Dolan. She grabbed a huge knife and went at them and, before they could get out of her reach, they were both bleeding from severe cuts in the face, on the neck and hands. The woman was finally overpowered. Reiford and Dolan are in the hospital and may die.
